WASHINGTON

October 15, 1993

Mr. Richard A. Abdoo
Chairman of the Board and CEO
Wisconsin Power Company
P.O. Box 2046
Milwaukee, WI 53201

Dear Mr. Abdoo:

I would like to take this opportunity to extend a personal invitation for you to attend the President's unveiling of his Climate Change Action Plan. The ceremony will be held on the South Lawn of the White House at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, October 19, 1993.

As you know, President Clinton and I are committed to the preservation of our global environment in a way that leads to strong and sustainable economic growth. In his Earth Day Address, the President announced this Administration's intention to return U.S. greenhouse gas emissions to 1990 levels by the year 2000. President Clinton will be announcing his Climate Change Action Plan to accomplish his goals as outlined on Earth Day in April.

You will need to plan on arriving at the East Visitors Gate of the White House with picture identification by 11:00 a.m. for the announcement on Tuesday. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Mr. Trey Lindseth or Ms. Jennifer Colamonico on my staff at 456-6224.

I hope you will be able to join us at the ceremony, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Bright:

I would like to take this opportunity to extend a personal invitation for you to attend the President's unveiling of his Climate Change Action Plan. The ceremony will be held on the South Lawn of the White House at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, October 19, 1993.

As you know, President Clinton and I are committed to the preservation of our global environment in a way that leads to strong and sustainable economic growth. In his Earth Day Address, the President announced this Administration's intention to return U.S. greenhouse gas emissions to 1990 levels by the year 2000. President Clinton will be announcing his Climate Change Action Plan to accomplish his goals as outlined on Earth Day in April.

You will need to plan on arriving at the East Visitors Gate of the White House with picture identification by 11:00 a.m. for the announcement on Tuesday. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Mr. Trey Lindseth or Ms. Jennifer Colamonico on my staff at 456-6224.

I hope you will be able to join us at the ceremony, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Farhang:

I would like to take this opportunity to extend a personal invitation for you to attend the President's unveiling of his Climate Change Action Plan. The ceremony will be held on the South Lawn of the White House at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, October 19, 1993.

As you know, President Clinton and I are committed to the preservation of our global environment in a way that leads to strong and sustainable economic growth. In his Earth Day Address, the President announced this Administration's intention to return U.S. greenhouse gas emissions to 1990 levels by the year 2000. President Clinton will be announcing his Climate Change Action Plan to accomplish his goals as outlined on Earth Day in April.

You will need to plan on arriving at the East Visitors Gate of the White House with picture identification by 11:00 a.m. for the announcement on Tuesday. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Mr. Trey Lindseth or Ms. Jennifer Colamonico on my staff at 456-6224.

Dear Mr. Minano:

I would like to take this opportunity to extend a personal invitation for you to attend the President's unveiling of his Climate Change Action Plan. The ceremony will be held on the South Lawn of the White House at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, October 19, 1993.

As you know, President Clinton and I are committed to the preservation of our global environment in a way that leads to strong and sustainable economic growth. In his Earth Day Address, the President announced this Administration's intention to return U.S. greenhouse gas emissions to 1990 levels by the year 2000. President Clinton will be announcing his Climate Change Action Plan to accomplish his goals as outlined on Earth Day in April.

You will need to plan on arriving at the East Visitors Gate of the White House with picture identification by 11:00 a.m. for the announcement on Tuesday. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Mr. Trey Lindseth or Ms. Jennifer Colamonico on my staff at 456-6224.

I hope you will be able to join us at the ceremony, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

In his Earth Day Address, the President announced this Administration's intention to return U.S. greenhouse gas emissions to 1990 levels by the year 2000. President Clinton will be announcing his Climate Change Action Plan to accomplish his goals as outlined on Earth Day in April.

You will need to plan on arriving at the East Visitors Gate of the White House with picture identification by 11:00 a.m. for the announcement on Tuesday. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Mr. Trey Lindseth or Ms. Jennifer Colamonico on my staff at 456-6224.

I hope you will be able to join us at the ceremony, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,
