Assistant to the President

For the President to meet with the Baptist World Alliance Executive Committee.

This meeting would provide an opportunity for fellow Baptists from around the world to show support and pray for the President.

The Baptist World Alliance (BWA) is the official world body of Baptists. With ministry's in more than 200 countries, this group represents over 100 million Baptists worldwide. Fifty million of this constituency is in the USA, including 10 various conventions: American Baptists, Southern Baptists, National Baptists, and other ethnic Baptist groups such as German, Swedish, Rumanian, Russian, Latvian, and Hungarian. The BWA Executive Committee meets annually in Washington, D.C. Attending this year's meeting will be Baptists from six continents and most Baptist leaders in the USA.

Ms. Flo McAfee
Asst. Director of Public Liaison
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Ms. McAfee:

Several weeks ago I wrote to you concerning a possible visit of our Baptist World Alliance Executive Committee to President Clinton during the week of March 6 (see attached copy).

Will it be possible to meet with President Clinton on Wednesday, March 8? Any time during that day would be satisfactory with us. An alternate date would be the morning of Thursday, March 9.

We would appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible so that we can contact our committee members concerning this visit to the White House.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Denton Lotz
General Secretary
