I am Nancy Herrnreich's intern she requested that I e-mail you. Tom Campbell who is a good friend of the President (his roommate at Georgetown) has a daughter who is physically challenged and would like for her to attend the ADA event next Wednesday. It would be his daughter Ciara and his wife, Judith. He can be reached at 804-973-6552. Mary is out for the day but can be contacted on Monday. Thanks, monique 66610

IN REPLY REFER TO:

JUL 6 1998

Dear Applicant:

Attached is your application for a public gathering permit to conduct a Demonstration or Special Event. The National Park Service accepts applications on a first-come, first-served basis. Upon receipt of your completed application, we will process it as rapidly as possible. A meeting may be necessary to discuss the details associated with your proposed activity.

We would like to point out that there may be charges for any costs associated with your proposed activity, incurred by the National Park Service and its United States Park Police. These charges are to reimburse the National Park Service for services or personnel deemed necessary to support your activity. Depending on the size and scope of your proposed activity, a bond in the form of an irrevocable letter of credit, certified check, or money order, and/or documented liability insurance coverage may be required. Any costs will be discussed with you, the applicant, prior to issuing a permit.

There are also certain standards for Special Events to be held on park land, and we will discuss these further with you as they apply to your activity. We would also like to bring to your attention our requirements regarding the sale of food and/or merchandise, or any other commercial activity contemplated to take place on park land. Only ethnic foods which are pre-approved by the National Park Service and meeting Public Health standards may be sold, and then only if such foods are determined to be integral to the theme of your event. Commercially packaged or generic beverages may not be sold.

Ethnic arts and crafts may be displayed but may not be sold. If your event includes such a display or exhibit, we suggest that you have an artisan actually onsite to demonstrate the production of the particular art or craft as part of your activity.

Finally, if requested in an application, the in-person solicitation for money may be authorized under a demonstration or special event permit if it occurs within the confines of a limited and well-delineated permit area.

We look forward to working with you. If you have any questions, please contact the Division of Park Programs, 1100 Ohio Drive, SW., Washington, D.C. 20242, or by telephone on (202) 619-7225.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Merryman

Dear Mr. President,

If you plan to attend the memorial service for Diane Blair please let me know as I'd like to come to the airport for a quick "Hello". The TV always reports the day of your planned arrivals but never the time of day. Becky's daughter, Amy Adams, is a good friend of Jim Blair's and she has told us of the terrible sadness he has had the past months.

Anytime you, Hillary or Chelsea are in Northwest Arkansas, please call Becky at the Holiday Inn. She will give you the Presidential Suite - compliments of the hotel. Also if your staff needs rooms she will take special care of their needs.

Hopefully, the presidential race will get more people involved once the conventions are over. I watch, with great interest, the New York race and I feel Hillary is doing all the right things. We love to see Chelsea and I think America love to see the candidates family at various functions.

Are you planning another Arkansas concert - dinner on the South lawn this fall? Hope you do, and do keep me on the guest list. I came out in 1995 and walking through the White House was perhaps the most meaningful, patriotic experience of my 71 years. I want to bring Becky as she has wanted to come out every since the Clintons moved in.

As for the Arkansas disbarment is this more of Cliff Jackson, the Hutchinsons and their right-wing friends? You will be okay and perhaps the charges dropped soon.

Hope to see you all soon
With love
