MEMORANDUM FOR DISTRIBUTION

FROM: Mike Lux

SUBJECT: Attached Charts

There are so many coalitions and players out there on the health care debate that it is extremely confusing as to who is doing what. Having already done memoranda and charts on the broad positioning that different groups and sectors have in the health debate, I decided it would be useful to go into more detail on charts outlining the various supportive coalitions that are out there on our behalf. I have done three charts: one for business-led coalitions, one for proposed business-led coalitions, and the other for "base group" coalitions.

If you have any questions or comments please give me a call.

For your planning purposes, attached is a final copy of OPL's month-by-month calendar of upcoming conventions and meetings that will be held throughout the country. Also included is a brief listing of holidays and special occasions. Although the calendar covers most major conventions, it does not include all because the primary focus is on the constituencies we serve.

FROM: Mike Lux

SUBJECT: Attached Charts

There are so many coalitions and players out there on the health care debate that it is extremely confusing as to who is doing what. Having already done memoranda and charts on the broad positioning that different groups and sectors have in the health debate, I decided it would be useful to go into more detail on charts outlining the various supportive coalitions that are out there on our behalf. I have done 2 charts- one for business- led coalitions, the other for "base group" coalitions. As you can see, I have a complicated mess trying to keep track of and co-ordinate all of this. Unfortunately, I think we are stuck with that problem given the complexity of the issues and the dynamics of the groups.

If you have any questions or comments please give me a call.

MEMORANDUM FOR OPL STAFF

FROM: Mike Lux

SUBJECT: Organizing Framework Around Health Care

In preparation for our meeting tonight, and in general for the health care battle ahead, I wanted to get a planning document to everyone with some ideas on moving forward as an office.

Our organizing around the health plan should be driven by the following baseline assumptions:

1. Our success will depend in large part on what happens in three key committees: House Ways and Means, House Energy and Commerce, and Senate Finance. 80% or more of your efforts at outreach and education should be focused on the districts of swing votes in those committees. We hope for votes in those committees by early May.
2. Legislatively, we must win some version (even if not the 80-20 split currently in our plan) of the employer mandate to achieve universal coverage: it is the linchpin around which the bill is built. We must get even the constituencies who do not have a direct stake in that issue to help us win that battle. (The best way to do that is to remind them that the things they want in the bill will not happen, because there will be no bill without an employer mandate.)
3. Our job in OPL, working with the DNC, other administration staff, and outside groups, has two basic components:
 - educating, motivating, and energizing the groups that should be our base at the grassroots: the constituencies that gain the most from health care reform. These include labor, seniors, African-Americans, Hispanics/Latinos, women, the disability rights community, consumers, and traditional liberal Democrats.
 - working top priority constituencies who are the "swing voters" in this campaign:
 - seniors
 - business (both large and small)
 - health care providers

If we do these two broad things well over the next ten weeks, at the targeted district/state level, we will have made a huge contribution to winning the health reform fight.

Structurally, in order to help keep us focused on those two goals, I would like to begin weekly meetings of two new inter-departmental staff teams (in addition to the business team we already have):

- The base: Alexis, me, Doris, Debbie, Ben, Suzanna, Joe Velasquez, Heather Booth, Minyon Moore, Polly Baca.
- Seniors: Alexis, me, Debbie, Fernando and his staff, Sara Ehrman, Heather Booth.

There are four major activities that I would like to see OPL do in the next ten weeks around those two broad goals:

1. Constituency Lunches With the President. Both the seniors brunch and the physicians event we did in December were successful on many different levels, as have been the on-going series of CEO lunches. I am strongly recommending to Harold Ickes and the health care team that in addition to continuing to do frequent CEO lunches, that we do several other group leaders lunches (or breakfasts or brunches) on health care, including:

- | | |
|--------------------|-----------------------------|
| -- consumer groups | -- African American leaders |
| -- disease groups | -- church leaders |
| -- labor leaders | -- disability group leaders |

2. District or State Opinion Leader Meetings. The proposed schedule is attached.

3. Constituency Briefings. Obviously, this is what we do all the time. Again I would remind people to focus invited for your briefings from targeted states and districts. I would like to have a comprehensive calendar of such briefings developed by our office.

