REQUEST: POTUS request to take part in presentation of final PACHA report for Clinton Administration

BACKGROUND: In 1995, under Executive Order 12963, the President created the Presidential Advisory Council on HIV/AIDS under the Department of Health and Human Services. Since that time, the Council has issued annual reports to the Clinton Administration expressing the Council's recommendations for policies concerning HIV/AIDS prevention and services.

As the Council prepares for its last months serving under the Clinton Administration, it has compiled a final progress report detailing its hopes for the conclusion of the President's term and recommendations for the next administration.

Time TBD

DURATION: 1 hour

LOCATION: The Roosevelt Room

PARTICIPANTS: Invited: The President
The Vice President
Secretary Albright
Secretary Cuomo
Secretary Shalala
Secretary Summers
Sandra L. Thurman
Daniel C. Montoya
PACHA Chair, Ronald V. Dellums
PACHA members

OUTLINE OF

EVENTS: The Chair of the Presidential Advisory Council on HIV/AIDS will make some brief introductory remarks. Subsequently, PACHA members will overview and present the President with their final report. Following the presentation, the President will make some short remarks regarding the Council and the significance of the final report after which the Vice President will also make some remarks on the report. Finally, there will be a short question and answer session.

REMARKS: Yes. A draft from the Office of National AIDS Policy will be submitted to speechwriting for review and revision.
