The President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The City of Newport News, Virginia, is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1996. For each major holiday, groups and organizations are planning activities. Labor Day, of course, is being planned by organized labor and the day's activities will revolve around working families.

On Labor Day, September 2, 1996, the celebration will be held at Huntington Park in Newport News from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. There will be a picnic, games, speakers and free gifts from different local unions and committees.

The labor community in Newport News is honored to invite you to attend and address the participants. We are estimating an attendance of 10,000 people. If your schedule will permit your attendance, I will work with you and your staff to schedule a mutually convenient time.

Thank you, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Russell N. Axsom, Chair
Labor Day Celebration
