Sec. 401. Accession of Taiwan to the WTO.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 The Congress finds the following:

3 (1) In 1980, the United States opened trade re-
4 lations with the People's Republic of China by enter-5 ing into a bilateral trade agreement, which was ap-6 proved by joint resolution enacted pursuant to sec-
7 tion 405(c) of the Trade Act of 1974.

8 (2) Since 1980, the President has consistently 9 extended nondiscriminatory treatment to products of 10 the People's Republic of China, pursuant to his au-11 thority under section 404 of the Trade Act of 1974.

12 (3) Since 1980, the United States has entered 13 into several additional trade-related agreements with 14 the People's Republic of China, including a memo-
15 randum of understanding on market access in 1992, 16 2 agreements on intellectual property rights protec-
17 tion in 1992 and 1995, and an agreement on agri-18 cultural cooperation in 1999.

19 (4) Trade in goods between the People's Repub-20 lic of China and the United States totaled almost 21 $95,000,000,000 in 1999, compared with approxi-

1 mately $18,000,000,000 in 1989, representing 2 growth of approximately 428 percent over 10 years.

3 (5) The United States merchandise trade deficit
4 with the People's Republic of China has grown from 5 approximately $6,000,000,000 in 1989 to over 6 $68,000,000,000 in 1999, a growth of over 1,000 7 percent.

8 (6) The People's Republic of China currently 9 restricts imports through relatively high tariffs and 10 nontariff barriers, including import licensing, tech-
11 nology transfer, and local content requirements.

12 (7) United States businesses attempting to sell
13 goods to markets in the People's Republic of China
14 have complained of uneven application of tariffs, 15 customs procedures, and other laws, rules, and ad-
16 ministrative measures affecting their ability to sell 17 their products in the Chinese market.

18 (8) On November 15, 1999, the United States
19 and the People's Republic of China concluded a bi-20 lateral agreement concerning terms of the People's 21 Republic of China's eventual accession to the World
22 Trade Organization.

23 (9) The commitments that the People's Repub-
24 lic of China made in its November 15, 1999, agree-25 ment with the United States promise to eliminate or

1 greatly reduce the principal barriers to trade with 2 and investment in the People's Republic of China, if 3 those commitments are effectively enforced.

4 (10) The record of the People's Republic of 5 China in implementing trade-related commitments 6 has been mixed. While the People's Republic of 7 China has generally met the requirements of the 8 1992 market access memorandum of understanding 9 and the 1992 and 1995 agreements on intellectual 10 property rights protection, other measures remain in 11 place or have been put into place which tend to di-
12 minish the benefit to United States businesses, 13 farmers, and workers from the People's Republic of 14 China's implementation of those earlier commit-
15 ments. Notably, administration of tariff-rate quotas 16 and other trade-related laws remains opaque, new 17 local content requirements have proliferated, restric-
18 tions on importation of animal and plant products
19 are not always supported by sound science, and li-20 censing requirements for importation and distribu-
21 tion of goods remain common.

22 (11) The human rights record of the People's 23 Republic of China is a matter of very serious con-24 cern to the Congress. The Congress notes that the 25 Department of State's 1999 Country Reports on

1 Human Rights Practices for the People's Republic
2 of China finds that "[t]he Government's poor human 3 rights record deteriorated markedly throughout the 4 year, as the Government intensified efforts to sup-5 press dissent, particularly organized dissent."

6 (12) The Congress deplores violations by the 7 Government of the People's Republic of China of 8 human rights, religious freedoms, and worker rights 9 that are referred to in the Department of State's 10 1999 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices 11 for the People's Republic of China, including the 12 banning of the Falun Gong spiritual movement, de-13 nial in many cases, particularly politically sensitive 14 ones, of effective representation by counsel and pub-15 lic trials, extrajudicial killings and torture, forced 16 abortion and sterilization, restriction of access to the 17 ~~special~~ ^{areas} autonomous ~~regions~~ of Tibet and Xinjiang, 18 perpetuation of "reeducation through labor", and 19 denial of the right of workers to organize labor 20 unions or bargain collectively with their employers.

