NO. 904 081

103D CONGRESS
2D SESSIONS. J. Res.To enhance the preparedness of U.S. and South Korean forces in Korea

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Messrs. McCain and Dole introduced the following resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee onA JOINT RESOLUTION

Intended to be proposed by Senators McCain and Dole

WHEREAS,

(1) President Clinton stated in November of 1993, it is the official policy of the United States that North Korea cannot be allowed to develop a nuclear bomb.

(2) The United States seeks to compel North Korea, through the imposition of sanctions or other means, to act in accordance with its freely undertaken obligations under the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty and to abandon its efforts to develop nuclear weapons.

(3) North Korea has repeatedly threatened to withdraw from the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, has resisted efforts of the International Atomic Energy Agency to conduct effective inspections of its nuclear program, and has stated that it would consider the imposition of economic sanctions as a declaration of war and has threatened retaliatory action.

(4) The North Korean government has constructed and has operated a reprocessing facility at Yongbyon solely designed to convert spent nuclear fuel into plutonium with which to make nuclear weapons. Further, the existence of this facility and the development of these weapons gravely threatens security in the region and increases the likelihood of worldwide nuclear terrorism.

(5) The Secretary of Defense stated that the United States must act on the assumption that there will be some increase in the risk of war if sanctions are imposed on North Korea.

(6) It is incumbent on the United States to take all necessary and appropriate action to ensure the preparedness of United States and Republic of Korea forces to repel as quickly as possible any attack from North Korea and to protect the safety and security of United States and Republic of Korea forces, as well as the safety and security of the civilian population of the peninsula.

(7) Neither the United States nor the Republic of Korea have yet acted prudently to bring our forces to the optimum level of preparedness to deter aggression from North Korea or, in the event deterrence should fail, to repel any such attack with the least loss of life and property possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, THAT the United States should immediately take all necessary and appropriate actions to enhance the preparedness and safety of United States and Republic of Korea forces to deter and, if necessary, repel an attack from North Korea.
