Border patrol - Todd took it out, why I am not sure
Pouncing - I do not care if they pounce. The point is that our complaint would not be credible. We are not likely to be able to spend the money they have in the bill let alone any more. This is one of the items that was not on our $6.5 billion addback list but was added based on the arithmetic calculations off the conference report. Given the extensive increase in the bil, it seems like a weak item to push for.

DC - I now have the DC only CR. Damus is reviewing. It is a 12/27 extension, DC only, makes available only DC funds, no DC funds can be used for abortion, Domestic Partners and the so-called gay couple adoption provision. I have a call into you this morning.

TEXT:

House Rules action is expected at 4pm with floor action later this evening.

House and Senate Democrats are not signing the confernce report. Rep. Dixon is going to oppose the bill but has tentatively decided not to press for veto because he thinks the District needs their money. The tentative decision of the House Dem leadership is not to whip the vote. Rep. Obey's staff believe that Rep. Obey will oppose but not press for veto. They are supposed to get back to us around 1:30 pm.

The conference report is consistent with the e-mail I sent out last night. There is 178 pages of authorizing language related to DC schools (copies have been given to Apfel and DeSeve).

A few items not mentioned in my memo:

- o Like in the FY 1994 and FY 1995 Acts, there is a one year prohibition on using funds to implement the Domestic Partners Act.
- o The $10 million of additional Federal funding for DC education programs is earmarked for 15 different activities such as a the Charter Schools Board and Payments to Charter Schools (a newly authorized activity under the bill, the Even Start program, curriculum assessments, residential schools, funding for GSA to help with school renovation, the Deal Center (voc ed), the Delta Council (technology improvements), funds to promote hiring DC graduates, evaluation and "security" related to the scholarship program and a few small items.

The $10 million is not contingent on use of the $5 million for vouchers.

- o The new Consensus Commission is given audit and investigation authority.

Ken is calling a 1pm meeting in his office to discuss how to proceed.

Marsha

I put an article on your desk regarding the Presidents "corporate citizenship" policy. This could be a great way to include praising companies that have domestic partnerships without singling out the issue. If domestic partnership was include in the laundry list of employee benefits that the President praises it would not stick out and attract attention. Also, some of the companies offering domestic partnership benefitis allowing heterosexual and homosexual partners to receive the benefit.

If this issue is dealt with in the "treating employees more humanely" talk then politically we are covered (somewhat). And if the language regarding g/l marriage is going to include a positive rebut of domestic partnership we can point to the corporate citizenship model.

Wendell suggested sending a memo to Jean Sperling, Ann Walley, Harold and Evelyn about incorporating this message.

(3) I know nothing about this families meeting in Tennessee...but as I heard your description of looking at positive corporate policies toward families, it struck me that it would be wonderful if that discussion could include domestic partnership issues (especially re health insurance and family leave).

John attended the meeting, as did Elena Kagan, Anne Lewis, Susan Liss, Richard Socarides and myself.

Essentially, it was decided that we would tell Rep. Frank to go ahead and introduce the legislation without our public support, that Elena would quietly ask Jim King to do some background research on what the proposal would cost the government, and there will be an exploration of other issues, including legal questions about pension benefits and issues about whether or not to include heterosexual couples who fit the same criteria. Richard Socarides distributed a list of companies and cities who already have similar rules, along with polling information from the Human Rights Campaign concerning the topic.

Both John and I can give you more information if you need it.

Also, have you heard anything about a POTUS radio interview with AURN
(second one down the list)?

Developing Issues and Events

Race Initiative: We are working on developing a comprehensive race initiative for the President, which may include a commission, to address building a strong and united America for the 21st Century.

Radio Interview: We are working on setting up a radio interview with the President and an African-American reporter for AURN in which the President would discuss...[SMAT]

Tuskegee Announcement: We are developing a formal apology to the victims and families of the Tuskegee syphilis experiment. Our response will be accompanied by federal efforts to repair the breach between the African-American community and research community that was created by the Tuskegee incident.

White House Conference on Hate Crimes: We are working on developing a White House Conference on Hate Crimes, possibly this fall. The conference would provide a broad umbrella for addressing our opposition to violence against all those who may be different from others, and bring key constituencies together to identify commonalities and possible solutions.

National Gay and Lesbian Leaders: As part of our constituency outreach, we are considering an oval office meeting between the President and national gay and lesbian leaders sometime this summer (possibly June which is &Gay Pride 8 month). The President last met with them in spring 1993.

Domestic Partnership Benefits Legislation: We are considering our position on the legislation soon to be introduced that would provide for domestic partnership benefits for gay and lesbian federal employees.

A religious friend of the President's, Tony Campolo, has faxed him regarding the San Francisco city council vote to negate contracts with agencies that do not give medical benefits to domestic partners. One of the agencies that will be hard hit is the Salvation Army. Tony realizes that this is a local issue but fears that some of the very conservative religious - I hesitate to call them leaders but that is what they are - leaders will use this not only against the President and the gay and lesbian community - kind of see what the President is forcing upon us - but also proclaiming this as a national trend and that all religious organizations will be forced to make such concessions to the gay and lesbian community.