21 SEC. 3. POLICY.

22 It is the policy of the United States—

23 (1) to develop trade relations that broaden the 24 benefits of trade, and lead to a leveling up, rather 25 than a leveling down, of labor, environmental, com-

1 mercial rule of law, market access, anticorruption,
2 and other standards across national borders;

3 (2) to pursue effective enforcement of trade-re-4 lated and other international commitments by for-5 eign governments through enforcement mechanisms
6 of international organizations and through the appli-7 cation of United States law as appropriate;

8 (3) to encourage foreign governments to con-
9 duct both commercial and noncommercial affairs ac-
10 cording to the rule of law developed through demo-
11 cratic processes;

12 (4) to encourage the Government of the Peo-
13 ple's Republic of China to afford its workers inter-14 nationally recognized worker rights;

15 (5) to encourage the Government of the Peo-
16 ple's Republic of China to protect the human rights
17 of people within the territory of the People's Repub-18 lic of China, and to take steps toward protecting 19 such rights, including, but not limited to—

20 (A) ratifying the International Covenant
21 on Civil and Political Rights;

22 (B) protecting the right to liberty of move-23 ment and freedom to choose a residence within 24 the People's Republic of China ~~(including the~~ 25 ~~special autonomous regions of Tibet and~~

1 ~~Xinjiang~~ and the right to leave from and re-2 turn to the People's Republic of China; and

3 (C) affording a criminal defendant—

4 (i) the right to be tried in his or her
5 presence, and to defend himself or herself 6 in person or through legal assistance of his 7 or her own choosing;

8 (ii) the right to be informed, if he or 9 she does not have legal assistance, of the 10 right set forth in clause (i);

11 (iii) the right to have legal assistance 12 assigned to him or her in any case in 13 which the interests of justice so require 14 and without payment by him or her in any 15 such case if he or she does not have suffi-
16 cient means to pay for it;

17 (iv) the right to a fair and public 18 hearing by a competent, independent, and 19 impartial tribunal established by the law;

20 (v) the right to be presumed innocent 21 until proved guilty according to law; and 22 (vi) the right to be tried without 23 undue delay; and

24 (6) to highlight in the United Nations Human 25 Rights Commission and in other appropriate fora

1 violations of human rights by foreign governments 2 and to seek the support of other governments in 3 urging improvements in human rights practices.

4 SEC. 211. FINDINGS.

5 The Congress finds as follows:

6 (1) The opening of world markets through the 7 elimination of tariff and nontariff barriers has con-8 tributed to a 56-percent increase in exports of 9 United States goods and services since 1992.

10 (2) Such export expansion has helped fuel the 11 longest economic expansion in United States history.

12 (3) The United States Government must con-13 tinue to be vigilant in monitoring and enforcing the 14 compliance by our trading partners with trade agree-
15 ments in order for United States businesses, work-16 ers, and farmers to continue to benefit from the op-
17 portunities created by market-opening trade agree-18 ments.

19 (4) The People's Republic of China, as part of 20 its accession to the World Trade Organization, has 21 committed to eliminating significant trade barriers
22 in the agricultural, services, and manufacturing sec-
23 tors that, if realized, would provide considerable op-
24 portunities for United States farmers, businesses, 25 and workers.

1 (5) For these opportunities to be fully realized,
2 the United States Government must effectively mon-
3 itor and enforce its rights under the agreements on 4 the accession of the People's Republic of China to 5 the WTO.

5 SEC. 221. ACTION TO ADDRESS MARKET DISRUPTION.

6 (a) PRESIDENTIAL ACTION.—If a product of the Peo-7 ple's Republic of China is being imported into the United 8 States in such increased quantities or under such condi-
9 tions as to cause or threaten to cause market disruption
10 to the domestic producers of a like or directly competitive
11 product, the President shall, in accordance with the provi-
12 sions of this section, proclaim increased duties or other 13 import restrictions with respect to such product, to the 14 extent and for such period as the President considers nec-15 essary to prevent or remedy the market disruption.

16 (b) INITIATION OF AN INVESTIGATION.—(1) Upon 17 the filing of a petition by an entity described in section 18 202(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2252(a)), 19 upon the request of the President or the United States 20 Trade Representative (in this subtitle referred to as the 21 “Trade Representative”), upon resolution of either the 22 Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Rep-
23 resentatives, or the Committee on Finance of the Senate 24 (in this subtitle referred to as the “Committees”) or on 25 its own motion, the United States International Trade

1 Commission (in this subtitle referred to as the “Commis-
2 sion”) shall promptly make an investigation to determine 3 whether products of the People’s Republic of China are 4 being imported into the United States in such increased 5 quantities or under such conditions as to cause or threaten 6 to cause market disruption to the domestic producers of 7 like or directly competitive products.

8 (2) The limitations on investigations set forth in sec-9 tion 202(h)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C.
10 2252(h)(1)) shall apply to investigations conducted under 11 this section.

12 (3) The provisions of subsections (a)(8) and (i) of 13 section 202 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C.
14 2252(a)(8) and (i)), relating to treatment of confidential
15 business information, shall apply to investigations con-16 ducted under this section.

17 (4) Whenever a petition is filed, or a request or reso-
18 lution is received, under this subsection, the Commission
19 shall transmit a copy thereof to the President, the Trade 20 Representative, the Committee on Ways and Means of the 21 House of Representatives, and the Committee of Finance
22 of the Senate, except that in the case of confidential busi-
23 ness information, the copy may include only nonconfiden-24 tial summaries of such information.

