MEMORANDUM TO ALEXIS HERMAN

FROM: Flo McAfee

RE: Brazil State Dinner

X 62983

Attached is a list of the names submitted to the Social Secretary's Office from OPL. The business names were compiled by Marilyn DiGiacobbe with assistance from the Department of Commerce and Marilyn Yager. With assistance from Commerce, I provided the Social Secretary's Office with a total list of 10 additional business names in priority order. At the time names were requested, Kate did not submit names because she had recently arrived.

The names include those given to me by Suzanna. Last week she sent additional names, but they were for the Mexico State Dinner.

Note: I have a list of 40 to 50 businesses from the Commerce Department, if needed.

The Odebrecht Organization ("Odebrecht"), is a Brazilian corporation operating as a diversified conglomerate of businesses worldwide, including engineering, chemicals, oil drilling, mining, electronics and automation, agriculture and real estate. Founded in 1945, Odebrecht employs in excess of 50,000 individuals worldwide in 22 countries. Construtora Norberto Odebrecht, S.A. ("CNO") is one of the engineering, heavy construction special technology subsidiaries of Odebrecht. Today, CNO has human resources qualified to implement works such as dams, hydroelectric plants, ports, and airports, bridges, buildings, railroads and highways, sanitary and irrigation systems, nuclear power plants, urban transport systems, mining shafts and restorations.

Odebrecht expanded its works into the United States and for this purpose formed two subsidiaries, Odebrecht Contractors of Florida, Inc. based in Miami, Florida and CBPO of America based in Los Angeles, California.
