Dear Assistant Secretary Heumann:

I would first like to congratulate you on the passage of I.D.E.A.
(H.R. 5). It was a grueling process, but the education of disabled students will improve with H.R. 5 passage.

June 4, 1997 at 10.30 is the proposed date for President Clinton to sign this bill. I would deeply appreciate if the following people, in addition to myself, could attend the White House Ceremony. I have previously sent this letter to Tom Hehir, but since I added two names, I wanted to alert you immediately. The two additional names are highlighted by being underlined for your convenience. If there is any problem, please alert Trent on my staff as soon as possible.

Annie Catalino, Scheduler
White House Appointments Office
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Catalino:

My constituents, Patti Barkin and Jane Storms, educational consultants with the Western Regional Resource Center (RRC), want to attend the signing ceremony of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997 at the White House on June 4, 1997.

Ms. Barkin and Ms. Storms provide support services to State Education Agencies in 8 western states and 6 jurisdictions in the Pacific region, working to ensure quality programs and services for children with disabilities.

Ms. Barkin and Ms. Storms will be in Washington, D.C., for the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Special Education Program's National Transition Network Annual meeting of Project Directors and Regional Resource Center Transition Specialists. They would like to represent the RRC, the state of Oregon, and the thousands of students and families from our region who will benefit from the reauthorization of this significant law.

Thank you for your consideration. Please contact my aide, Janice Kelly, in my district office if you have questions.

Sincerely,

PETER DeFAZIO

Dear Assistant Secretary Heumann:

I would first like to congratulate you on the passage of I.D.E.A. (H.R. 5). It was a grueling process, but the education of disabled students will improve with H.R. 5 passage.

June 4, 1997 at 10:30 is the proposed date for President Clinton to sign this bill. I would deeply appreciate if the following people, in addition to myself, could attend the White House Ceremony. I have previously sent this letter to Tom Hehir, but since I added two names, I wanted to alert you immediately. The two additional names are highlighted by being underlined for your convenience. If there is any problem, please alert Trent on my staff as soon as possible.