1 (5) The Commission shall publish notice of the com-2 mencement of any proceeding under this subsection in the 3 Federal Register and shall, within a reasonable time there-4 after, hold public hearings at which the Commission shall 5 afford interested parties an opportunity to be present, to 6 present evidence, to respond to the presentations of other 7 parties, and otherwise to be heard.

8 (c) MARKET DISRUPTION.—(1) For purposes of this 9 section, market disruption exists whenever imports of an 10 article like or directly competitive with an article produced 11 by a domestic industry are increasing rapidly, either abso-
12 lutely or relatively, so as to be a significant cause of mate-13 rial injury, or threat of material injury, to the domestic 14 industry.

15 (2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term “signifi-16 cant cause” refers to a cause which contributes signifi-17 cantly to the material injury of the domestic industry, but 18 need not be equal to or greater than any other cause.

19 (d) FACTORS IN DETERMINATION.—In determining 20 whether market disruption exists, the Commission shall 21 consider objective factors, including—

22 (1) the volume of imports of the product which 23 is the subject of the investigation;

(2) the effect of imports of such product on prices in the United States for like or directly competitive articles; and

(3) the effect of imports of such product on the domestic industry producing like or directly competitive articles.

7 The presence or absence of any factor under paragraph 8 (1), (2), or (3) is not necessarily dispositive of whether 9 market disruption exists.

(e) TIME FOR COMMISSION DETERMINATIONS.—The Commission shall make and transmit to the President and the Trade Representative its determination under subsection (b)(1) at the earliest practicable time, but in no case later than 60 days (or 90 days in the case of a petition requesting relief under subsection (i)) after the date on which the petition is filed, the request or resolution is received, or the motion is adopted, under subsection (b). If the Commissioners voting are equally divided with respect to its determination, then the determination agreed upon by either group of Commissioners may be considered by the President and the Trade Representative as the determination of the Commission.

(f) RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMISSION ON PROPOSED REMEDIES.—If the Commission makes an affirmative determination under subsection (b), or a determina-

1 tion which the President or the Trade Representative may 2 consider as affirmative under subsection (e), the Commis-
3 sion shall propose the amount of increase in, or imposition 4 of, any duty or other import restrictions necessary to pre-
5 vent or remedy the market disruption. Only those mem-
6 bers of the Commission who agreed to the affirmative de-7 termination under subsection (b) are eligible to vote on 8 the proposed action to prevent or remedy market disrup-
9 tion. Members of the Commission who did not agree to 10 the affirmative determination may submit, in the report 11 required under subsection (g), separate views regarding 12 what action, if any, should be taken to prevent or remedy 13 market disruption.

14 (g) REPORT BY COMMISSION.—(1) Not later than 20 15 days after a determination under subsection (b) is made, 16 the Commission shall submit a report to the President and 17 the Trade Representative.

18 (2) The Commission shall include in the report re-19 quired under paragraph (1) the following:

20 (A) The determination made under subsection
21 (b) and an explanation of the basis for the deter-22 mination.

23 (B) If the determination under subsection (b) is 24 affirmative, or may be considered by the President 25 or the Trade Representative as affirmative under

1 subsection (e), the recommendations of the Commis-2 sion on proposed remedies under subsection (f) and 3 an explanation of the basis for each recommenda-4 tion.

5 (C) Any dissenting or separate views by mem-
6 bers of the Commission regarding the determination 7 and any recommendation referred to in subpara-
8 graphs (A) and (B).

9 (D) A description of—

10 (i) the short- and long-term effects that 11 implementation of the action recommended
12 under subsection (f) is likely to have on the pe-13 titioning domestic industry, on other domestic 14 industries, and on consumers; and 15 (ii) the short- and long-term effects of not 16 taking the recommended action on the peti-17 tioning domestic industry, its workers, and the 18 communities where production facilities of such 19 industry are located, and on other domestic in-20 dustries.

21 (3) The Commission, after submitting a report to the 22 President under paragraph (1), shall promptly make it 23 available to the public (but shall not include confidential 24 business information) and cause a summary thereof to be 25 published in the Federal Register.

1 (h) OPPORTUNITY TO PRESENT VIEWS AND EVI-
2 DENCE ON PROPOSED MEASURE AND RECOMMENDATION
3 TO THE PRESIDENT.—(1) Within 20 days after receipt of 4 the Commission's report under subsection (g) (or 15 days
5 in the case of an affirmative preliminary determination
6 under subsection (i)(1)(B)), the Trade Representative
7 shall publish in the Federal Register notice of any meas-
8 ure proposed by the Trade Representative to be taken pur-9 suant to subsection (a) and of the opportunity, including 10 a public hearing, if requested, for importers, exporters, 11 and other interested parties to submit their views and evi-12 dence on the appropriateness of the proposed measure and 13 whether it would be in the public interest.

