Dear Pres. Clinton,

We just heard that in Norway they kill whales. Will you please make a law so they so they can't kill whales?
I don't want the whale to die. How would you feel if you got killed or lose your parents. Would you please change your mind?

Your friend,

Seth

Dear President Clinton,

I am concerned about the whales. We adopted a whale just a few months ago. We heard that you are letting people in Norway kill whales. I think you should n't let them kill whales because because they are a member of the endangered species family.

I really like you being our president;

I wanted you to be our president. I hope you write back to me. I hope you change your mind.

Dear Pres. Clinton,

We were just informed you are making it legal to hunt whales in Norway. We would like you not to. We have an adopted whale.

I think it's a little mean to hunt whales.

Dear Mrs. McGenty,
We adopted a whale and her name is Salt. We are so afraid that you might pass the bill in. Well we don't want you to say, "Yes." Please! Please! Don't pass the bill it!

From Karlie Andino

Dear Mrs. McGenty, My class and I are adopting a whale named Salt. I do not want you to pass the whaling bill.
You might hurt our Salt and other creatures of the sea.

Dear Mrs. McGety

We are adopting a whale. If you let the Whaling bill pass, we are afraid salt might get captured. Her friends would be in trouble too!

Dear Mrs McGenty

Please do not pass the bill. We have a whale her name is salt. If you do that our whale might be killed.

Jimmy

Dear Mrs. McGenty,
We have adopted a whale.
Her name is Salt. If the aides of President Clinton tell him that he should sign the
