MEMORANDUM FOR JOAN BAGGETT

SUBJECT: Talking Points On Health Care For AFL-CIO Meeting

FROM: Mike Lux

I thought I would just give my ideas on talking points to you so that you can incorporate them into your overall memorandum to the President and Mrs. Clinton. Who says what on the issues is (at least in my opinion) unimportant.

Health care talking points:

The labor movement has been leading the fight for universal health care for over half a century. Now we have reached an historic moment when we finally have a realistic chance to make universal health care happen.

To finally achieve our goal, however, is going to take the enthusiastic support of the entire labor movement. We will have huge and wealthy special interests who will vehemently fight us to the bitter end, simply because they make enormous money off the current system. To beat those kind of opponents will take a willingness for everyone who cares about health care reform to work with this administration on putting together a plan, and lobbying for that plan, one that will meet the needs and desires of the American people.

Our plan will have as its core principles:

- universal coverage for all American citizens, regardless of income, employment status, or health. We are still working the numbers to figure out how soon we can afford to phase in universal coverage, but we want it to be sooner rather than later.

- a comprehensive benefits package that, on the benefits side, will provide 90% or more of the benefits your members currently have covered.

- tough cost controls both in the short and long term.

- far greater administrative simplicity than in our current system.

- the ability of people to choose their own doctor in a fee-for-service plan, or to choose managed care if they prefer.

We must have your help to make the dream of health care reform happen. We hope you will devote everything you can to this battle, so that together we will win.

DRAFT TALKING POINTS FOR VICE PRESIDENT GORE
FOR THE AFL-CIO MEETING

NOTE: Secretary Reich will open the meeting at 3:15 p.m. and introduce you for you to introduce the President.

Thank you. As Secretary Reich said, it has been too long since we were all together in this House. I remember talking with many of you over the past 12 years about all of the things we could do if we just had the White House. We could get things through the Senate but the President would always veto them. Well, now we have the White House and we've got to figure out how we get things through the Senate. Your help, as always, is invaluable in terms of not only helping us develop programs that can work, but in getting them through the Senate and the House.

In all of the years I spent in Congress, I never observed a more disciplined lobby than yours and we need that help to get this country turned around. You and I both know that we have a President that is ready to fight the gridlock we've experienced for the past 12 years. It is my great pleasure to present him to you today. Mr. President.

Re: The President's Economic Stimulus Package -- H.R. 1335

Dear Senator:

We are writing on behalf of 150,000 IUE members, and thousands of former members who are among the unemployed, to urge you to vote against the Kohl Amendment, the Boren-Breaux Amendment and any other amendments which would weaken or delay the implementation of President Clinton's Economic Stimulus Package.

Our members and millions of other Americans elected President Clinton because they support his program for economic recovery. The President's economic stimulus package is a vital and necessary part of his recovery program. In spite of recent reports that the recession is over, unemployment remains at unacceptably high levels. The current unemployment rate of 7% is higher than it was when the recession began in 1990. Every day our union receives notice of additional major and permanent layoffs. The jobless rate for Black Americans is a staggering 13.1%; for Hispanic workers the rate is 11.4%; and for teenagers 19.6%! Federal spending to create jobs NOW is urgently needed to get the economy moving.

It would be a serious mistake to either reduce or delay the spending outlined in the President's plan, and already passed by the House. Any delays or cuts will undermine the essential purpose of the stimulus bill -- to spur economic activity now in order to give a boost to our weak economy.

We request that you support President Clinton's proposal. The President has the support of the American people and he deserves your support. The short-term stimulus package is critical to the success of President Clinton's economic program. Vote against the Kohl Amendment, the Boren-Breaux Amendment and any other efforts to undercut or delay the President's program.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Bywater

Attention: Kitty Higgins

Re: The President's Economic Stimulus Package

Dear Secretary Reich:

It was a pleasure to meet you (albeit briefly) prior to your speech at the Industrial Union Department's Legislative Conference. Your speech was excellent and so very refreshing after twelve years of Reagan-Bush anti-labor policies. Following your speech, I heard many positive comments from the delegates.

Your explanation of the President's economic stimulus package was extremely cogent and timely. I wanted you to know that the IUE delegates took it to heart and during their afternoon lobbying appointments, urged several Senators to support President Clinton's proposal.

In addition, in response to your request, and to the urging of Senators Mitchell and Byrd, our top officers have sent the enclosed letter, by fax today, to all U.S. Senators. We also will be conducting a grass roots "call-in" and fax campaign to targeted Senators, during the short time available prior to the votes on the amendments and final passage of H.R. 1335.