14 (2) Within 55 days after receipt of the report under 15 subsection (g) (or 35 days in the case of an affirmative 16 preliminary determination under subsection (i)(1)(B)), the 17 Trade Representative, taking into account the views and 18 evidence received under paragraph (1) on the measure
19 proposed by the Trade Representative, shall make a rec-20 ommendation to the President concerning what action, if 21 any, to take to prevent or remedy the market disruption.

22 (i) CRITICAL CIRCUMSTANCES.—(1) When a petition
23 filed under subsection (b) alleges that critical cir-24 cumstances exist and requests that provisional relief be 25 provided under this subsection with respect to the product

1 identified in the petition, the Commission shall, not later 2 than 45 days after the petition containing the request is 3 filed—

4 (A) determine whether delay in taking action
5 under this section would cause damage to the rel-6 evant domestic industry which would be difficult to 7 repair; and

8 (B) if the determination under subparagraph
9 (A) is affirmative, make a preliminary determination 10 of whether imports of the product which is the sub-11 ject of the investigation have caused or threatened to 12 cause market disruption.

13 If the Commissioners voting are equally divided with re-
14 spect to either of its determinations, then the determina-15 tion agreed upon by either group of Commissioners may 16 be considered by the President and the Trade Representa-
17 tive as the determination of the Commission.

18 (2) On the date on which the Commission completes 19 its determinations under paragraph (1), the Commission
20 shall transmit a report on the determinations to the Presi-
21 dent and the Trade Representative, including the reasons
22 for its determinations. If the determinations under para-23 graph (1) are affirmative, or may be considered by the 24 President or the Trade Representative as affirmative 25 under paragraph (1), the Commission shall include in its

1 report its recommendations on proposed provisional meas-
2 ures to be taken to prevent or remedy the market disrup-
3 tion. Only those members of the Commission who agreed 4 to the affirmative determinations under paragraph (1) are 5 eligible to vote on the proposed provisional measures to 6 prevent or remedy market disruption. Members of the 7 Commission who did not agree to the affirmative deter-8 minations may submit, in the report, dissenting or sepa-
9 rate views regarding the determination and any rec-10 ommendation of provisional measures referred to in this 11 paragraph.

12 (3) If the determinations under paragraph (1) are af-13 firmative, or may be considered by the President or the 14 Trade Representative as affirmative under paragraph (1), 15 the Trade Representative shall, within 10 days after re-
16 ceipt of the Commission's report, determine the amount 17 or extent of provisional relief that is necessary to prevent 18 or remedy the market disruption and shall provide a rec-
19 ommendation to the President on what provisional meas-20 ures, if any, to take.

21 (4)(A) The President shall determine whether to pro-22 vide provisional relief and proclaim such relief, if any, 23 within 10 days after receipt of the recommendation from 24 the Trade Representative.

25 (B) Such relief may take the form of—

- 1 (i) the imposition of or increase in any duty;
2 (ii) any modification, or imposition of any quan-
3 titative restriction on the importation of an article 4 into the United States; or 5 (iii) any combination of actions under clauses 6 (i) and (ii).

7 (C) Any provisional action proclaimed by the Presi-
8 dent pursuant to a determination of critical circumstances 9 shall remain in effect not more than 200 days.

10 (D) Provisional relief shall cease to apply upon the 11 effective date of relief proclaimed under subsection (a), 12 upon a decision by the President not to provide such relief,
13 or upon a negative determination by the Commission 14 under subsection (b).

15 (j) AGREEMENTS WITH THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF 16 CHINA.—(1) The Trade Representative is authorized to 17 enter into agreements for the People's Republic of China
18 to take such action as necessary to prevent or remedy mar-
19 ket disruption, and should seek to conclude such agree-20 ments before the expiration of the 60-day consultation pe-
21 riod provided for under the product-specific safeguard pro-
22 vision of the Protocol of Accession of the People's Republic
23 of China to the WTO, which shall commence not later 24 than 5 days after the Trade Representative receives an 25 affirmative determination provided for in subsection (e) or

1 a determination which the Trade Representative considers 2 to be an affirmative determination pursuant to subsection 3 (e).

4 (2) If no agreement is reached with the People's Re-
5 public of China pursuant to consultations under para-
6 graph (1), [or if the President determines than an agree-7 ment reached pursuant to such consultations is not pre-8 venting or remedying the market disruption at issue] the 9 President shall provide import relief in accordance with 10 subsection (a).

