Dear Mr. Gunn, Mr. Nesbitt and Mr. Sale:

Thank you for inviting President Clinton to attend the State of Israel National Tribute Dinner honoring Bernard Rapoport. The President appreciates your offer and is sorry that he was unable to join you at this important event.

Unfortunately, the tremendous demands on the President as he works to move our country forward do not give him the opportunity to accept as many invitations as he would like.

On behalf of the President, thank you again for your invitation. Please do not hesitate to contact my office if we can provide you with any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Ricki L. Seidman
Assistant to the President
Director of Scheduling and Advance
