Each year the AFL-CIO brings together all of the Solidarity Center Field Representatives with the headquarters staff of the Solidarity Center and the International Affairs Department of the AFL-CIO for a staff retreat.

These field representatives offer an invaluable perspective on the issues facing workers in the global economy. They can help put the "human face" on the complex policy discussions we are all engaged in regarding the role of the US labor movement abroad as well as their own observations from living in these developing countries. We take this opportunity to arrange appointments with the US DOL, DOS, US AID, members of Congress and the NEC to share this information.

As Beth mentioned to you, we brought a delegation of four field representatives in March 1998, when the last retreat was held, to meet with Karen Tramontano and the NEC staff. This week we hope to bring Tim Ryan, Indonesia, Carolyn Kazdin, Brazil, Heba El-Shazli, Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco, and Irene Stevenson, Russia, to meet with Gene Sperling, Lael Brainard and Sarah Rosen.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me at 637-5050 or Beth Shannon at 835-8272.