11 (k) STANDARD FOR PRESIDENTIAL ACTION.—(1)
12 Within 15 days after receipt of a recommendation from 13 the Trade Representative under subsection (h) on the ap-14 propriate action, if any, to take to prevent or remedy the 15 market disruption, the President shall provide import re-16 lief for such industry pursuant to subsection (a), unless 17 the President determines that provision of such relief is 18 not in the national economic interest of the United States
19 or, in extraordinary cases, that the taking of action pursu-
20 ant to subsection (a) would cause serious harm to the na-
21 tional security of the United States.

22 (2) The President may determine under paragraph 23 (1) that providing import relief is not in the national eco-
24 nomic interest of the United States only if the President 25 finds that the taking of such action would have an adverse

1 impact on the United States economy clearly greater than 2 the benefits of such action.

3 (1) PUBLICATION OF DECISION AND REPORTS.—(1)
4 The President's decision, including the reasons therefor
5 and the scope and duration of any action taken, shall be 6 published in the Federal Register.

7 (2) The Commission shall promptly make public any 8 report transmitted under this section, but shall not make 9 public any information which the Commission determines 10 to be confidential, and shall publish notice of such report
11 in the Federal Register.

12 (m) EFFECTIVE DATE OF RELIEF.—Import relief
13 under this section shall take effect not later than 15 days
14 after the President's determination to provide such relief.

15 (n) MODIFICATIONS OF RELIEF.—(1) At any time
16 after the end of the 6-month period beginning on the date 17 on which relief under subsection (m) first takes effect, the 18 President may request that the Commission provide a re-19 port on the probable effect of the modification, reduction, 20 or termination of the relief provided on the relevant indus-21 try. The Commission shall transmit such report to the 22 President within 60 days of the request.

23 (2) The President may, after receiving a report from 24 the Commission under paragraph (1), take such action to 25 modify, reduce, or terminate relief that the President de-

1 terminates is necessary to continue to prevent or remedy the 2 market disruption at issue.

(3) Upon the granting of relief under subsection (k), the Commission shall collect such data as is necessary to allow it to respond rapidly to a request by the President under paragraph (1).

(o) EXTENSION OF ACTION.— (1) Upon request of the President, or upon petition on behalf of the industry concerned filed with the Commission not earlier than the date which is 9 months, and not later than the date which is 6 months, before the date any relief provided under subsection (k) is to terminate, the Commission shall investigate to determine whether action under this section continues to be necessary to prevent or remedy market disruption.

(2) The Commission shall publish notice of the commencement of any proceeding under this subsection in the Federal Register and shall, within a reasonable time thereafter, hold a public hearing at which the Commission shall afford interested parties and consumers an opportunity to be present, to present evidence, and to respond to the presentations of other parties and consumers, and otherwise to be heard.

24 (3) The Commission shall transmit to the President 25 a report on its investigation and determination under this

1 subsection not later than 60 days before the action under 2 subsection (m) is to terminate.

3 (4) The President, after receiving an affirmative de-
4 termination from the Commission under paragraph (3), 5 may extend the effective period of any action under this 6 section if the President determines that the action con-
7 tinues to be necessary to prevent or remedy the market 8 disruption.

9 SEC. 222. ACTION IN RESPONSE TO TRADE DIVERSION.

10 (a) MONITORING BY CUSTOMS SERVICE.—In any 11 case in which a WTO member other than the United 12 States requests consultations with the People's Republic 13 of China under the product-specific safeguard provision of 14 the Protocol of Accession of the People's Republic of 15 China to the World Trade Organization, the Trade Rep-
16 resentative shall inform the United States Customs Serv-
17 ice, which shall monitor imports into the United States
18 of those products of Chinese origin that are the subject
19 of the consultation request. Data from such monitoring 20 shall promptly be made available to the Commission upon 21 request by the Commission.

22 (b) INITIATION OF INVESTIGATION.—(1) Upon the 23 filing of a petition by an entity described in section 202(a)
24 of the Trade Act of 1974, upon the request of the Presi-
25 dent or the Trade Representative, upon resolution of ei-

1 ther of the Committees, or on its own motion, the Commis-
2 sion shall promptly make an investigation to determine
3 whether an action described in subsection (c) has caused, 4 or threatens to cause, a significant diversion of trade into 5 the domestic market in the United States.

(2) The Commission shall publish notice of the commencement of any proceeding under this subsection in the Federal Register and shall, within a reasonable time thereafter, hold public hearings at which the Commission shall afford interested parties an opportunity to be present, to present evidence, to respond to the presentations of other parties, and otherwise to be heard.

(3) The provisions of subsections (a)(8) and (i) of section 202 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2252(a)(8) and (i)), relating to treatment of confidential business information, shall apply to investigations conducted under this section.

