PRIME TIME

FAMILY READING TIME

Prime Time is a unique eight-week program of reading, discussion, and storytelling at public libraries. A discussion leader and storyteller conduct weekly book discussion and storytelling programs, featuring award-winning children's books.

PRIME TIME

- reinforces the role of the family.
- trains parents and children to bond around the act of reading and learning together to improve skill and achievement.
- helps parents and children learn how to select books and become active library users.

All programs are free and open to the public. For more information and advance registration, call your library.
