REID, D-Nev., subsequently changed his vote from nay to yea on pg. S16041) (Senate Vote 553) (CR p. S16036-S16037)

10/27/95 Chair sustained 46 of the 49 provisions contained in an EXON, D-Neb., point of order against certain provisions of the bill, on the grounds that the amendments are extraneous and violate the Byrd rule, section 313(b)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act. (see CR p.S16049) (Subsequently, it was determined that a motion to waive the Congressional Budget Act would take precedence over the Chair's ruling.) (CR p. S16027, S16049)

10/27/95 DOMENICI, R-N.M., motion to waive the the Budget Act with respect to consideration of the provisions included in the welfare bill, rejected by yea-nay vote: 53-46. (3/5's of the senators duly chosen and sworn not having voted in the affirmative) (see CR p.S10651) (Senate Vote 555) (CR p. S16049-S16051)

10/27/95 Subsequently, the Chair sustained and ruled out of order 46 of the 49 provisions contained in the EXON, D-Neb., point of order; the EXON point of order against the remaining provisions -- regarding exemption of agriculture and horticulture organizations from unrelated business income tax on associate dues, tree assistance program, and Spectrum language -- was overruled. (CR p. S16051)

10/27/95 DOLE, R-Kan., unanimous consent that the Senate strike all after the enacting clause of HR2491 (House similar bill) and insert in lieu thereof the text of S1357, as amended, by the Senate. (CR p. S16095-S16096) (WR pp. 3369, 3370)

10/27/95 Other measure HR2491, as amended by the Senate, passed the Senate in lieu. (Senate Vote 556) (CR p. S16095-S16096)

10/27/95 Measure indefinitely postponed by Senate by unanimous

The only issues related to choice are the same ones that we signed into law last year or in previous years (e.g., restrictions on embryo research, restrictions on coverage of abortions except in cases of rape or incest in the Labor/HHS (medicaid), Treasury/Postal (FEHB), and CJS (Federal prisoners) bills, and population planning funding restrictions (Foreign Ops bill). As you know, the President has already signed the D.C. bill and the DOD authorization bill, both of which contained restrictions on abortion. We are continuing to raise the remaining issues as problematic to the Administration--and it appears from what we have seen from the Labor/HHS conferees that we have secured the deletion of the Porter family planning amendment (the provision requiring people to meet certain income standards before getting assistance that could have caused problems for teens who did not want to bring their parents into it, because their parents income would be counted--but if I had to guess, I would say the other bills will not change and the President will probably sign them because we have signed these provisions in the past. The only exception to this impression is with respect to the Foreign Ops bill, where I believe we will succeed in getting more acceptable population planning funding language.

Nancy/Sarah,

I need to give the VP a couple brief examples of Republican efforts to cut family planning. This is what I have, and I know it's out of date. Can you quickly update it and e-mail back to me? Thanks.

As part of the Labor/HHS Appropriations bill, the House Appropriations Committee voted to eliminate Title X funding and put the money into Maternal and Child Health and other block grants to states. Moderate Republicans joined with House Democrats to remove this provision on the House floor.

A ban of all federal funding for overseas family planning non-governmental and multinational organizations that perform abortions and/or attempt to influence governmental policy on abortion (similar to "Mexico City policy" overturned by President Clinton) passed the House as part of the Foreign Operations Authorization bill. Senator Helms failed to get cloture on the Senate version of the Authorization bill, which barred funding for the United Nations Fund for Population Activities.

Re: Talking About Falling Abortion Rates

*The Abortion Rate Is Dropping....

YEAR	AGI	CDC
1992	1.529 million	1.359 million
1993	(Preliminary) 1.501 million	1.330
1994	(Preliminary) 1.435 million	No data available

Since 1992, there has been a consistent drop in abortion rates. AGI preliminary data shows a 1.8% drop from 1992 to 1993 and a 4.4% drop from 1993

-1994, for a total 6.2% drop from 1992. (The abortion rate has been falling steadily since 1981, so we cannot and should not claim that Clinton Administration policies are responsible for the falling abortion rate.)