18 (c) ACTIONS DESCRIBED.—An action is described in 19 this subsection if it is an action—

(1) by the People's Republic of China to prevent or remedy market disruption in a WTO member other than the United States;

23 (2) by a WTO member other than the United 24 States to withdraw concessions under the WTO

1 Agreement or otherwise to limit imports to prevent 2 or remedy market disruption;

3 (3) by a WTO member other than the United 4 States to apply a provisional safeguard within the 5 meaning of the product-specific safeguard provision
6 of the Protocol of Accession of the People's Republic 7 of China to the WTO; or

8 (4) any combination of actions described in 9 paragraphs (1) through (3).

10 (d) BASIS FOR DETERMINATION OF SIGNIFICANT DI-
11 VERSION.—(1) In determining whether significant diver-
12 sion or the threat thereof exists for purposes of this sec-
13 tion, the Commission shall take into account, to the extent 14 such evidence is reasonably available—

15 (A) the monitoring conducted under subsection 16 (a);

17 (B) the actual or imminent increase in United 18 States market share held by such imports from the 19 People's Republic of China;

20 (C) the actual or imminent increase in volume
21 of such imports into the United States;

22 (D) the nature and extent of the action taken 23 or proposed by the WTO member concerned;

1 (E) the extent of exports from the People's Re-2 public of China to that WTO member and to the 3 United States;

4 (F) the actual or imminent changes in exports 5 to that WTO member due to the action taken or 6 proposed;

7 (G) the actual or imminent diversion of exports
8 from the People's Republic of China to countries
9 other than the United States;

10 (H) cyclical or seasonal trends in import vol-11 umes into the United States of the products at 12 issue; and

13 (I) conditions of demand and supply in the 14 United States market for the products at issue.

15 The presence or absence of any factor under any of sub-
16 paragraphs (A) through (I) is not necessarily dispositive
17 of whether a significant diversion of trade or the threat 18 thereof exists.

19 (2) For purposes of making its determination, the 20 Commission shall examine changes in imports into the 21 United States from the People's Republic of China since 22 the time that the WTO member announced the commence-23 ment of the investigation that led to a request for con-24 sultations described in subsection (a).

1 (3) If more than 1 action by a WTO member or WTO 2 members against a particular product is identified in the 3 petition, request, or resolution under subsection (b) or 4 during the investigation, the Commission may cumula-
5 tively assess the actual or likely effects of such actions 6 jointly in determining whether a significant diversion of 7 trade exists.

8 (e) COMMISSION DETERMINATION; AGREEMENT AU-
9 THORITY.—(1) The Commission shall make and transmit
10 to the President and the Trade Representative its deter-
11 mination under subsection (b) at the earliest practicable

15 have on the petitioning domestic industry,
16 on other domestic industries, and on con-17 sumers; and

18 (II) the short- and long-term effects
19 of not taking the recommended action on 20 the petitioning domestic industry, its work-
21 ers and the communities where production 22 facilities of such industry are located, and

24 (C) The Commission, after submitting a report

5 (f) PUBLIC COMMENT.—If consultations fail to lead 6 to an agreement with the People's Republic of China or 7 the WTO member concerned within 60 days, the Trade
8 Representative shall promptly publish notice in the Fed-

10 the trade diversion, and provide an opportunity for inter-11 ested persons to present views and evidence on whether 12 the proposed action is in the public interest.

13 (g) RECOMMENDATION TO THE PRESIDENT.—Within 14 20 days after the end of consultations pursuant to sub-

20 receipt of the recommendation from the Trade Represent-21 ative, the President shall determine what action to take 22 to prevent or remedy the trade diversion or threat thereof.

2 public of China.

3 (j) REVIEW OF CIRCUMSTANCES.—(1) The Commis-4 sion shall review the continued need for action taken under 5 subsection (h) if the WTO member or members involved 6 notify the Committee on Safeguards of the WTO of any 7 modification in the action taken by them against the Peo-8 ple's Republic of China pursuant to consultation referred 9 to in subsection (a). The Commission shall, not later than 10 60 days after such notification, determine whether a sig-
11 nificant diversion of trade continues to exist and report
12 its determination to the President. The President shall de-13 termine, within 15 days after receiving the Commission's 14 report, whether to modify, withdraw, or keep in place the 15 action taken under subsection (h).

16 States to ensure that goods mined, produced, or

Summary of Administration Outstanding Levin Issues, Large and Small
As of 5/19, 7 PM

This list reflects preliminary consultations with State, NSC, and USTR conducted by Malcolm Lee and Daniel Rosen. We intend to study the draft further over the weekend for technical issues in preparation for a conference call 10 AM Monday to verify this list prior to the Rules Committee taking up the draft Tuesday morning.

