Note to Marcia

From Jeff

I'd also like to see de Lugo and Lt. Gov. Derek Hodge of the Virgin Islands invited to the Crime Bill ceremony.

Crime is even worse in the V.I. than in P.R. -- between 2 and 10 times the national average for all categories of violent crime. Hodge is the Democratic candidate for Governor. (Crime is not as big an issue in the Pacific islands.)

Hon. William J. Clinton
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Bill:

Pursuant to your staff's request, I am pleased to forward to you the names of prospective guests to the White House signing ceremony of the Omnibus Crime Bill. I respectfully submit the attached list which includes key Island officials who are actively involved with law enforcement issues.

I understand that several Governors will be invited, including my esteemed friend, Dr. Pedro Rosselló of Puerto Rico.

I remain confident that in the next few days the Democratic leadership in Congress will be able to overcome the hurdles that are currently delaying passage of the Crime Bill. You have provided great leadership in assuring that local and federal officials have at their disposal the appropriate mechanisms to deter and prevent crime. I commend you for this endeavor and look forward to the signing of the Crime Bill.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. As always, I remain,

Sincerely,

Carlos Romero Barceló