I am meeting with Tony on the 18th and am sure this will come up - if you have any guidance, that would be helpful.

Salvation Army Cuts S.F. Programs

Charity spurns city's domestic partner law
Manny Fernandez, April Lynch, Chronicle Staff Writers

Saying it cannot comply with San Francisco's domestic partners law, the Salvation Army told City Hall officials yesterday that it will scale back three programs for senior citizens and the homeless -- and no longer accept city money.

The Salvation Army, one of the largest nonprofit social service organizations in San Francisco, advised city officials of its decision in hand-delivered letters. Salvation Army employees also received letters. The news came a day after the city marked the anniversary of its landmark domestic partners law. Under the ordinance, any business that contracts with the city and provides spousal health insurance to married couples must provide the same benefits to the gay, lesbian and unmarried domestic partners of their employees.

Salvation Army officials said the ordinance greatly conflicts with their organization's Christian beliefs in recognizing the importance of the family, and that negotiations over the last 11 months with city officials have failed to reach a compromise on the issue.

``Please know this is a very difficult decision, and one that we did not make without much prayerful thought, deliberation and counsel,'' Salvation Army Lieutenant Colonel Richard Love said in a letter to employees. ``We simply cannot agree to be in compliance of the ordinance,'' Love, the divisional commander for the Salvation Army's Golden State division, told The Chronicle last night. ``We do not view it as a matter of discrimination. We offer a full range of benefits to our employees.'' Love stressed that his organization is not shutting down operations in San Francisco. ``We're certainly not pulling out,'' he said. ``We've been here 118 years.''

The city contracts for $3.5 million represent only a fraction of the Salvation Army's $18 million budget for services in San Francisco, Love noted. The money helped fund a senior nutrition meals program providing 1,700 hot meals for elderly people each day; a drug rehabilitation program; and the Lifeboat Lodge on Turk Street, which provides 86 beds for homeless men and women. Without the city money, the programs will be ``reduced in size and scope,'' Love said. In addition, sixty employees, mostly administrators and site managers for the senior meals program, will lose their jobs with the Salvation Army after September 1.

The organization has kept the three city-funded programs fully operational while negotiations with the city have been under way and will continue to do so until September, Love said. Last night, the mayor's office held out hope that the organization and City Hall would work things out. Kandace Bender, Mayor Willie Brown's press secretary, said the mayor would like time to discuss the issue with the Salvation Army before it takes any action. ``A number of agencies have thought they couldn't comply with the ordinance, but found they could, including Catholic Charities,'' Bender said.

Catholic Charities, the human services arm of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, had said the domestic partners ordinance conflicted with its religious teachings. But the organization, which has about $5.6 million in city contracts, eventually agreed to provide health insurance for anyone designated by an employee, whether it was a family member, a domestic partner or another person.

Salvation Army officials said the stopping point in its negotiations came with the city's refusal to grant the organization an exemption. The city awards exemptions to the ordinance for those contractors providing a sole and crucial service to the city. ``We asked for and did not receive a sole source exemption,'' Love said, adding that the city currently grants over 300 such extensions to other service providers. ``We were never given a reason.''

The Salvation Army has had a rocky relationship with City Hall over its policy on gays and lesbians. In January 1996, the Board of Supervisors put a $65,000 emergency shelter fund on hold after becoming aware of a letter written by a Salvation Army official condemning homosexuality.

The letter was described as outdated by Salvation Army officials, who have denied that the organization discriminates against gays and lesbians. The funds were later released to the organization.

Love described the departure as an ``amiable parting'' and expressed regret that an agreement could not be reached. ``We were hopeful,'' Love said. ``We have no particular animosity toward the city. We simply have reached an impasse where we cannot be in compliance.'' Salvation Army workers echoed that regret last night. At the Bridgeway residence hotel on Turk Street, which houses about 100 recovering substance abuse clients, director Patrick Granat said the Salvation Army had ``run into a series of dead ends'' in attempting to settle the matter. ``The relationship is over,'' Granat said. ``The divorce papers have been filed. And who gets hurt the most in a divorce? The kids or, in this case, the clients?'' Granat said the hotel, like many other Salvation Army programs in San Francisco, is independently funded and will not be affected by the dispute.

Do you know anything about the Riggs Amendment to VA/HUD appropriations? It essentially stops funding to areas which require private companies who contract with the municipality to provide health care benefits to unmarried domestic partners. San Francisco is freaking out. We've gotten a number of calls today. Any thoughts.

Gay and Lesbian Americans continue to play a vital role in American politics and within the Democratic party. With the election of President Clinton and Vice President Gore, the Democratic party has continually and consistently addressed the needs and concerns of gay men and lesbians. Since 1992 the Democratic National Committee has dedicated staff and funding resources to support outreach to the gay and lesbian community.

