Dear John:

Thank you for your letter regarding health care reform. I appreciate hearing your concerns about the Health Security Act, particularly its potential impact on independent contractors.

As you know, increasing evidence suggests that workers in some industries are improperly classified as independent contractors. As a result, these individuals enjoy neither a proper pension plan nor workers' compensation coverage. Additionally, tax compliance has suffered significantly, and I am certain you recognize that businesses who classify their employees properly are at a competitive disadvantage. To ensure the integrity of the reformed health care system, every effort must be made to guard against this inequity.

I am committed to guaranteeing health care coverage for all our citizens. I believe we can reach this goal while maintaining the great strength of our nation's small businesses. As my Administration works to ensure that this challenge is met, we are carefully considering the views of the small business community.

I want to ensure that small businesses are able to furnish affordable health care for their workers, and I appreciate your participation in this process.

Sincerely,

(3-29-94)