Once again, I want to commend you, Mr. Secretary, for the superb job you are doing. I also wish to take this opportunity to thank you, once again, for your assistance to our union and to the IBEW on the High Definition Television (HDTV) issue. I look forward to working with you more in the coming years.

Sincerely

Maria Landolfo

RE: AFL-CIO Meeting on May 4, 1993

Attached is a list of names and seating chart that we would like to have for the AFL-CIO meeting. If it is too late for name tents, we will simply direct them to seating. I have indicated the placement for our principals but am not wedded to this configuration if protocol dictates otherwise. Attached is the rough staff list which we are finalizing today. It breaks down into 39 principals at the table; 24 AFL and administration staff seated around the perimeter.

Joan:

Attached is a diagram of how we generally seat the Executive Council for regular meetings either in the Council Room here or in other meeting rooms. Also enclosed is a list of the names of the E.C. members in the order in which they are seated - Kirkland at center with Donahue on his right and the vice-presidents then clockwise from Kirkland's left.

There is no rhyme or reason to this; presidents get seated wherever the open seat is located.

Please feel free to rearrange this in any way to suit the President's needs or preferences. We're flexible, at least on seating!

The trade and industrial department officers and the four staff - Baker, McDonald, Dunlop and Gilliam are not seated with the E.C. and do not need assigned seating - put us anywhere in the room.

When Liz Gonchar and I spoke yesterday, I said that Bob Georgine should be seated with the Executive Council. We have two people from the Public Employee Department and two from Maritime Trades. By the way, this will be Jean Ingrao's last E.C. Meeting. She retires as Secretary-Treasurer of Maritime Trades at the end of May. Frank Pecquex is elected as her successor.

I faxed a list of everyone's social security numbers and birth dates to Liz last night.

Call me on 637-5316 (or nights at 703-860-3459) if you need anything.

Re: AFL-CIO Meeting
Tuesday, May 4
3 - 3:45 pm

Attached is a list of attendees for the meeting with the President next Tuesday. There should be a total of 49 individuals from the AFL-CIO.

These participants have been invited by the AFL-CIO, and as Joan mentioned on Wednesday, they will be walking over together from the AFL-CIO building.

Additionally, I am sending a copy of their usual seating arrangement. Joan believes it may quicker to have them arranged as they are accustomed. If you agree, is it possible to have place cards made for this purpose?

I will also fax you a list of expected White House and Department of Labor staff.

Please call me at extension 6257 if you have any questions.

Thanks for your assistance.

National Service -- We have been meeting with them and appear to have addressed their concerns and should be getting their support soon.

Campaign Finance Reform -- They are concerned about reducing the amount their PACs can give and reducing the use of soft money by the DNC and particularly in state elections.

Striker Replacement -- This remains the number one legislative priority of many unions. Secretary Reich has testified in favor of it, but made clear to the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting in February that with regard to timing, the economic plan and health care are your two top priorities. They will be asking for your help in getting Bumpers or Pryor to vote for cloture. There are a number of Republicans supporting.

MEETING WITH THE AFL-CIO EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

DATE: May 4, 1993
LOCATION: State Dining Room
TIME: 3:15 - 4:00 p.m.
From: Joan N. Baggett

I. PURPOSE

You, the Vice President, and Secretary Reich, will be meeting with the 35 union presidents who make up the AFL-CIO Executive Council to thank them for their support of your economic plan and to continue to lay the groundwork for them to support your health care plan.

II. BACKGROUND

The AFL-CIO was one of the first supporters of your economic plan and actively lobbied Congress for its passage, particularly the jobs package. This will be your first meeting with this group since your election. You did meet with AFL-CIO President Lane Kirkland just after taking office. Mrs. Clinton has met with the AFL-CIO Task Force on Health Care.

Given the limited time we have, I suggest we keep remarks as brief as possible and keep them focused on health care since that is the next big initiative. I would say their strongest concern in this area is the possible taxation of benefits and the form it would take. Other issues that may come up in questions are as follows:

NAFTA -- They hate it. The best we can hope for is to get good enough supplementals on labor that they will quietly oppose it and not launch a major lobbying campaign. They can be very effective, particularly in the House. They also feel strongly that there are key things within the agreement that need to be fixed and that the supplementals are only part of the answer. The AFL-CIO leadership has tried to get them to hold their fire until after the supplementals are completed, but some of the larger and more vocal affiliates say that we are promoting its passage before it's complete and they should be actively working for its defeat.

National Service -- We have been meeting with them and appear to have addressed their concerns and should be getting their support soon.

