Enclosed is a photo copy and the copy of an interesting article from the Sacramento Bee. In case you are not familiar with the Bee you should know the Bee is the "spoke person" for your glorious party, which right now is very intensively involved to save all the children in the USA from starving to death the poor and the old from lying in the gutter due to the barbaric and cruel republican decisions. It is not very likely the people in the country will believe that regardless how hard you demos are trying. In 1994 the people came to their senses and you know what happened.

I keep the original article for a souvenir so I can remember after all you Clinton people are gone from W.D.C. some of the high class, intelligent and sophisticated members Slick Willy had on his staff. By the way I would like to know what kind of qualifications and background you have beside a Clinton friend to make you eligible for your present position. Remember:

The first method of estimating the intelligence of a ruler is to look at the men and women he has around him.

Bugging the White House

Presidential press secretary Mike McCurry plays with an itsy-bitsy plastic spider during Monday's daily briefing.

Press aide's blunder lingers

Admitting error enough for president, he says

Bee News Services

WASHINGTON — White House press secretary Mike McCurry began his daily briefing Friday with a joke.

"I'm sorry I'm late. I was down in the unemployment line," he said.

But Republicans and some Democrats, including McCurry's boss, were not laughing the day after McCurry suggested Republicans want to see old people die.

The spokesman stirred a furor at Thursday's media briefing during a discussion of the overhaul of Medicare being voted on at the time.

McCurry said the GOP was trying to slow the rate of spending in the health program for the elderly "because eventually they'd like to see the program just die and go away."

Then he added, "You know, that's probably what they'd like to see happen to seniors, too, if you think about it."

After the stunned reaction of reporters in the room, McCurry quickly acknowledged his statement had gone too far. But the damage had been done.

House Speaker Newt Gingrich and Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole issued a joint statement Thursday calling for President Clinton to fire McCurry and apologize to the public. They called McCurry's statement "reprehensible, divisive, un-American."

McCurry was asked Friday if he'd talked with Clinton about it.

"Yes. I explained the incident to the president and the president thought my response yesterday was the correct one — the response when I quickly indicated I had not said the right thing," McCurry said.

Meanwhile, another dispute developed over a Democratic television ad.

The 30-second spot prepared by the Democratic National Committee quotes Gingrich as saying Republicans won't get rid of the popular Medicare program because "we believe it's going to wither on the vine."

The Republicans say Gingrich was talking about the Health Care Financing Administration, which runs Medicare, comparing the agency to centralized Communist bureaucracies.

The Democrats say Gingrich's "it" meant the Medicare program itself.

"They are cutting kids, education and cops so they can dish money off to the wealthiest in America". Wealthy people are generally smart people unless, in some instances (Ted Kennedy, Jay Rockefeller) wealth was inherited. Smart people don't like feeding a government which has been run for 40 years by a bunch of idiots and liars. Give people one vote for each dollar of taxes paid and see what happens. I don't want a tax cut until we can afford one, but I also don't want to see "poor people" decked out in FEMA garb wandering around with a fist full of food stamps. Like our lying President you are another DC idiot.

Dear Sir; I watch with glee as you talk about the integrity of Cisnero, when the dummy making that stupid statment. Clinton has no integrity himself. Each day as Clinton lies to the nation; we watch Limbaugh on his TV show dissect each & every falsehood. Clinton ha to be the worst lying scumbag ever to hold that office Each & every radio talk show exposes the hypocrisy that Clinton thrives on. He's an Anti Christian bigot that is serving the devil, or so says his former pasto from Little Rock. Then you get stuck trying to put a spin on his lies. Hey over 200 felons & Criminals stil lack White House Clearance. So as the thieveslike Ron Brown & Espey & Cisnero & Hubbell get caught why NOT get an army of special prosecutors. Clinton was in on the Mena Drug Ring, he got millions as his cut of that cocaine traffic. The bagman dropping the barrack bags of money on Hubbell's property in Mena was on TV. Clinton is the worst damn crook ever to hold public office. CLINTON IS A LYING HEADCASE, AND NEEDS HELP. He will not run in 1996 for reasons of health
