April 29, 1998

Dear Xavier:

I very much appreciate your assistance in enabling Representatives Rodriguez and Hinojosa to join our delegation to the Second Summit of the Americas in Santiago. Each brought to our work an important perspective from the Congressional Hispanic Caucus.

Together, we were able to advance an action-oriented agenda that will benefit all the peoples of the Americas. Education for all our young people, better jobs through increased trade, promotion of the rule of law, the elimination of narcotics, and the building of a next generation of micro-entrepreneurs, among other goals, will help create a more prosperous and more democratic hemisphere.

I look forward to working with you and the members of the Hispanic Caucus as we now begin our implementation of the worthy initiatives of Santiago.

Once again, thank you and best regards.

Sincerely,
