TEXT:

Greetings.

Thank you for responding to my memo. I have notified the military office (they hold P6(b)(6)).

I understand you had some questions regarding Mr. Panetta's additional clearance. Some time ago I received a letter from the director of security at DOE. He wanted me to review a short list of names that included former POTUS/VPOTUS, COS, Press Sec and a few select OMB, NSC and OSTP staff members.

The aforementioned individuals held "Q" clearances issued by the DOE at WH request. After consulting Counsel and the NSC it was determined that with the exception of former POTUS/VPOTUS (and of course our present POTUS/VPOTUS) all others would be dropped from this clearance as they no longer possessed "a need-to-know". At this point, Counsel and NSC determined who might need a "Q" clearance. This was determined by considering the criteria to gain a "Q" clearance. This clearance is needed by individuals that would require access to or be briefed on to nuclear weapons information. The following individuals were determined to have a need-to-know by Counsel; The PRESIDENT, The VICE-PRESIDENT, Mr. PANETTA, Mr. MIKVA and Mr. MCCURRY. This is consistent with previous administrations.

The next step is for Mr. PANETTA to sign the required SECURITY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT/CLEARANCE CRITERIA STATEMENT and I will forward it to DOE. DOE will then send a senior security officer to review our applicant's FBI/Background Investigation. Once the security officer has determined their suitability, I will coordinate a briefing for the three, with DOE. The clearance is not considered active until the briefing is completed.

Finally, DOE will notify me as to their clearance type and number. I will then inform the CIA, NSC and NSA as to their new clearances.

One additional item for your information. I have, with assistance from Chuck Easley, put into motion a review of "Q" clearances at he NSC. Mr. Easley, on an on-going basis, updates OA, OSTP and OMB.

I hope this responds to your questions. Any assistance you can offer in having Mr. Panetta sign and return the form would be greatly appreciated.
