Ms. Linda Clark
(810) 736-6701

Ms. Clark had participated in a crime event with the President when he was in Detroit last weekend. Her husband was murdered earlier in the year by an assault weapon and she has started a group in Michigan to lobby for gun control. She wanted the White House to know that she was willing to participate in any events we may to organize.

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

As you know Mr. President, I am a strong supporter of your Administration. At this time, and before you sign the new crime bill, I am asking for your continued expressed support for the residents of this city and this community. {Please note I have requested to attend the crime bill signing ceremonies at the White House. I hope it will be favorably received.}

Sometime ago you met with the Sharon Pratt Kelly, Mayor of the District of Columbia, to devise joint federal/local initiatives to fight crime in the District. At your direction, the United States Park Police have been patrolling the streets of District of Columbia augmenting the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department. The US Park Police presence has been noticeable and effective. This is particularly true for this neighborhood. However, at the end of this fiscal year, the US Park Police patrols will cease. At a time when Americans across the country are demanding action to reduce crime, it would be particularly unfortunate to have this federal support to this city ended.

Mr. President, I am requesting your continued support of the US Park Police patrols of this community. Additionally, at the crime bill signing, I hope you will announce that the US Park Police will continue to patrol the streets of Washington.

Sincerely,

/s/ Robert V. Brannum

Dear Ms. Eder:

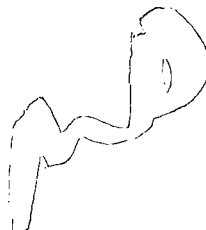

Several members of the staff of Women Against Abuse in Philadelphia, the largest and most comprehensive domestic violence program in Pennsylvania, are interested in attending the signing of the Crime Bill on Tuesday. We had called Senator Biden's office last week to express that interest, but never received a response as to the possibility.

Thus, I am FAXING this to you now to determine if we might be able to make such arrangements. We would be happy to FAX names, social security numbers and birthdates.

Your speedy response is most appreciated.

Dear Ms. Herman:

On behalf of the National Congress for Community Economic Development (NCCED), I would like to applaud the Clinton Administration's recent success with the passage of the Crime Bill. Not only does this legislation provide resources for communities through investments in law enforcement, but preventative measures address the causes of crime and seek long term solutions.

NCCED is the national trade association of organizations engaged in the revitalization of distressed communities. Within the Crime Bill, the National Community Economic Partnership Act (NCEPA), which NCCED assisted Congress in drafting, authorized $270 million to community development corporations (CDCs) to reinvest in their communities through small and micro business development.

During recent months, NCCED made the Crime Bill its number one policy priority. Thousands of community-based organizations were leveraged nationwide to provide the necessary congressional votes to ensure passage of the bill.

I am aware that many organizations are requesting to attend this signing of the Crime Bill, but NCCED's commitment to the President on this issue has been unwavering. I would appreciate it if space could be made available for ten representatives of NCCED to attend this event.

Thank you very much for your consideration. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to call me. I will be in touch.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Glaude

Dear Lorraine:

I am writing to correct what I suspect is a simple oversight. I believe that Chief James K. Festerman of Reidsville, N.C. should be invited to the White House signing ceremony for H.R. 3355, the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act.

Chief Festerman is the immediate, past President of the North Carolina Association of Chiefs of Police. He has been an ardent public supporter of the semiautomatic weapons ban and the President's crime bill. In fact, I was rather surprised to learn that he had not already been invited.
