Re: David M. Winfield

Dear Ms. Ewing:

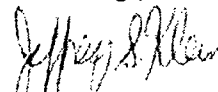

Dave Winfield has asked that I respond on his behalf to the invitation extended by Eli Segal in his May 7, 1993 letter. Dave is currently in California with the Minnesota Twins and apologizes for being unable to respond personally.

Mr. Winfield would be pleased to attend the meeting to discuss the President's National Service Program, and he is pleased to lend his support to the President's efforts.

The information you requested for clearance purposes is as follows: David Mark Winfield, born October 3, 1951; Social Security No.: (b)(6)

Dave looks forward to his meeting with President Clinton and Mr. Segal, and he asked that you pass along to them his thanks and appreciation for this invitation.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey S. Klein

Dear Mr. Segal:

It was a pleasure meeting you recently at the White House regarding Riddick Bowe's involvement with your National Education Program.

As we discussed, "The Champ" is sensitive to the needs of our nation's children and has committed to help.

I will be handling this project and would appreciate any information on future plans. We're enthusiastic about working with you and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

RE: WAYNE GRETZKY

Thank you for your letter of May 7th directed to Wayne Gretzky. Wayne is very positive to the idea of assisting President Clinton in any of his new and most worthwhile projects. To this end, Wayne was optimistic that his hockey schedule would permit him to visit the White House on May 20th, in between Stanley Cup playoff games.

Unfortunately, with the new NHL playoff scheduling, it will not be possible for Wayne to attend The White House to discuss the President's national service program, and the "Summer of Service."

We hope that an opportunity will arise once Wayne's hockey commitments end this season. Please call us at that time - or earlier if the President and First Lady would like to attend a Stanley Cup playoff game as Wayne Gretzky's guests.

Best wishes with the national service program, Eli.

Sincerely,

Michael Barnett

RE: WAYNE GRETZKY

Thank you for the information presented in your letter of May 7th. We've passed along all of your correspondence to Wayne Gretzky for his review.

While Wayne and the Los Angeles Kings remain active in the current Stanley Cup Playoffs, it may be difficult for the writer to speak to Wayne on this matter. On the occasion on which I did discuss this invitation with Wayne, he was positive to the idea of assisting President Clinton.

Please call me on Friday morning in my office. At that time, I hope to have a more definitive answer from Wayne.

Thank you once again.

Good afternoon. My name is Karen Ewing, and I would like to welcome you to the White House.

We are delighted that you have taken the time to come here today to discuss our national service initiative, including our Summer of Service program which Phil Caplan and Major Gordon will present to you later.

I heard on the radio last night, "you're at your best when you're helping someone else." This is essentially why we are here today: to discuss the President's vision of national service which we believe embodies the best of America. And now, I would like to introduce to you someone who truly represents the best of America - Eli Segal. Eli is Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of National Service. He was Chief of Staff during the campaign and formerly the publisher of GAMES magazine and "Bits and Pieces," a direct mail order catalogue.

It is my pleasure to present Eli Segal who will talk with you about our national service legislation.

Mr. Ron Simon

Dear Ron:

Thank you for considering the invitation to meet with Eli Segal, Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of National Service, on May 20, 1993.

We hope to brief Greg Olsen and others on the President's National Service program as well as the pilot summer program called "Summer of Service." We have requested a meeting with the President and expect to hear soon.

"Summer of Service" is an exciting national service program that involves 1,500 young people (ages 17-25) in community service projects around the country aimed at the needs of at-risk children. In short, the meeting will be a chance to learn more about the President's service programs and discuss ways for Greg to get involved this summer.

We envision that Greg, along with many other sports and Hollywood celebrities, would either attend the national training week in California, work with the kids in the service projects, or possibly be available for media activities like public service announcements.

We are in the final planning stages, and would like to kick off the effort at the May 20th meeting. Our list in formation of a core group of athletes includes: Riddick Bowe, Thomas Hearn, Eric Davis, Larry Bird, Pete Sampras, and Nick Lowery.

I hope this is helpful and fills in some of the details. If you have further questions, please do not hesitate to call me at 202-456-6444.

Sincerely,

Karen D. Ewing

MEMORANDUM FOR ELI J. SEGAL

FROM: KAREN D. EWING KDE

SUBJECT: May 20 Meeting with Athletes

I have sent a scheduling request to Marcia Hale today. Dawn Friedkin told me that they are waiting to hear from another group on that day (possibly astronauts). We need a firm commitment for Thursday, May 20 which is just two weeks away. The athletes planning to come to the meeting are expecting to meet with the President (who has not met with them since before the election). Many of these people campaigned vigorously for him and need to be thanked.

