Alabama

Divider Title: _____

CRIME BILL -- DOLLARS FOR ALABAMA, 1995 TO 2000

LAW ENFORCEMENT

- * 100,000 POLICE -- Guaranteed minimum of $44 million -- more than 500 police officers @ $75,000 per officer.
-  Given Alabama's share of the population and the additional $6.5 billion in discretionary dollars, Alabama should expect a total of about $150 million over the next 6 years.
-  Of the total, up to 85% can be used to hire about 1,700 police officers. At least 15% -- $23 million -- can be used to help pay the training, overtime and administrative costs of implementing community policing in Alabama.
- * PRISONS & BOOT CAMPS -- $56 million for prison grants, including military-style boot camp prisons. An additional estimated $35 million is possible if Alabama meets the "Truth In Sentencing" target of second-time violent offenders serving 85% of their sentences.
- * BYRNE ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $1 billion in the Trust Fund will help continue full funding for these grants, including Alabama's $7 million annual share.
- * RURAL LAW ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $2.3 million for drug and crime enforcement in Alabama's rural areas.
- * DISCRETIONARY GRANTS -- Alabama's law enforcement agencies and courts may apply for:
 -  $1,300,000,000 -- Drug Court programs (treatment backed up by drug testing and certain punishment for non-violent offenders currently on probation.) Estimated $21 million for Alabama -- enough for about 10,500 offenders over six years.
 -  $320,000,000 -- Criminal record systems (Brady Law), communications equipment, and DNA testing; and
 -  $200,000,000 -- Judges, prosecutors and public defenders (estimated $3 million for Alabama).

PREVENTION PROGRAMS

- * LOCAL PARTNERSHIP ACT -- $29 million in direct grants to cities and towns in Alabama. Wide discretion permits local governments to use the dollars for education, drug treatment, and jobs programs.
- * VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT -- $18 million in grants for police, prosecutors and victims services; $5 million in grants for shelters for battered women and their children; and Alabama can apply for a share of $500 million in several discretionary programs.
- * AFTERSCHOOL AND IN-SCHOOL "SAFE HAVENS" FOR AT-RISK CHILDREN -- $21 million for non-profit, community-based organizations in Alabama.
- * DRUG TREATMENT IN PRISONS -- $4.4 million to treat up to an estimated 4,000 drug-addicted prisoners in Alabama prisons over the next 6 years.
- * DISCRETIONARY GRANTS -- Alabama agencies and non-profits may apply for:
 -  YES -- $650 million for the President's Youth Employment and Skills crime prevention program, which provides jobs to young adults in high crime areas. Program involvement is conditioned on continued responsible behavior.
 -  COMMUNITY ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP -- $300 million for lines of credit to community development corporations to stimulate business and employment opportunities for low-income, unemployed and underemployed individuals.
 -  ANTI-GANG GRANTS -- $125 million for programs to give young people positive alternatives to gangs, such as academic, athletic and artistic after-school activities, mentoring programs, scout troops, and sports leagues.
 -  SPORTS LEAGUES -- $40 million for midnight sports leagues to give at-risk youth nightly alternatives to the streets, and $50 million for the U.S. Olympic Committee to develop supervised sports and recreation programs in high-crime areas.
 -  BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS -- $30 million to establish clubs in low-income housing communities, and $10 million to encourage police officers to live in those communities.

-  TRIAD -- $6 million for partnerships between senior citizens groups, police chiefs and sheriffs to combat crimes against elderly Americans.
-  POLICE PARTNERSHIPS FOR CHILDREN -- $20 million for partnerships between law enforcement and social service agencies to fight crimes against children, and for the creation of youth councils to combat crime.
-  VISITATION CENTERS -- $30 million for supervised centers for divorced or separated parents to visit their children in "safe havens" when there is a history or risk of physical or sexual abuse.

Divider Title: Alaska

CRIME BILL -- DOLLARS FOR ALASKA, 1995 TO 2000

LAW ENFORCEMENT

- * 100,000 POLICE -- Guaranteed minimum of $44 million -- more than 500 police officers @ $75,000 per officer.
-  Given Alaska's share of the population and the additional $6.5 billion in discretionary dollars, Alaska should expect a total of about $54 million over the next 6 years.
-  Of the total, up to 85% can be used to hire about 600 police officers. At least 15% -- $8 million -- can be used to help pay the training, overtime and administrative costs of implementing community policing in Alaska.
- * PRISONS & BOOT CAMPS -- $12 million for prison grants, including military-style boot camp prisons. An additional estimated $8 million is possible if Alaska meets the "Truth In Sentencing" target of second-time violent offenders serving 85% of their sentences.
- * BYRNE ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $1 billion in the Trust Fund will help continue full funding for these grants, including Alaska's $1.8 million annual share.
- * RURAL LAW ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $6.5 million for drug and crime enforcement in Alaska's rural areas.
- * DISCRETIONARY GRANTS -- Alaska's law enforcement agencies and courts may apply for:
 -  $1,300,000,000 -- Drug Court programs (treatment backed up by drug testing and certain punishment for non-violent offenders currently on probation.) Estimated $3 million for Alaska -- enough for about 1,400 offenders over six years.
 -  $320,000,000 -- Criminal record systems (Brady Law), communications equipment, and DNA testing; and
 -  $200,000,000 -- Judges, prosecutors and public defenders (estimated $450,000 for Alaska).

