SUBJECT: Today's meeting.

Doctor Henry Foster

by
Mrs. Maggie Neal Williams
Daughter, Francina Regena Williams
Born 1966
John Andrew's Hospital
Tuskegee Institute

I visited Dr. Foster in 1965
He could well be the reason that I am still alive.
I thought I was going through an early change
If not, I wanted everything rearranged.
He examined me and gave me a pregnancy test.
Then soon he was telling me that I was pregnant and he wished me the best.
I say, "Dr. Foster, that really can't be."
And that he could change that whatever his fee.
'Cause I didn't want to have a baby at the age of 39.
But it was Dr. Foster who really changed my mind.
He said that his mission was to preserve life and not to destroy;
That God was blessing us with a sweet bundle of joy.
He took me in his office and he picked up a pad,
Then he gave me more assurance about my baby's normality than I ever had.
Dr. Foster saved my daughter who is almost 29.
She is beautiful, she is wonderful and Lord knows she is fine.
Had it not been for Dr. Foster, she would have been gone.
He really talked me into letting her be born.
He was my doctor. He was my friend. And I will love and respect him even until the end.
For the United States Surgeon General, he would be the best because through his practice he has stood every test.
For his nation, he would right many wrongs.
Because the man is intelligent, kind hearted and strong.
To deny him of this position, would be so unfair.

Just give him a chance.
He'll be perfect I swear.

SUBJECT: Setting up two meetings w/ Alexis

Alexis and I agreed yesterday that we need two meetings next week before I go to Miami. One on outreach to include Alexis, me, Suzanna. A second on New Jersey politics and Cuban policy to include the above plus people from political. Alexis will know best who to include. The second meeting is to discuss how the President's May 2 decisions have affected the Cuban American vote in NJ and overall support for the President's reelection and how we can address these problems. Could you work with Angie to try to bring these off? Other meetings on my schedule should be moved to make these happen.

Re: Vietnam Speech

Suggest you get a feel for the Vietnam speech from various veterans organizations before the President gives his speech. The Vietnam issue is still very sensitive with veterans. If he delivers his speech now, I think the timing should be put off to later.

Between now and the first week in September the following veterans organizations will be having their conventions. We shouldn't give them a forum for the President's speech if the response is negative.

American Legion
DAV
VFW
Paralyzed Vets
American Vets

If the President can hold off delivering his speech until mid-September, all the above conventions will be over. Naturally, there will be some response from the various vets groups but there will be no avenue for them to dwell on the negative aspects.