I have attached a list of our core working group of athletes who are willing to work with the young people this summer on their projects and are willing to participate in the training and leadership week in June in whatever role we need.

These athletes (and Hammer) are currently involved in community service projects in their neighborhoods and across America, including paying the costs for numerous teenagers to go to college each year in exchange for community service and staying out of gangs and off drugs.

Eli, I urge you to talk with Marcia to make sure the President will be able to spend 15 minutes with these people on May 20 in the Oval Office. It can be anytime between two o'clock and four o'clock.

Thanks for your consideration.

MEMORANDUM FOR ELI J. SEGAL

FROM: KAREN D. EWING KDE

SUBJECT: Athletes Meeting with the President on May 20

The scheduling office approved our "athletes meeting" scheduling request for "normal photo-op time" on Thursday, May 20. Normal photo-op time is 4:00 - 5:00 p.m. Consequently, the pre-meeting in the Roosevelt Room is scheduled for 3:00 p.m.

I now find out that an American Federation of Teachers reception has been scheduled on May 20 from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m. Therefore, photo-ops are being scheduled for 5:00 - 6:00 p.m. that day. I'm guessing that the President probably will not arrive for the first photo-op until 5:30 p.m.

It is unrealistic to think that we can entertain these athletes for 2.5 hours or until the President arrives.

We have several options:

- 1) The President stops by the Roosevelt Room before going to the AFT Reception for 10-15 minutes (4:00 - 4:15).
- 2) The President stops by the Roosevelt Room anytime during our meeting between 3:00 - 4:00 p.m.
- 2) Request that we are the first photo-op after the AFT reception at 5:00 p.m. (which will require changing our meeting to begin at 3:45 p.m.)

Obviously, Phil Caplan and I strongly recommend option one or two. Another caveat in this mix is the fact that Riddick Bowe's weigh-in (televised live from D.C.) begins at 6:00 p.m. You should also know that Riddick will be running with the President on Tuesday, May 18.

Re: "Summer of Service" Program

Dear Mr. Segal:

Karl A. Malone has requested me to respond to your May 7, 1993 letter, inviting him to discuss President Clinton's national service program. Mr. Malone thanks you for the invitation. However, due to previous commitments, Mr. Malone will not be able to attend the May 20, 1993 meeting, and must regretfully decline the invitation. However, he would be pleased to participate in President Clinton's program on a local level, here in Utah.

Please contact me if we can be of assistance, and once again, thank you for the invitation.

Dear Mr. Segal:

Thank you for a wonderful, and most interesting afternoon yesterday. The Summer of Service program that you and your colleagues outlined is very exciting and a great start to helping communities throughout the country.

As I expressed to Karen, I can arrange for Cal Ripken, Jr. to tape public service announcements to promote the Summer of Service and the National Service Initiative. His in-season schedule will allow for a taping during a Baltimore Oriole home stand. The team is in Baltimore from June 22 through June 30 and with advance notice, I can schedule a taping for one of those days. Once you have determined if this is something that you would like Cal to participate in, please call me and we can discuss how to proceed.

Again, many thanks for an inspiring, and fun, afternoon.

Los Angeles, CA 90069

Dear Mr. Jackson:

I would like to invite you to the White House on Thursday, May 20 to discuss the President's national service program and how you can be involved. Following our meeting, which will begin at 3:00 p.m. in the Roosevelt Room, we will meet with President Clinton in the Oval Office.

The national service initiative stems from the President's commitment to create a program whereby all Americans are given the chance to expand their educational opportunities while helping to rebuild their communities.

As a precursor to this larger national service effort, the President has called for a "Summer of Service" program from mid-June through August to show what national service can accomplish and to develop a corps of young leaders for future national service efforts.

Because of the significant contributions you have made in the service arena, we hope you will help us carry the President's message during the summer program.

Please respond to Karen Ewing in my office by Monday, May 17 so you can attend and learn more about our plans. She will need your full name, date of birth and social security number for clearance purposes as you will be meeting the President.

I look forward to meeting you on May 20 and working with you throughout the summer. I believe you will have a rewarding and gratifying experience working with us.

Best regards,

Eli J. Segal
Assistant to the President and
Director of National Service

Dear Mr. Lasorda:

I would like to invite you to the White House on Thursday, May 20 to discuss the President's national service program and how you can be involved. Following our meeting, which will begin at 3:00 p.m., we will meet with President Clinton in the Oval Office.

