Dear Mr. President and Hillary,

I wonder if I could impose upon you, when you have a moment, to sign the enclosed frame pictures showing Nicole and me with the cut-outs of the two of you in front of the White House? I thought it would be an op art joke if you were to write something like "Your cut-outs look almost life-like," "I was feeling a little flat that day," "It was a pleasure to pose with your cut-outs – hope many tourists stopped," etc. I'd like to give one of these to Nicole as a surprise.

Thanks for your indulgence!

Sincerely,

David E. Kendall

Dear President Clinton and the First Lady,

"It's been a heavenly life,
But no festivities around my birthday,"
Said Miles to his wife.
So what to do as meaningful celebration?
For his life of 70 years has had beautiful vibrations.

A quilt, built by his friends, will bring him great pleasure
'Tis 'words' that seduce the senses that he so treasures.

So find the Shakespeare within you