However, we are the first Administration since 1981 to advocate family planning policies and contraception, and the first to devise a comprehensive approach to teen pregnancy prevention. While we can't claim these policies are responsible for falling abortion rates, we can say we've reduced unintended pregnancies through increasing family planning dollars, and working to reduce teen pregnancy.

Administration's Efforts To Increase Family Planning

The ten percent of women of childbearing age who use no contraception account for more than half of the unintended pregnancies in this country. Most of the remaining unintended pregnancies are caused by inconsistent or incorrect use of contraceptives. To help prevent unwanted pregnancies, the President has requested budget increases for the federal Family Planning Program for each year he has been in office. Among other reproductive health and education services, this program makes family planning information and contraception available to millions of women who might not otherwise get reproductive health care.

Administration's Teen Pregnancy Prevention Efforts

Each year, almost 1 million American teenagers become pregnant -- approximately 11% of all women ages 15

-19. Among teenagers, 85% of pregnancies are unintended. Of the 1.5 million abortions obtained by U.S. women in 1991, 327,000 were obtained by teenagers.

To address this serious problem, the Clinton Administration has pursued policies which recognize the fundamental obligation of all Americans to exercise personal responsibility, while expanding opportunities for at -risk young people to make positive life choices.

The country is seeing results: The teen birth rate has dropped four years in a row by a total of 8 percent. Further, the birth rate for unmarried women dropped 4 percent -- the first decline in nearly two decades.

?Private

-Sector Initiative: President Clinton challenged leaders across the nation to come together to address the serious problem of teen pregnancy. In response, an independent, bipartisan organization was formed. The National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy was established as a private, not

-for

-profit entity under the direction of Thomas Kean, former Governor of New Jersey and now President of Drew University.

?Welfare Reform: From day one of this Administration, we have pursued policies to reform welfare. Of the Administration's many initiatives, the President took executive action in May 1996 to require teenage mothers to stay in school and sign personal responsibility contracts or lose their welfare benefits. In August 1996, President Clinton signed the welfare reform bill which includes proposals that promote work, reduce teen pregnancy, improve opportunities for youth, and strengthen families. In particular, the new welfare law requires the Secretary of Health and Human Services to set national goals to reduce teen pregnancy January 1, 1996;

?Appointed Senior Advisor on Teen Pregnancy Prevention: In January 1996, President Clinton appointed Dr. Henry Foster (Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Meharry Medical College and founder of the "I Have A Future" teen pregnancy prevention program in Nashville) to serve as Senior Advisor to the President on teen pregnancy and related youth issues. Dr. Foster works with community

-based organizations across the country to give young people the tools they need to build responsible and productive lives.

What Republicans Will Say

Jack Kemp will likely argue that the falling abortion rate is due to Republican's policy of abstinence. We can argue that is not true.

-Sexual activity is still very high, but more people are using contraception and are using it better. Teen birth rates have fallen for the fourth year in a row for a total 8% drop, while teen abortion rates have not gone up. Also, for the first time in almost 20 years, the birth rate for unmarried women fell.

-Republicans have consistently tried to eliminate family planning programs both in our country and abroad. Among many attempts, Republicans have tried to eliminate Title X funding and put the money into Maternal and Child Health and other block grants to states.

PRINTER FONT 12_POINT_ROMAN_ITALIC

*Note of explanation for the two sets of data: One is from CDC and the other is from the Alan Guttmacher Institute. The Alan Guttmacher Institute (AGI) numbers are higher than the CDC numbers by approximately 12

-15%. This is because they adjust the CDC numbers to include abortions reported by small providers, which are not included in the CDC calculations. The AGI numbers are well

-respected and generally accepted as more accurate. Note that though the numbers may be higher, the rates of decline they show are the same as the CDC. (Again, because AGI numbers are based on the CDC numbers.)

Currently official abortion data are available for 1993 according to CDC calculations, and for 1992 for AGI calculations (AGI's Deputy Director of Research, Stanley Henshaw, provided AGI's 1993 and 1994 preliminary data and says it should change little.)