The DNC Office of Gay and Lesbian Outreach serves as the official liaison to the gay and lesbian community for the Democratic Party. The primary function is to assist the DNC, State Democratic parties, and Democratic Candidates work for gay and lesbian equality, reach out to gay and lesbian voters and include issues of concern to gays and lesbians in their platforms.

The DNC supported gay and lesbian voter mobilization efforts in past elections by providing outreach materials, advertisement and direct mail production templates, surrogate speakers and direct contributions.

The DNC advocates for equality for gay men and lesbians within the Democratic Party and in American life. The DNC supports President Clinton and Vice President Gore's endorsement of the Employment Non-Discrimination Act and stronger federal Hate Crimes legislation. Under current DNC leadership the National Committee has extended domestic partnership benefits to its employees and most recently passed a rule to DNC bylaws calling for state Democratic parties to reach out to local gay and lesbian Democrats to become delegates to the 2000 Democratic National Convention.

Subject:FINAL CLEARANCE -- Draft House Full Committee Letter on FY00 DC Appropriations Bill

Attached below for your clearance is the final draft letter to the House Appropriations Committee on the FY00 DC Appropriations Bill. The House Full Committee mark-up is scheduled for Tues., July 20. Appreciate your sign-off or comments no later than 3:00PM Today. Thank you!

DRAFT NOT FOR RELEASE

The Honorable C.W. Bill Young
Chairman
Committee on Appropriations
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This purpose of this letter is to provide the Administration's views on the District of Columbia Appropriations Bill, FY 2000, as reported by the House Subcommittee. As the Committee develops its version of the bill, your consideration of the Administration's views would be appreciated.

While the Administration appreciates the support of the Subcommittee in developing a bill that provides requested funding for the Administration ,s priorities, we are deeply concerned about a number of provisions included in the Subcommittee bill that would seriously undermine local control. The Administration views the following objectionable provisions as unwarranted intrusions into the affairs of the District and would support amendments, if offered, to strike these provisions:

- abAbortion. The Administration strongly opposes a provision of the Subcommittee bill that would prohibit the use of both Federal and District funds to pay for abortions except in those cases where the life of the mother is endangered or in situations involving rape or incest.

- abDomestic Partners Act. The Administration objects to a provision of the bill prohibiting the use of Federal and local funds to implement or enforce the Health Care Benefits Expansion Act of 1992 (the Domestic Partners Act).
- abLimit on Attorneys , Fees in Special Education Cases. The Administration strongly objects to a provision of the Subcommittee bill that would cap the award of plaintiffs' attorneys' fees in cases brought against the District of Columbia Public Schools under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). In the long-run, this provision would be likely to limit the access of the District ,s poor families to quality legal representation, thus impairing their due process protections provided by the IDEA.

Needle Exchange

The Administration strongly opposes the provision of the Subcommittee bill that would prohibit the use of Federal and local funds for needle exchange programs. Such a prohibition is at odds with the scientific evidence which shows that needle exchange programs are effective in slowing the spread of HIV. A ban on the use of local funds is an encroachment on state's rights, and may seriously disrupt current HIV prevention efforts by closing existing programs.

Resident Tuition Support

The Administration appreciates and strongly supports the Subcommittee ,s inclusion of funding for a tuition assistance program for District of Columbia residents. We will continue to work closely with members of the authorizing committees on a bipartisan and bicameral basis, and with the Mayor, to determine how best to structure and administer the D.C. tuition assistance program.

We look forward to working with the Committee to address our mutual concerns.

Sincerely,

Jacob J. Lew
Director

Identical Letter Sent to The Honorable C. W. Bill Young,

Since the VP's recent conceptual endorsement of domestic partners benefits, Barney has renewed his interest in getting us to support this legislation, which you will recall we took a serious look at in the Spring of 1997. The President announced the following in May (at the same time he announced the UI-ne parents proposal):

Enabling Federal Workers to Take Paid Leave to Care for Sick Family Members. In an effort to set an example for all employers, President Clinton also today will direct the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) to revise its government-wide regulations to allow federal employees to use up to 12 weeks of accrued sick leave each year to care for a spouse, son, daughter, or parent with a "serious health condition," as that term is defined for the purpose of applying the Family and Medical Leave Act. Currently, the amount of sick leave that can be used to care for a family member who is ill is limited to 13 days each year for most federal employees. By enabling federal workers to use more of the sick leave they have earned, according to conditions established by the FMLA, this measure will remove a significant barrier to caring for an ill family member.

The gay and lesbian community is pushing the Administration to write the regs in such a way as to enable federal agencies the flexibility to allow them to define "family member" to include a domestic partner. My view is that if it's doable in a non-obvious way, we should do so. I have good paper on this from the Human Rights Campaign (as well as a copy of the NPRM), which I will share with you in advance of any meeting on the subject. I'll also be sure to attend.
