HEADLINE: Suspect Confessed in the Murder Of a 7-Year-Old, Prosecutors Say

BYLINE: AP

DATELINE: TRENTON, Aug. 1

609/392-5214
581-8954

BODY:

Prosecutors said today that a Hamilton Township man accused in the sexual assault and murder of his 7-year-old neighbor had signed a statement admitting to the crime.

Kathryn Flicker, a deputy assistant prosecutor, said that the man, Jesse Timmendequas, 33, a convicted sex offender, confessed to the police after he was arrested and questioned on Saturday in the death of Megan Kanka.

Based on Ms. Flicker's request, Judge Thomas DeMartin of State Superior Court set bail for Mr. Timmendequas at $500,000 cash with no partial bond.

Ms. Flicker told the court that Mr. Timmendequas lured Megan into his house on Friday by offering to show her a puppy he had bought. Ms. Flicker said he pulled the girl into his room, strangled her with a belt and then sexually assaulted her.

Ms. Flicker said Mr. Timmendequas tried to cover his crime by wrapping a plastic bag over the girl's head to keep blood off the carpet, sneaking her body out of the house in a toy box and cutting her shorts into shreds.

An Offer to Distribute Fliers

Once Mr. Timmendequas realized that the police were checking the neighborhood with dogs, he washed down his steps, the box and his truck with ammonia, Ms. Flicker said.

Mr. Timmendequas even expressed concern about the girl's disappearance to a family member on Saturday, Ms. Flicker said. She said he took and offered to distribute some fliers intended to help find her.

As Ms. Flicker recited the details in court, Mr. Timmendequas, in handcuffs and an orange jump suit, stood rigidly and fixed his gaze on the judge. He appeared dejected and exhausted. He never made a gesture or shifted his eyes as Ms. Flicker described what she said was his cruelty to a trusting child.

The Mercer County Prosecutor, Maryann Bielamowicz, said her office had not yet decided whether to seek the death penalty against Mr. Timmendequas, who was convicted of attempted sexual contact in 1981 and of aggravated assault and attempted sexual assault of a child in 1982, for which he received a 10-year prison sentence.

"At the time of indictment, we will announce whether or not the death penalty will be pursued," Ms. Bielamowicz said.

HEADLINE: Man Charged in 7-Year-Old Neighbor's Killing

BYLINE: AP

DATELINE: HAMILTON TOWNSHIP, N.J., July 31

BODY:

A convicted sex offender was charged with murder today for strangling his 7-year-old neighbor, whose body was discovered in a local park nearly a day after she was reported missing, the police said.

The suspect, Jesse Timmendequas, 33, was scheduled to be arraigned on a homicide charge in the death of Megan Kanka, said Captain George Zimmer of the Hamilton Township Police.

The Mercer County Prosecutor, Maryann Bielasowicz, said Mr. Timmendequas had been convicted twice in Middlesex County for sexual assault, but she would not provide further information on the convictions.

According to published reports, Mr. Timmendequas spent six years at the Adult Diagnostic and Treatment Center, a prison for sex offenders in Avenel, N.J.

Mr. Timmendequas, along with a convicted child molester, Joseph Cifelli, and another unidentified sex offender, lived with Mr. Cifelli's mother at her home on Barbara Lee Drive, across the street from the Kanka residence, The Trentonian reported.

More Charges Possible

So far, authorities suspect that Mr. Timmendequas was the only person involved in Megan's death, but they have questioned Mr. Cifelli and the other sex offender about the slaying and more charges could be filed, Ms. Bielasowicz said.

The police said Mr. Timmendequas was the last person to see Megan alive. Neighbors said they saw the girl stop to talk with Mr. Timmendequas, who was cleaning a boat outside his home early Friday evening.

"They were playing right in the driveway," a neighbor, Chrissy Foster, told The Times of Trenton.

Megan was reported missing about 8 P.M. Friday. The Hamilton Township Police found her body about 7 P.M. Saturday next to a portable toilet in a weeded area of a park three miles from her home.

Autopsy results showed that she had died of "acute asphyxia due to mechanical strangulation," the police said. They declined to discuss further details.

A bail hearing is scheduled for Mr. Timmendequas at Mercer County Court in Trenton Monday afternoon, the police said.