On domestic family planning, your bullet is essentially correct: During the FY 1996 budget process, the House Appropriations Committee zeroed out Title X family planning programs and transferred that funding to the Maternal and Child Health block grant. The funding was restored on the House floor.

With respect to international family planning efforts, there are two areas of focus. First, in the 1995 Foreign Operations Authorization bill, which the President eventually vetoed, the congress tried to reinstitute the so-called "Mexico City" policy that had been followed by the Bush Administration. President Clinton signed an executive order on his first day in office that changed this policy, which had banned the receipt of Federal funds by international family planning agencies that performed abortions or attempt to influence governmental policy on abortion, even if they use their own funds from another source for those activities. Second, over the past two years, the Congress has tried in the appropriations process to reinstitute "Mexico City." While they have not succeeded in that effort, they have added other restrictions that have effectively reduced funding for international family planning efforts from more than $500 million in FY 1995 down to around $150 million in the fiscal year that just ended, FY 1996. The Administration was successful in getting much of that funding restored for the newly-started fiscal year, FY 1997.

Hope this helps you.

Sorry, Lyn I just saw this note. Sarah had put the meeting on my schedule, but without a room number, and when I tried to find it, I couldn't find anyone who could tell me where it was. I had a 5:30 PM with Frank Raines about a Medicaid issue so I just gave up. Maybe you can bring me up to date.

As promised, here's a brief update on issues/projects etc.:

WELFARE REFORM

Main issues under discussion:

USDA has to get out guidance this week on how states are to determine whether immigrants have the 40 quarters of work they need to continue eligibility for food stamps. Drafting proceeding well; hope to have it out by Friday.

USDA also has drafted guidance on waivers for states to apply for on the high employment definition for 18-50 year olds. This is the area the President asked about on your WR memo. Diana, OMB, Elena and I are reviewing. Again we hope to have this out soon as well.

SSI Kids - Diana has been keeping you posted, I believe. Meeting on the Hill, advocates position, Ken position, etc.

Medicaid - difficult issues here re waivers and a "bucket" for people losing SSI so they can still qualify for Medicaid.

Meetings have happened to discuss - work in ongoing.

Means Tested Benefits - Based on your, Jack and Frank's feedback, as well as the POTUS note, we are moving forward with the entitlement approach. HHS will be sending a memo to DOJ shortly.

Web Page - the web page should be up and running by next week.

Jeanine has done a terrific job pulling this together and I am excited by the progress.

OTHER ISSUES

Partnerships:

- we are moving forward with planning for the Conference on Dec 3 and 4. Save the Date notices have gone out.

- the National Indicators are about to be finalized by the statistics folks with the goal of a memo to the President by the beginning of December.

- the Partnerships web page is also nearly done, and I hope can be unveiled at the Conference.

- I am working closely with Kumiki, Elaine, and others (OMB, NEC) on a proposal for reworking the CEB - to dramatically upgrade its staff and support and to provide a true field presence of Community "Barrier Busters" who would help communities develop and fulfill strategic plans for their communities. I would love to update you more about this in person. The goal is a memo to the VP just after the election.

Zero Tolerance/Driving/Drugs

- Working with Dennis, Bruce, DOT, ONDCP, Counsel on three announcements: (1) the letter to the FCC on liquor advertising (just hard liquor is the call); (2) announcement of zero tolerance regs on minor drinking and driving; and (3) Pres memo to DOT asking them to look at drug testing minors for drivers licenses.

Family Planning

- Martha Foley asked us to pull together a group to work on the issue of Family Planning money for int'l NGOs. This is one of the most consistently sticky issues in the appropriations process each year as you know and this year there is a requirement for a Presidential certification on the topic in February. It seems to make most sense for DPC to take the lead, so Lyn and I held one meeting last week internal to the WH and will be having an interagency chit-chat next week.