PREVENTION PROGRAMS

- * LOCAL PARTNERSHIP ACT -- $6.5 million in direct grants to cities and towns in Alaska. Wide discretion permits local governments to use the dollars for education, drug treatment, and jobs programs.
- * VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT -- $8 million in grants for police, prosecutors and victims services; $700,000 in grants for shelters for battered women and their children; and Alaska can apply for a share of $500 million in several discretionary programs.
- * AFTERSCHOOL AND IN-SCHOOL "SAFE HAVENS" FOR AT-RISK CHILDREN -- $1.2 million for non-profit, community-based organizations in Alaska.
- * DRUG TREATMENT IN PRISONS -- $2.3 million to treat up to an estimated 2,100 drug-addicted prisoners in Alaska prisons over the next 6 years.

-  Given Delaware's share of the population and the additional $6.5 billion in discretionary dollars, Delaware should expect a total of about $60 million over the next 6 years.
-  Of the total, up to 85% can be used to hire about 650 police officers. At least 15% -- $9 million -- can be used to help pay the training, overtime and administrative costs of implementing community policing in Delaware.
- * PRISONS & BOOT CAMPS -- $4 million for prison grants, including military-style boot camp prisons. An additional estimated $9 million is possible if Delaware meets the "Truth in Sentencing" target of second-time violent offenders serving 85% of their sentences.
- * BYRNE ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $1 billion in the Trust Fund will help continue full funding for these grants, including Delaware's $2 million annual share.
- * RURAL LAW ENFORCEMENT GRANTS -- $1.4 million for drug and crime enforcement in Delaware's rural areas.
- * DISCRETIONARY GRANTS -- Delaware's law enforcement agencies and courts may apply for:
 -  $1,300,000,000 -- Drug Court programs (treatment backed up by drug testing and certain punishment for non-violent offenders currently on probation.) Estimated $3.4 million for Delaware -- enough for about 1,700 offenders over six years.
 -  $320,000,000 -- Criminal record systems (Brady Law), communications equipment, and DNA testing; and
 -  $200,000,000 -- Judges, prosecutors and public defenders (estimated $500,000 for Delaware).

PREVENTION PROGRAMS

- * LOCAL PARTNERSHIP ACT -- $4.5 million in direct grants to cities and towns in Delaware. Wide discretion permits local governments to use the dollars for education, drug treatment, and jobs programs.
- * VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT -- $8 million in grants for police, prosecutors and victims services; $900,000 in grants for shelters for battered women and their children; and Delaware can apply for a share of $500 million in several discretionary programs.
- * AFTERSCHOOL AND IN-SCHOOL "SAFE HAVENS" FOR AT-RISK CHILDREN -- $1.5 million for non-profit, community-based organizations in Delaware.
- * DRUG TREATMENT IN PRISONS -- $2.4 million to treat up to an estimated 2,200 drug-addicted prisoners in Delaware prisons over the next 5 years.
- * DISCRETIONARY GRANTS -- Delaware agencies and non-profits may apply for:
 -  YES -- $650 million for the President's Youth Employment and Skills crime prevention program, which provides jobs to young adults in high crime areas. Program involvement is conditioned on continued responsible behavior.
 -  COMMUNITY ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP -- $300 million for lines of credit to community development corporations to stimulate business and employment opportunities for low-income, unemployed and underemployed individuals.
 -  ANTI-GANG GRANTS -- $125 million for programs to give young people positive alternatives to gangs, such as academic, athletic and artistic after-school activities, mentoring programs, scout troops, and sports leagues.
 -  SPORTS LEAGUES -- $40 million for midnight sports leagues to give at-risk youth nightly alternatives to the streets, and $50 million for the U.S. Olympic Committee to develop supervised sports and recreation programs in high-crime areas.
 -  BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS -- $30 million to establish clubs in low-income housing communities, and $10 million to encourage police officers to live in those communities.

-  TRIAD -- $6 million for partnerships between senior citizens groups, police chiefs and sheriffs to combat crimes against elderly Americans.
-  POLICE PARTNERSHIPS FOR CHILDREN -- $20 million for partnerships between law enforcement and social service agencies to fight crimes against children, and for the creation of youth councils to combat crime.
-  VISITATION CENTERS -- $30 million for supervised centers for divorced or separated parents to visit their children in "safe havens" when there is a history or risk of physical or sexual abuse.
