HEADLINE: First lady questioned by Starr about FBI files

BODY:

The seemingly dormant Whitewater investigation returned yesterday, when independent prosecutor Kenneth Starr questioned first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton under oath about the improper acquisition of confidential FBI files by presidential aides four years ago.

The White ...

... spokesman Mike McCurry read a statement from White House Counsel Charles Ruff, saying: "As the president has previously announced, he and Mrs. Clinton are cooperating fully with the independent counsel. Mrs. Clinton voluntarily agreed when an interview was requested."

BACKGROUND ON REPUBLICAN APPOINTEES WAS OBTAINED BY WHITE HOUSE SECURITY

BYLINE: From News Services

DATELINE: WASHINGTON

BODY:

Prosecutors questioned Hillary Rodham Clinton at the White House on Wednesday about the gathering of FBI background files on past Republican political appointees - her fifth session of testimony in the Whitewater investigation.

The interrogation took just 10 minutes.

Mrs. Clinton said she knew nothing about any such collection of files by the office of White House security, according to lawyers and other ...

... Kenneth Starr conducted the interview with his staff. One of the Clintons' personal attorneys, David Kendall, also was present.

"As the president has previously announced, he and Mrs. Clinton are cooperating fully with the independent counsel," said the presidential spokesman, Mike McCurry, reading a statement by the White House counsel, Charles F.C. Ruff. "Mrs. Clinton voluntarily agreed when an interview was requested."

Starr declined to comment.

Questions about Hillary Clinton's role in the FBI files controversy arose when an FBI report came to light in 1996. It quoted Bernard Nussbaum, then the White House counsel, as telling an FBI agent, in 1993, that Mrs. Clinton "highly recommended" Livingstone for his job. Nussbaum had told a House committee the previous month that he did not know who ...