4. Strategy Sessions. I will be running a series of strategy sessions with outside groups. There will be three types of strategy meetings:

- general meetings, where I invite the broader coalition that is with us. These will happen every 2-3 weeks. We have already done one of these and it was fairly successful.
- provisional meetings, where I bring together groups that care about a given provision in the bill (i.e. mental health, employer mandate, etc.) I plan to do nine of these in the next couple of weeks.
- constituency focused meetings, where I bring in all of the key groups from a given constituency for a strategy session on their issues in the health bill. Right now, I am only doing this with seniors groups, but if any of you wants to schedule such meetings with a constituency you work with, I would encourage it.

Debbie will make sure everyone gets a list of when these various meetings are scheduled so that you can attend any of them you want. We want to combine these four kinds of events into a comprehensive calendar for OPL that we can give to the White House health care team.

Revised Opinion Leader Meetings Schedule

MEMORANDUM FOR OPL HEALTH CARE OUTREACH PLANNING MEETING

FROM: AMY ZISOOK, MARILYN DIGIACOBBE
SUBJECT: SMALL BUSINESS COMMUNITY

Following is an outline of the areas of outreach we think we can accomplish over the next two months. We have taken into consideration the targets which Mike laid out in our meeting last week.

I. FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS

A series of 8 White House briefings geared to small business friends and supporters in key states. The briefings will be conducted by Erskine Bowles and are as follows:

Thursday, March 3	Pennsylvania
Monday, March 7	Virginia and Connecticut
Thursday, March 17	New York and New Jersey
Thursday, March 24	Arkansas
Thursday, March 31	California
Thursday, April 7	Oklahoma and Kansas
Thursday, April 14	Texas
Thursday, April 21	Michigan and Wisconsin

II. STATE OPINION LEADERS

We will plug the following types of people into OPL's overall state opinion leader series:

- * Local Chamber of Commerce presidents
- * Board members, lay leaders, and chapter presidents of associations who are supportive or have high membership in that region
- * Members of supportive associations including those we have recently met with (see attached list of 40 associations)

III. TRADE ASSOCIATIONS

We will continue to bring in groupings of trade association presidents/representatives to meet with Erskine Bowles as well as Glenn Hutchins. We have blocked out the following for March and April:

Thursday, March 3	Engineers
Thursday, March 17	Auto Dealers and Suppliers
Thursday, March 24	Energy

Thursday, March 31	Manufacturers
Thursday, April 7	Transportation
Thursday, April 14	Bankers
Thursday, April 21	Mining & Other

In addition, we will schedule briefings for association memberships as requested.

IV. ERSKINE BOWLES DISTRICT VISITS

Erskine Bowles is traveling to a district a week. We have discussed with SBA the possibility of incorporating a meeting of friends and supporters to each of these district visits.

V. CONVENTIONS

We suggest principal or surrogate participation for the following association meetings or conventions over the next two months.

March 3	NAWBO CA (FLOTUS)
March 9	American Electronics Assn (POTUS)
March 17	Associated General Contractors FL (POTUS/Surr)
March 23	Natl Assn of Equip Operators in Higher Ed (Surr)
April 1	Natl Assn of Realtors (FLOTUS)
April 11	American Business Conference (POTUS)
April 27	NASE (POTUS/FLOTUS)

VI. FURTHER SPREADING OF THE MESSAGE TO SMALL BUSINESS

- A. Message from the President on Health Care Reform to send to trade associations for printing in their magazines and newsletters - weekly or bi-weekly.
- B. Message from Erskine Bowles - weekly.
- C. Materials prepared by SBA including talking points and worksheet to send to all associations we meet with.