Welfare to work internships

- Bruce's idea; can't remember if we have discussed - we are trying to set up a WH welfare to work internship program so a few people from wtw programs nearby can fulfill their work requirements by working at the WH. Dorothy is working on this with the intern office and with Counsel's office. Looks promising.

1-800 Number

- Have met with Goodwill and with United Way as well as NGA and our business liaison staff. Lyn has been helpful on this as well. Probable next step is that NGA has to produce list of 50 contacts that businesses can call in each state. Best way to do it appears to be at state level rather than national.

That's the highlights for now. Please let me know if you need any more detailed information on anything! I'd be happy to come over for a few minutes at any time.

SUBJECT: International Family Planning

Meeting On The Language In

The Omnibus Appropriations Bill

Martha Foley has asked the DPC to pull together a meeting to discuss the international family planning language included in the signed Omnibus Appropriations Bill. Specifically, we would like to discuss the process and strategy surrounding the submission of a Presidential finding to Congress by February 1, 1997.

This meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 23 at 11:00 a.m. in room 472 of the Old Executive Office Building.

If you need a copy of the appropriations language, please call Lyn Hogan at (202) 456-5567 and she will fax you the information.

If you have not already provided clearance information for this meeting (the name and date of birth of those attending), please call Dorothy Craft at (202) 456-5571. Thank you.

Dorothy,

Can you schedule a follow-up meeting on the international family planning stuff?

Jeremy wants a meeting on Nov. 13 or thereabouts. I'll drop off a list of those who should be invited (nearly the same as the last list.)

The invite heading should say something like the following and should be from Jeremy and myself. Jeremy should sign off on it.

As was discussed at the October 23 meeting, the State Department and USAID agreed to prepare by Nov. 13 a draft of the substantive material needed for the International Family Planning report requested in the Omnibus Appropriations bill.

We would like to meet Nov. XXXXX to discuss the draft material. A copy will be distributed to each of you prior to the meeting.

Linda Brown checked on the Arkansas family planning waiver and makes the following status report:

As you may recall, HCFA approved Arkansas's waiver on June 18, 1996. The state did not respond to HCFA's award letter because it was dissatisfied with the budget neutrality term and condition.

Discussions were re-opened on this waiver and HCFA has been working with the state to revise the terms and conditions. HCFA expects to send revised terms and conditions to the state by the end of this week (Nov. 1).

The state will then review them and let HCFA know if they are acceptable.

Thanks for the briefing this morning -- it was very helpful. My issue areas -- family planning, domestic violence, teen pregnancy prevention -- seem to be well taken care of!

Two quick questions:

1) Do you know what happened to the $30 million for The Teen Pregnancy Prevention program HHS tried to get last cycle? My understanding is Jeremy and Debbie Fine pushed hard for it, but in the end it wasn't included. Is it covered in this budget? If not, any chance of getting it in?

2) Can we get an exact $$ figure for teen preg prevention funds in this budget? You (or Richard) said somewhere between $12-$13 billion.

Thanks.

Background/Status:

According to the Health Budget Briefing, Lyn attended on Tuesday, November 19th, OMB plans to zero out the Healthy Start program for FY '98 and move those funds to other related programs. Specifically, $50 million of the $96 enacted for Healthy Start will likely be transferred to the Maternal and Child Health Block Grant. It is not clear yet where the other dollars would transfer.

As mentioned in Lyn's first e

-mail, the OMB rationale to cut this program was that Healthy Start was a Bush demonstration program that is popular but hasn't really produced results. HHS attempted to zero it out once before, but was not successful.

States like the block grant better, so it makes sense to put the money there.

Response Points

? It is true that they do not have consistent data across project, but this is because each project is community specific and chose their own benchmarks given the priorities in the communities they serve. This aspect of the program should not be a penalty.

? States do like block grants because of the flexibility they provide, however I'm not so sure that rational works here.

Healthy Start programs have traditionally been flexible and their Maternal and Child Health Bureau link has helped their respective states make the most of their MCHB block grants.

? Healthy Start supports and encourages community collaboration.

