WASHINGTON

March 5, 1999

MEMORANDUM TO: White House Office and Office of the Vice President Staff

FROM: Cheryl D. Mills
Deputy Counsel to the President

SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR DOCUMENTS

We have received a request for records and materials relating to certain individuals and entities. Please conduct a thorough and complete search of all your records -- whether in hard copy, computer form, or any other form -- for the period January 1, 1995 to December 31, 1996, for any of the following material:

1. All materials reflecting, referring to, or relating to any meeting or meetings on or about November 15, 1995, in which the participants included, among others, the President, the Vice President, Harold Ickes, Jennifer O'Connor, or representatives of the AFL-CIO, and in which was discussed, among other topics, the AFL-CIO's plans for political contributions and other political activity in 1996.
2. All materials reflecting, referring to, or relating to any meeting or meetings on or about December 5, 1995, in which the participants included, among others, Harold Ickes and representatives of the AFL-CIO or the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees ("AFSCME"), and in which was discussed, among other topics, "Project '95" or "The '95 Project" and the AFL-CIO and/or AFSCME's plans for political and/or field activity in 1996.
3. All materials reflecting, referring to, or relating to any meeting or meetings, on or about December 7, 1995, in which the participants included, among others, Harold Ickes, Dick Morris, or representative of, or consultants to, the AFL-CIO or other labor organizations, and in which was discussed, among other topics, advertisements that were broadcast or proposed to be broadcast by the AFL-CIO and/or other labor organizations.
4. All materials or other information that reflect, refer to, or relate to any occasion on which the AFL-CIO or its representatives screened for, played for, or transmitted to the White House any communications made or proposed to be made by the AFL-CIO to any of its members or to the general public, that contained the name or names of any candidate(s) for Federal office in 1996, or that urged people to vote or to register to vote.

5. A memorandum dated January 31, 1996 from Joe Velasquez to Harold Ickes referring or relating to the United Steelworkers of America or its president, George Becker.

6. All memoranda, including drafts, dated on or about February 14, 1996 from Jennifer O'Connor to Harold Ickes concerning "labor".

7. All materials that reflect, refer to, or relate to communications between the White House and any individual identified as, or you know to be, an officer, employee, agent or vendor of, consultant to, or otherwise acting on behalf of, the AFL-CIO regarding:

- a. "Issue advocacy" advertisements or "electronic voter guide" advertisements to be run or broadcast by the AFL-CIO;
- b. Communications by the AFL-CIO to any of its members, or to the general public, that contained the name or names of any candidate(s) for Federal office in 1996, or that urged people to vote, or to register to vote;
- c. Any plans by the AFL-CIO to run, sponsor, make or engage in advertising, communication to any of its members or the general public;
- d. Participation by the AFL-CIO, its affiliates or members in the Democratic National Committee's "coordinated campaign," or the "coordinated campaigns" of state Democratic party committees or any particular state Democratic party committee, in 1996; or
- e. Any plans, projects, activities or needs of any political party committee or any candidate for Federal office in the 1995-96 election cycle.

8. All materials reflecting, referring to, or relating to any communication or meeting between the White House and AFL-CIO Political Director Steven Rosenthal during the time period October 15, 1995 to December 31, 1996 regarding any subject identified in parts "a" through "d" of question 7 above.

9. All materials reflecting, referring to or relating to any communication between the White House and any individual identified as, or you know to be, an officer, employee, agent, or vendor of, consultant to, or otherwise acting on behalf of DNC Services Corp./Democratic National Committee ("DNC") regarding any subject identified in parts "a" through "d" of question 7 above.

10. All materials reflecting, referring to or relating to any communications between the White House and any individual identified as, or you know to be, an officer, employee, agent, or vendor of, consultant to, or otherwise acting on behalf of the Clinton-Gore campaign regarding any subject identified in parts "a" through "d" of question 7 above.

11. All materials including, but not limited to, written notes, transcripts, invitations or other material, which reflect, refer to, or relate to the appearance of the Vice President of the United States before the AFL-CIO Executive Council in Bal Harbour, Florida in February 1995 and on or about February 19, 1996.

12. Any transcripts, audio or video recordings, written notes, transcripts, outlines or other documents (including, but not limited to, invitations of any other preliminary or preparatory materials) which reflect, refer to, or relate to, the remarks of the Vice-President of the United States to the Special Convention of the AFL-CIO in Washington, D.C., on or about March 25, 1996.

Every employee is responsible for searching his or her own files and records to ensure a comprehensive search. Each office head of Assistant to the President must certify that his or her staff has done a complete and thorough search.

In addition, if you believe that files from your office that have been sent to the Office of Records Management may contain responsive information, please advise us so that we may ensure that all responsive documents have been located.

All Materials must be provided to Karl Racine (OEOB 479) by noon on Thursday, March 18, 1999.

If you have any questions or anticipate any difficulty in meeting this deadline, please call Karl Racine at 456-6285.
