Dear President Clinton,

Thank you for sending a lot of wonderful pictures. The two photos with your signature are treasures of our family. We will present the others to people who help us. Your facial expression on the pictures tells us all of your mind, condolences on the death of our son and determination to control guns.

We are very happy to know that America is changing little by little. The Brady Law was passed. We heard you put all your influence into the ban on assault weapons and it passed. Thank you again for your great work.

Sincerely,

服部政一 美恵子
