Dear Ms. Coven:

As requested by the National Security Council in their Memorandum of July 22, 1996, the Coast Guard delegates to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), all authority that the Coast Guard may have under Executive Order 12807 that is necessary to allow INS to escort the four third country nationals (two Indian, one Hungarian, and one Jordanian) currently at Guantanamo to their respective countries of origin. This delegation does not constitute a precedent and is not applicable to future repatriation operations.

Sincerely,