The national service initiative stems from the President's commitment to create a program whereby all Americans are given the chance to expand their educational opportunities while helping to rebuild their communities.

As a precursor to this larger national service effort, the President has called for a "Summer of Service" program from mid-June through August to show what national service can accomplish and to develop a corps of young leaders for future national service efforts.

Because of the significant contributions you have made in the service arena, we hope you will help us carry the President's message during the summer program.

Please respond to Karen Ewing in my office by Monday, May 17 so you can attend and learn more about our plans. She will need your full name, date of birth and social security number for clearance purposes as you will be meeting the President.

I look forward to meeting you on May 20 and working with you throughout the summer. I believe you will have a rewarding and gratifying experience working with us.

Best regards,

Eli J. Segal
Assistant to the President and
Director of National Service

As a precursor to this larger national service effort, the President has called for a "Summer of Service" program from mid-June through August to show what national service can accomplish and to develop a corps of young leaders for future national service efforts.

Because of the significant contributions you have made in the service arena, we hope you will help us carry the President's message during the summer program.

Please respond to Karen Ewing in my office by Monday, May 17 so you can attend and learn more about our plans. She will need your full name, date of birth and social security number for clearance purposes as you will be meeting the President.

I look forward to meeting you on May 20 and working with you throughout the summer. I believe you will have a rewarding and gratifying experience working with us.

Dear Ms. Adkins:

Pursuant to Sinbad's meeting on May 20 with President Clinton and Eli Segal, the Director of National Service, I am extremely excited that Sinbad graciously agreed to perform for our Summer of Service participants at the National Training Week.

The Summer of Service (SOS) is a national program which is the kickoff for President Clinton's National Service Initiative. SOS will occur in 10 sites around the country; 1,500 participants between the ages of 17 - 25 will address the needs of children at risk in the areas of education, health, public safety and environmental protection. The program includes a national training week where all participants will be brought together at Treasure Island in San Francisco to receive leadership and service training from June 20 to June 25. This training will culminate with a closing ceremony on June 24. We are anticipating that the President will be attending that same evening, and we'd like Sinbad to perform for 20 to 30 minutes immediately following the President's speech, or at approximately 8:45 p.m.

I am absolutely delighted about the prospect of having Sinbad take part in the President's Summer of Service National Training Week. This will be a rewarding experience for the participants as they prepare to rebuild our nation's communities. Please contact me or Lara Bergthold at 202-456-6444 so that we can further arrange Sinbad's attendance at this event. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Newman:

Pursuant to your meeting on March 30 with Eli Segal, the Director of National Service, I am extremely excited about Riddick Bowe's participation with our Summer of Service participants at the National Training Week.

As you know, the Summer of Service (SOS) is a national program which is the kickoff for President Clinton's National Service Initiative. SOS will occur in 10 sites around the country; 1,500 participants between the ages of 17 - 25 will address the needs of children at risk in the areas of education, health, public safety and environmental protection. The program includes a national training week where all participants will be brought together at Treasure Island in San Francisco to receive leadership and service training from June 20 to June 25. During the week, we are sending the participants to the San Francisco and Oakland communities to perform a day of service at one of five locations. We would like Riddick to go with the participants on either June 22 or June 23 to one of these sites and work with them side-by-side. The day would include the following:

DATE (1993)	EVENT	PLACE
Day prior	Fly to San Francisco Briefed at Treasure Island
June 22 or 23
0600	Early breakfast with participants	Treasure Island
0730	Depart for service projects	Treasure Island
0900-1800	Service projects at one of five sites	Oakland and San Fran

I am absolutely delighted about the prospect of having Riddick take part in the President's Summer of Service National Training Week. This will be a rewarding experience for the participants as they prepare to rebuild our nation's communities. I will follow up with your office if he and you can attend this event. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mr. Eli J. Segal
Assistant to the President and Director of National Service
The White House
Room 145 - OEOb
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Segal:

Dave Winfield was delighted to receive your invitation to meet on May 20th re: Summer Jobs and other youth-related issues. As you may know, he has been proactive in the health and education of our nation's youth for over 20 years.

Dave has worked closely with previous administrations in attempt to "clue them in," if you will, and considers the Clinton/Gore administration the most important positive change of our time.

I've enclosed some historical information on Dave and the Foundation for your review. We stand ready to assist you in any capacity -- from substance abuse prevention to education and literacy and positive alternatives for the summer.

