This is great for the President. They agree with him and can merge the momentum along ... it also helps us with women.

MEMORANDUM TO HAROLD ICKES

FROM: ALEXIS HERMAN
DORIS MATSUI DM

RE: DROP-BY AT THE NATIONAL WOMEN'S ECONOMIC AGENDA
COMMISSION

On Friday, January 27 we will be hosting a briefing for the National Women's Economic Agenda Commission. This commission was created by our long-time supporter Linda Tarr-Whelan of the Center for Policy Alternatives.

The meeting will serve as the first meeting of the commission as well as kick-off the Women's Voices for the Economy campaign the commission is undertaking. The mission of the campaign is to "unite women across race and class into a strong voice for a new economy" in a way that enable women to become fully involved in driving the country's economy forward. Included in this effort is educating women on the new economy that will come with job growth, improved education and retraining initiatives, higher minimum wage and the middle-class bill of rights.

It would be a great honor for these women if the President would be able to drop by and greet them during their first meeting. It would also demonstrate the support you have for the role women play in the economy and the importance of the steps being taken to help the middle-class worker, especially the working women. The women attending this event are key women leaders from across the country. They are highly supportive of the administration and are invaluable for spreading the word on the administration's economic achievements to the far reaching and diverse women they influence by their work.

The details are as follows:

Date:	Friday, February 27, 1994
Time:	2:00 - 3:00 pm
Location:	Room 450 Old Executive Office Building
Participants:	50 leaders of the women community (list attached)

MEMORANDUM FOR HAROLD ICKES

FROM: Alexis Herman

SUBJECT: Women's Leadership Working Dinner

Date: Thursday, March 9, 1995

Time: 8:00PM

Location: Lynn Cutler's house
4335 37th Street, N.W.

PURPOSE:

The purposes of this meeting are:

- for the participants to outline (1) their analysis of what happened in '94, and (2) their concerns about how outreach has lapsed since 1992;
- to outline our plan for coordinated outreach to women and to get feedback on it; and
- to discuss the economic/family message for reaching women.

GOAL:

To instill a sense of confidence that the administration is aware of the problems they are raising, to gain support for the system we are developing to focus on women's outreach, and to outline a role for this group.

PARTICIPANTS:

The following women have been invited to this dinner; they represent a subset of a larger group that Lynn convenes regularly. (It is a subset because we wanted to keep the meeting small to allow for a real working session, and to accommodate space limitations at Lynn's house.)

FROM: BARBARA WOOLLEY

SUBJECT: WOMEN'S MEDIA ADVISORY GROUP

According to Carol Edgar, Swanee is unable to raise the necessary funding. If this is the case, what is the next step for the Media Advisory Group.

I have confirmed all participants for the Group except Susan King. We are scheduled to meet next Friday, March 10, 1995, from 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm, Room 476, OEOB. We then will move to the Roosevelt Room with the Women's Sub Cabinet Group to hear Celinda Lake discuss her polling results.
