Dear Mr. George:

On behalf of President Clinton, thank you for your invitation to speak at the 33rd Constitutional Convention of the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO in April.

The tremendous demands on the President's schedule do not permit the White House to honor your request. Please know that your request was given full consideration and that President Clinton appreciates your interest. Should you need further scheduling assistance, please feel free to contact my office.

Dear Mr. President:

Misc. _____

The Pennsylvania AFL-CIO would be honored to have you as one of our speakers at our 33rd Constitutional Convention which will be held at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center, 1001 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA.

Our Convention convenes on ~~Tuesday, April 28, 1998~~, and starts daily at 9:30 A.M., and adjourns at approximately 1:00 P.M., with various meetings scheduled for the afternoon. The Convention is scheduled for April 28th through May 1st, and we suggest an appearance on either April 28th, 29th, or 30th when the attendance is greatest, if your schedule permits.

We would like you to address the more than 1,500 delegates present who represent all International Unions affiliated with the AFL-CIO and could rearrange our schedule to accommodate yours if an afternoon or evening appearance would be more desirous. We will also have several hundred high school seniors and guests in attendance as well. Your comments could be in conjunction with this year's theme, "Your Union! Your Community! Your Voice!" or whatever subject you deem appropriate for our delegates.

For scheduling purposes, we would appreciate a response by January 30, 1998, however, if there were some outside possibility of further consideration at a later date, we would still be willing to make accommodations. Supplemental information regarding hotel accommodations will be provided if it is possible for you to attend.

We hope for your favorable and immediate response.

Sincerely,

William M. George, President
Pennsylvania AFL-CIO
