Charles E. Kieffer
Chuck Konigsberg
Legislative Affairs
Office of Management and Budget
Room 243 OEOB
The White House
Washington, DC 20502

Dear Chuck and Chuck:

Word comes my way that you may be considering Terry Glynn for an opening in your shop. He's a terrific guy -- interned with success here in our Press Office and handled a great deal of incoming fire on the phones and in Lower Press, doing hand-to-hand combat with pesky reporters.

He works real hard (I even think he moonlighted during our internship upstairs in Leg Affairs) and he is a sweet, pleasant person. We didn't have a good opening for him in our neck of the woods but he'd make for a diligent, amicable colleague. Hope you don't mind a recommendation from across the way.

Best,

Ellis, Kansas 67637-2235

Dear Ms. Locker:

You were so kind to write and take note of my announcement.

I told the boss that this has been a great if challenging job, but it's one that I'll always be proud I held. I appreciate what you said and I hope you'll keep your eye out for me in the future to make sure I measure up.

As you requested, I have enclosed a signed photograph. I hope you enjoy having it and I send you my best wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Luck:

Thank you very much for your letter. Although time restraints preclude me from scheduling a formal interview with the President at this time, I have shared your request with my colleagues and will certainly keep your name in mind in the future.

You have my best wishes.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Mike McCurry". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Mike" and last name "McCurry" clearly distinguishable.

Post Office Box 2686
Gig Harbour, Washington 98335

Dear Mary:

Thank you very much for getting in touch with me. I am glad to know that my old classmate "Masha" has landed on her feet in beautiful Gig Harbour.

Thanks also for letting me know about your son's missing letter. According to the folks here, John's response from the President should be arriving soon. It seems that in this case, the goods really are in the mail!

Best wishes,

Mike McLure

Great hearing from you!