1. The definition of the Government of China remains objectionable.
2. Subpoena power in general remains objectionable, particularly to NSC
3. The draft does not place a limit on subpoena power thus: "as necessary for the performance of its functions under this title," instead of the current "as [the commission] considers necessary." [USTR notes that this item, Section 106, begins with "In carrying out this title," which might have the same effect.]
4. "Authorized to appropriate" language remains unchanged throughout the document.
5. In section 311 (b) (3) there remains a complete prohibition on the use of rule of law funds in activities involving the All China Federation of Trade Unions, whereas Labor had expressed the hope that activities not providing any material benefit to the group might be permissible. [However, it is noted that this may not preclude use of other funds.]
6. Surge language in this draft does not track exactly yesterday's mark-up language (HR 4444), and we presume that mark-up language will be reinstated.
7. This draft does not incorporate the President's formal PNTR language.
8. Section 313 (p. 59, lines 17-18) restricts rule of law spending if the President "has credible evidence" of responsibility for human rights violations on the part of the recipient organ of the GOC. State prefers the President must actively "determine" responsibility for those violations in order to be prevented from funding activities.
9. 102(g) now requires that congressional hearings be held automatically within 30 days of receipt of the Commission's annual report, whereas this would have been elective in earlier versions of Levin.

THE SINO-EU AGREEMENT ON CHINA'S ACCESSION TO THE WTO:
RESULTS OF THE BILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS.

The following is an overview of the results achieved by the EU since the signature of the Sino-US accord. Some of the issues covered are unique to the EU, while others had already been the subject of negotiations between China and other partners. In both cases, the list below is confined to commitments which were secured explicitly by the European Union.

INDUSTRIAL GOODS

Import tariffs

As for specific EU priorities not covered by China's previous bilateral Agreements, these were concentrated on 150 specific products varying from gin to building materials. On these EU-specific priorities, an additional reduction of 40% on top of earlier offers was obtained (the tariff average falling from 18.6% to 10.9%).

Tariffs on all spirits will be aligned to a level of 10%. There will be no difference in the treatment of whisk(e)y, Cognac, Gin etc. The presently applied tariff level is still at 65%.

Tariffs on key cosmetics products will come down to a level of 10% (currently up to 30%). This implies good prospects for a sector which already exports up to EUR 7 billion worldwide.

On leather and leather articles negotiations focused on 13 specific products which account for 60% of total EU exports in this sector. China agreed a reduction on these products from 20-25% to 10%.

On textiles China made some further improvements to the previous offer. China's textiles tariffs are very close to the levels of the EU and far lower than almost all other textile exporting countries.

Tariffs on 5 particular footwear products which account for more than 70% of EU footwear exports will be reduced from 25% to 10%.

Marble/building stones are popular articles in China's enormous construction market. On the 5 most important products tariffs will also be reduced from 25% to 10%.

On ceramics China agreed to reduce tariffs on 11 key ceramics products from 24.5-35% to 10-15%. And tariffs on 6 particular glass products will be reduced from 24.5% to 5%.

On 52 particular products in the important machinery and appliances sector, which accounts for 26% of total EU exports, tariffs will be cut to 5-10% from levels up to 35%.

- Quotas: China's quota on Europe's fertilizer exports (NPK) will be liberalised upon accession, and restrictions in place this year will be immediately relaxed.

- State Trading:

Liberalisation of import monopolies on oil and fertiliser - China has agreed to open the crude and processed oil sectors, as well as NPK fertiliser, to private traders through a process of gradual liberalisation. This means that firms will no longer be obliged to go exclusively through China's state importers when shipping oil and fertiliser to China. The oil (petroleum) and fertiliser sectors are the most significant domains where a state import monopoly has been in place.

Liberalisation of export monopoly on silk - EU firms will be able to buy raw silk directly from Chinese producers (who make 70% of the world total). Until now all purchases had to go through state export channels. This will bring substantial benefits to the EU's numerous manufacturers of ties, scarves and other high value silk garments and accessories.

- Motor vehicles: the EU and China agreed on a range of improvements for EU firms which produce cars, vans and trucks in China. For those who have invested in joint-venture manufacturing operations (or will do so in the future), there are 3 key points:
 - all restrictions regarding the category, type and models of vehicle produced will be lifted within 2 years, leaving the car-maker free to make such decisions on a purely commercial basis;
 - provincial authorities alone will be able to approve investments in the sector up to $150 million (ceiling raised from $30m), substantially reducing red-tape for car manufacturers;
 - for the manufacture of engines, China's joint-venture requirement will be removed, allowing wholly foreign owned production.

- Market access (tariffs and tariff quotas): Improvements have been made on the tariff quota for rape oil, as well as on tariffs on products such as: rape oil (down from 85% to 9%), pasta (down from 25% to 15%), butter (down from 30% to 10%), milk powder (down from 25% to 10%), mandarins (down from 40% to 12%), wine (down from 65% to 14%), olives (down from 25% to 10%) and wheat gluten (down from 30% to 18%).
- Sanitary and Phytosanitary measures: The EU and China signed an SPS Agreement that will provide for compliance by China with the WTO's SPS Agreement, as well as resolving a number of bilateral SPS trade frictions. This agreement will be supplemented by subsequent agreements with individual EU Member States, to be concluded before China's formal entry into the WTO.

