APR 15 1993

Dear Alexis:

On behalf of the Young Presidents' Organization, and the World Presidents' Organization, may I thank you for your wonderful hospitality at the White House on Tuesday, April 6, 1993. The presentations by you, Mack, Gene, and the President, were outstanding. Indeed, you won the hearts of many of my colleagues, and certainly answered all of our questions.

You are a most articulate and thoughtful spokesman for the Administration. I can understand why the President has you in such a significant position. I was most impressed with your wonderful personality, good intellect, and eloquence. I hope this first meeting between us, and with our group, serves as the basis for future activity between the White House Office of Public Liaison, and the President. There is a good opportunity for mutual support.

On a more personal note, I was delighted to meet you. Over the next four weeks, I have an extended trip to the Middle East; however, when I return, sometime after May 10th, I should be in Washington again. Is it possible for us to have lunch or dinner around your schedule. I will call you prior to departing for the Middle East and once again when I return.

Again, thank you very much for your hospitality and effort on our behalf. I look forward to seeing you again.

Sincerely,

Warren S. Rustand WR