? MCHB has forwarded some highlights from the original 15 sites they include:

? All projects are reporting a drop in infant mortality rates(IMR);

? NYC between 1990

-1994, the IMRs decreased by 38% in the project area compared to a 22% decline city

-wide;

? In FY 90, only 14% of women in the Northern Plains area received family planning services, currently 78% of the women who delivered received postpartum family planning services; and

? The proportion of pregnant and parenting women in the Project Area who fail to keep or make prenatal and/or pediatric appointments due to the lack of child care and/or transportation decreased from 30% in 1990 to 9% in 1994 in Boston.

Possible Next Steps

1) Convene larger discussion with appropriate HHS stakeholders, including contracted evaluators of the program.

2) Reduce number of sites, instead of whole program.

3) Outline the added value of giving states @ $1 million more toward their block grant vs. targeting those dollars to areas with high rates of infant mortality.

Healthy Start Sites

The 15 original projects:

1. Baltimore, Maryland
2. Birmingham, Alabama
3. Boston, Massachusetts
4. Chicago, Illinois
5. Cleveland, Ohio
6. Detroit, Michigan
7. New Orleans, Louisiana

8. New York, New York
9. Northern Plains Reservations (South Dakota, North Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska)
10. Northwest Indiana
11. Oakland, California
12. Pee Dee Region, South Carolina
13. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
14. Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
15. Washington, District of Colombia

The Additional 7 in 1994:

1. Dallas, Texas
2. Essex County, New Jersey
3. Florida Panhandle
4. Milwaukee, Wisconsin
5. Mississippi Delta
6. Richmond, Virginia
7. Savannah, Georgia

TEXT:
Message Creation Date was at 25-NOV-1996 13:01:00

I met Friday afternoon with Liz Maguire and other AID pop and health people to talk about the paper as well as pipeline and expenditure estimates.

On the paper, we agreed that AID is going to put in a range of estimates of the total cost (in terms of unwanted births and abortions) of the July start date. The boundaries of the range are determined by using a couple of different methodologies (one of which was prepared by a university grantee). The advantage to this is that it does not sound spuriously accurate, as the current draft does, and it makes the point that, whatever methodology we use and whatever end of the range we're at, the result is still a large number of unwanted pregnancies and abortions. This makes it more difficult for critics to try and invalidate the conclusion by criticizing the methodology. AID also agreed to include more specifics on their best country-specific examples, which they think that they can get from missions in time to make the Dec. 3 deadline, and to beef up other aspects of the paper, such as the inability of other donors to pick up the slack.

Finally, AID is working on a number of charts that will show different scenarios for obligations, expenditures and resulting pipeline. They think that what these charts will show is that, while a March start date will result in a large increase in obligations for FY 97, expenditures will increase much more gradually (or may simply decrease less rapidly). I think that this is the point that Gingrich was interested in (i.e. that the March start date would not lead to large short-term increases in expenditures).

I'm meeting with AID again tomorrow to see where things stand, particularly on the obligation and expenditure estimates, and will let you know how it looks. So far, AID's been extremely cooperative and hard-working on this, so I expect that the final result will be a pretty strong paper.

FYI,

I've been working with HHS and DOJ and the following three reports due early January to the President as well as the International Family Planning Report due in Feb.

1) Statutory Rape Report, due from DOJ Jan. 1

I've seen a draft and passed my comments on to Bruce including event ideas, and will forward those comments to you in a separate e-mail.

2) Teen Pregnancy Prevention Program/National Goals, due from HHS Jan. 1
HHS progress on this has been slow. They have not been able to share anything in writing with us to date, though I received a phone briefing yesterday. The bottom line is that the strategy builds on the HHS document laid out last September. Overall message will be: abstinence, a focus on young adolescents, and developing a targeted, parallel strategy for boys. I will send around highlights of that phone briefing in a separate e-mail, with ideas for events.

3) Domestic Violence Directive Progress Report, due to the President Jan. 3. HHS has prepared a progress report, as required in the October Directive, but it is not for public release. In fact, HHS has a lot of ideas for action, but has made little concrete progress on meeting the requests in the directive, namely offering states guidance and technical assistance. I am working with HHS to come up with something concrete they can announce on Jan. 3 to show progress. Women's groups and state folks are expecting something from them on Jan. 3.

