Hi All!

To date I've collect the following for the South America Trip:

Biographical Dictionary of Latin American and Caribbean Political Leaders = in alpha order, separated by country

Political Handbook of the World: 1997 = entries for each country

For each country there are background pieces on cultural and sports figures from the Encyclopedia Britannica (macro and mirco versions) of info on each country

For Argentina the info from the internet was very limited. Have received a packet of info from the embassy.

Brazil a fair amount of info from the internet have not received a return call from the embassy will follow up on Tuesday.

Venezuela have a fair amount of material from the internet. response from embassy was to use internet sites. They provided four - two in english, two not. the websites were the ones i'd already used.

Let me know what else you need
