After delivering that warning in the capital, Clinton, who was accompanied by his wife, Hillary Rodham Clinton, and daughter, Chelsea, traveled to Tuzla, the headquarters of the multinational force in Bosnia.

There he told several hundred of the 8,500 U.S. troops serving with the NATO- ...

... by the Department of Education for their high academic standards and excellent teaching environment.

The ceremony was attended by first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton and Secretary of Education Richard Riley.

"The Blue Ribbon award shows us schools will work only if principals set high standards, teachers work hard and students are involved," Mrs. Clinton said at the ceremony. "I have been in classrooms like yours, and I come away absolutely exhilarated."

Mrs. Clinton said the country should adopt President Clinton's proposal for standardized national tests for fourth- and eighth-grade students.

"Why ...

CORRECTION:

On page 1M of Wednesday's Garland/Mesquite section, a story on Blue Ribbon Schools should have said that Walnut Glen Academy for Excellence in the Garland Independent School District was nominated for the award by the Texas Education Agency.