4) Early January will be the one year anniversary of the privately run National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy launched as a result of the President's challenge. We should begin thinking about a possible event to showcase their progress. They now have a distinguished group of House and Senate members on their Congressional Advisory Panel, and the Campaign is fully operational.

Coming in February...

5) President's Report to Congress on Funding Restrictions on Voluntary Family Planning due to Congress by Feb. 1

I have been working with Martha Foley, State and USAID on this. It is in great shape and we should have a final draft around Jan. 10 to distribute to senior White House staff. The report will precipitate a vote on the Hill regarding family planning.

Please forward this information on to anyone else who should see it. Thanks.

We approved similar waivers for 1 or 2 states in the past. It took a long time to work out all the details, but supposedly now everyone is happy.

Report Distribution

I have scheduled a meeting for Monday, Jan. 13 from 2:00 p.m.-3:15 p.m. in room 211 OEOP to discuss the international family planning report due from the President to Congress Feb. 1, 1997.

We will review the final draft of the report and discuss strategy for the draft report distribution.

A copy of the final draft report from AID and State will be distributed for your review prior to the meeting. Please bring your comments and questions to the meeting.

Please RSVP to me. I can be reached at 456-5567 or through e-mail.

Thank you.

Martha Foley asked me to put together a message meeting to discuss releasing the President's report on international family planning. The meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 16 from 2:30-3:30 in room 211 OEOB.

The President is due to submit his report to Congress no later than Feb. 1 and a vote on the report is likely to occur shortly thereafter. The report and the vote are expected to be controversial. In addition, the VP is scheduled to speak to NARAL on Jan. 22 (the Roe v. Wade and Mexico City policy anniversary) and he will likely have to field questions about the report and the upcoming vote, so we need to be clear on message as soon as possible.

We need to discuss the following questions:

- 1) Actual report release date (we have discussed Jan. 30)
- 2) Message
- 3) Release strategy (remarks, press release or what?)

A draft of the report will be distributed to you this evening.

State and USAID are making final edits to the report and are clearing it through Secretary designate Albright and others. The final report will be available Tuesday, Jan. 21.

Options Memo

Following is an options memo on transmittal strategies for the President's report on international family planning. By February 1, the President must submit a finding on the effects of cuts and delays in disbursement of international family planning funds included in the 1997 Foreign Ops Appropriations Act. The President's report will detail the negative consequences of cuts and metering on international family planning programs. Following the transmittal of the President's report, Congress will vote up or down on the finding by adopting a joint resolution no later than Feb. 28, 1997. A positive Congressional vote would release FY '97 funds in March rather than in July. Funds are needed in order to prevent the erosion of the international family planning infrastructure. (These funds are not new money. The funds are already appropriated, but have been held back through statutory language placed in the '97 Foreign Ops appropriations bill by Republicans.) There are several upcoming events and positions to consider as you craft the transmittal strategy.

? During the Inauguration weekend and through Jan. 22, right to life groups will hold anti

-family planning/anti

-abortion rallies.

? Jan. 22 is the anniversary of both Roe v. Wade and President Clinton's overturn of the Mexico City Policy.

? On Jan. 22, the Vice President will give a C

-Span broadcast speech to NARAL, during which he will certainly be questioned about the President's report.
? On Wednesday, January 29, the Rockefeller Foundation will be releasing a general pro

-family planning report.
? As soon as the President's report is transmitted, Rep. Chris Smith (R

-NJ), will charge that international family planning programs use federal funds to provide or promote abortion.
These accusations are false. Using federal funds to provide or promote abortion is illegal.
? Once the President's report is transmitted, women's groups will send a strong message that family planning prevents abortion and that cutting family planning funds will increase abortion.
? This is the first reproductive health vote in the new

Congress and will be one of the only votes on family planning services.

Possible Release Dates: Jan. 30 or Jan. 31