Campaign Finance Reform -- They are concerned about reducing the amount their PACs can give and reducing the use of soft money by the DNC and particularly in state elections.

Striker Replacement -- This remains the number one legislative priority of many unions. Secretary Reich has testified in favor of it, but made clear to the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting in February that with regard to timing, the economic plan and health care are your two top priorities. They will be asking for your help in getting Bumpers or Pryor to vote for cloture. There are a number of Republicans supporting.

TALKING POINTS FOR PRESIDENT CLINTON
FOR THE AFL-CIO MEETING

First of all, let me add my welcome to all of you. I hear about the consultations that Secretary Reich and my staff have with all of you, but since this is the first formal meeting with all of us together here at the White House, I just wanted to tell you how much I appreciate everything you did during the election.

I also want you to know how much I value your support on the economic plan. I know you were as disappointed as I was when the Republicans stonewalled our jobs package. It makes no sense to me that you would vote to extend unemployment benefits, but vote against jobs. Contrary to the press reports you saw, we did try to work with the moderate Republicans, just as you did, but it became clear that they were more interested in playing partisan political games than in working out a deal for the American people.

Nonetheless, we are going to keep plugging away to get our investment package and our entire economic program through Congress, so any help you can give with reconciliation and appropriations would be very helpful.

There are obviously a lot of issues that we could spend time on this afternoon, but I think you will agree with me that the health care issue has to be our top priority for the coming months. The labor movement has been leading the fight for universal health care for over a half a century and we finally have a realistic chance to make it happen.

Of course, our opponents understand that as well. When we unveiled our economic plan, it was pretty early in the ballgame and the lobbyists took a while to gear up for the fight. That's not the case with health care. Everyone with a stake in this issue has been busy beefing-up their lobbying and advertising budgets. Ironically, the only jobs we seem to have increased so far involve lobby registrations, particularly in the health care field. But, the bottom line is we can do this together. It's going to take an incredible amount of teamwork to beat back the other side, but we have the capacity to do just that.

I know that Hillary has met with many of you to get your input and discuss possible options, but since we're getting closer to finalizing the various elements, I thought it would be helpful to spend some time discussing where we are. Our plan will have as its core principles:

- universal coverage for all American citizens, regardless of income, employment status, or health. We are still working the numbers to figure out how soon we can afford to phase in universal coverage, but we want it to be sooner rather than later.

- a comprehensive benefits package that, on the benefits side, will provide 90% or more of the benefits your members currently have covered.

- tough cost controls both in the short and long term.

- far greater administrative simplicity than in our current system.

- the ability of people to choose their own doctor in a fee-for-service plan, or to choose managed care if they prefer.

As I've said we can do this together and I want to hear about any obstacles here that we may not be seeing. But before I open it up for comments and questions, I'd like to ask Hillary if she has anything to add since she has been spending her entire time on this one issue for the past 100 days.

Dear Lane:

It was good to meet with you recently to discuss some of the issues we're going to be facing in the next few months. As I mentioned to you at the AFL-CIO Executive Council Meeting, the economic plan and health care reform are my top priorities, and I am happy to know that you share those priorities with me.

I am particularly grateful for all of your help on the reconciliation bill in the House, and I look forward to your continued cooperation in the Senate.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

Draft letter from the President to union presidents who worked on reconciliation:

Dear

It was good to get a chance to meet with you recently to discuss some of the issues we're going to be facing over the next few months. As I mentioned to you at the AFL-CIO Executive Council Meeting, the economic plan and health care reform are my top priorities and I am happy to know that you share those priorities with me.

I am particularly grateful for all of your help on the reconciliation bill in the House and I look forward to your continued cooperation in the Senate.

Sincerely,

As I mentioned to you at the AFL-CIO Executive Council Meeting, the economic plan and health care reform are my top priorities and I am happy to know that you share those priorities with me.

I look forward to continuing our work together on our economic plan and our health care proposal. There will be no shortage of people willing to fight us so we must be unified as we push for the change that our country so desperately needs. I hope we have many opportunities in the coming months to have more of these exchanges.

Sincerely,

Dear Joan:

Thank you so much for the picture taken with the President. Just to be in the White House now that the "good guys" are back in office was a pleasure but to have a photo too is a very enjoyable souvenir.

The photo you asked to have id'd is of Frank Hurt, new president of the Bakery, Confectionery and Tobacco Workers. He was elected to the Executive Council in February of this year to replace John DeConcini.

Thanks again!

Sincerely,

Susan Dewey

Joan -

I can take care of letter once you return to me. -Liz