- Telecommunications: The telecommunications offer has been considerably enhanced. China will open its mobile telephony market 2 years ahead of schedule. Upon accession, foreign operators will be permitted a 25% share, rising to 49% 3 years after accession. China has agreed to allow operations between Chinese cities (where the biggest business is located, covering more than 75% of current traffic) and not to restrict them to activity within each city. The liberalisation of domestic leased circuit services has also been obtained, which is a key commitment for foreign telecom companies to allow them to sell their spare capacity. Furthermore, the access of user firms (usually large foreign corporations) to international corporate telecommunications has also been improved. Finally, China and the EU have agreed to a satisfactory settlement concerning the mobile investments of EU telecommunication companies (France Telecom, Siemens/Deutsche Telekom and Telecom Italia) in the 2nd Chinese carrier, China Unicom.
- Insurance : Effective management control has been negotiated for foreign participants in life insurance joint ventures, through choice of partner, and a legal guarantee of freedom from any regulatory interference in privately negotiated contracts on a 50-50 equity basis. Foreign insurers will see their scope of business advanced by 2 years in life and non-life activities, selling the same products their Chinese competitors. This includes health, pension and group insurance in life, and all non-life activities except for mandatory 3rd party liability auto insurance. Geographic expansion of cities open to foreign insurers has also been accelerated. Brokers (insurance intermediaries) will have access to the Chinese market through local establishment for the first time. A number of new licences, for both life and non-life business, will be immediately provided to EU companies.
- Banking: The banking offer has been improved. Non-financial institutions will be able to give credit facilities for the purchase of all motor vehicles, including trucks, buses, tractors, motorcycles etc. rather than just cars. China has also agreed to allow foreign banks in the city of Zhuhai to advance their operations in local currency. Zhuhai, which is just off Macao, holds several EU banks.
- Distribution: China has agreed to lift the specific joint venture restriction applicable to large department stores, as well as for virtually all chain stores, as well as lifting the 20,000m² size limit for foreign-owned stores.
- Securities: China and the EU have agreed to establish a regulatory dialogue on the development of the securities market in China. The EU welcomes the opportunity to contribute its expertise to the expansion of the Chinese securities market.
- Dredging: Dredging activities, related to infrastructure construction, are now open to foreign firms.

- Tourism : The tourism offer has been extended from holiday services to also cover corporate travel business. The establishment requirements for travel agencies and tour operators have been eased to the benefit, in particular, of SMEs specialised in the Chinese market. The capital requirement will be gradually reduced to the same level as that applied to Chinese firms. The minimum turnover requirement has also now been further reduced, upon accession, by 20% (down to 40 million USD).
- Legal services : foreign law firms will, for the first time, be able to also offer services on Chinese law. In particular they will be able to provide information to their clients on the Chinese legal environment. Concerning other activities in Chinese law (representations before the Courts etc.), the arrangements with local law firms have been improved by allowing foreign firms directly to instruct individual Chinese lawyers in these firms. Improvements have also been obtained on the prior experience requirements for lawyers – prior experience will no longer have to be consecutive, and the requirement for all lawyers, other than the Chief representative, has been reduced from 3 to 2 years. Finally, it has been recognised for the first time that solicitors (although not members of a bar) will also be covered by the agreement.
- Accountancy : Accountants will be able to provide taxation and management consultancy services under the same conditions as accounting services, and will no longer be required to partner.
- Architects : Architects will now have an extended access on a cross-border basis, by allowing them to provide scheme design services.
- Market research : The Chinese Decree imposing extremely burdensome requirements that might affect the confidentiality of market research reports will be substantially amended. Reports will no longer be pre-examined by Chinese authorities before being given to the client, but firms will merely have send copies of questionnaires to the authorities (not of the replies and results).

HORIZONTAL ISSUES

- Government Procurement: China has agreed to full transparency and non-discrimination (MFN) in government purchases.
- Trade-distorting investment-related measures: The EU and China have agreed on commitments similar to those included in the Sino-US agreement, but also incorporating an obligation to eliminate industrial export subsidies, and offset requirements in the civil aircraft sector.
- National treatment: This is a basic GATT obligation. China has now given specific commitments to phase out legislation that gives unfair advantages to domestic producers in the field of pharmaceutical pricing, after-sales services of imported goods, chemical import registration requirements, control of imported boilers, and retail of imported cigarettes and spirits. In some cases China will have one or two years to make her legislation WTO compliant.