Sincerely,

Clinton Presidential Records Digital Records Marker

"...The (TIA) Kit was found to be superb. It portrays a clear "no-use" message in a positive manner." -Louis W. Sullivan, Secretary, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services

"...Teachers sometimes feel overwhelmed by the effect of drugs on their kids. They want to help their kids stay off of drugs, they want to help them survive life in homes dominated by addicted parents or neighbors... TURN IT AROUND gives teachers a new and important weapon in the war against drugs."

-Sandra Feldman, President, United Federation of Teachers

"Schools are in desperate need of quality resource materials. I applaud the integrity and thoughtfulness of your Substance Abuse Prevention Kit and believe it will be a valuable tool for thousands of classroom teachers and parents who are concerned about our kids." -Rick R. Little, Chairman of the Board and Founder, Quest International

"Xerox is committed to helping our youth reach their full potential, which is why we endorse and support TURN IT AROUND. Rather than seek out simple solutions, it instills and strengthens fundamental values that will last a lifetime."

-Robert H. Gudger, Vice President, Xerox Foundation

We are proud to sponsor TURN IT AROUND Workshops at our facilities throughout the nation because they are an effective means of reaching communities and educators alike." -Steven M. Darlen, Vice President, Worldwide Personnel, Merck & Co., Inc.

"Children as young as ten are experimenting with drugs. It's the most tragic problem facing our youth and society and the need for early intervention is clear.

With properly developed lifeskills, we can keep our kids on track. TURN IT AROUND helps develop the fundamental areas educators and childcare specialists have determined will help our kids become healthy and successful adults."

Dave Winfield

The Winfield Foundation's TURN IT AROUND Kit is targeted to youngsters ages 8-12. It is a multi-media tool that fosters the development of SELF-ESTEEM, DECISION-MAKING, GOAL-SETTING, TRUST and POSITIVE ALTERNATIVES.

The Kit includes:

19-MINUTE MOTIVATIONAL VIDEO

Hosted by Dave Winfield, the video features rappers Run/DMC, Malcolm-Jamal Warner, actress Marlee Matlin, Dr. Loretta Long ("Susan" on Sesame Street), Olympic gold medalist Mary Lou Retton, soap opera star Christine Tudor and children from elementary schools throughout the nation.

32-PAGE ACTIVITY GUIDE (with reproducible masters)

Activities emphasize thinking and communication skills and encourage dialogue between students, teachers and parents. Lessons are educational, motivating, entertaining and easily incorporated into the language arts curricula or at after-school programs. Disclosure exercises help identify children "at-risk"

TURN IT AROUND works in all communities regardless of socio-economic or ethnic composition. Although developed specifically to combat substance abuse, lessons can be adapted to deal with other relevant issues such as racial harmony and alternative family structures. The program can be conducted independently or in conjunction with existing prevention strategies.

The Winfield Foundation conducts a full-day "train-the-trainer" workshop for adults and peer leaders who work with children. Facilitated by health and education specialists, the seminar offers a comprehensive look at substance abuse. Participants:

- Analyze how societal factors impact on the use and abuse of drugs and alcohol.
- Provide an historical perspective.
- Understand how self-esteem, decision-making, goal-setting, trusting and positive alternatives will empower our children.
- Identify local community issues and concerns.
- Develop a plan for community mobilization and on-going action.

The workshop provides a forum for community members to network and build a system of resources and contacts. Each participant receives a complimentary TURN IT AROUND Kit, an education handbook and up-to-date information on local resources and drug prevention initiatives.

Workshops can be designed to address specific community needs. We offer seminars on related issues such as alcoholism, AIDS, parent effectiveness, peer leadership, children pre-natally exposed to drugs and gangs. We also provide corporate Employee Assistance Program presentations.

"Only one generation ago, the biggest problems in our schools were gum chewing, littering, cheating and talking during a fire drill. Today, it's drugs, pregnancy, assault, suicide and AIDS. We invite you to join the many communities we've educated, organized and motivated to take charge and TURN IT AROUND."

SAFE AT HOME WINFIELD SIGNS WITH TWINS

Where does one go after a banner year and a dream come true? Some people go to Disneyland, but Dave Winfield is going home. The St. Paul native has signed a two-year deal with two-time World Champion Minnesota Twins.

"To be able to play at home is going to be a thrill," said Winfield. "And it's not like they're giving me a gold watch at retirement time. You're going to get vintage Winfield, both on and off the field."

On the field, he's coming off a season that guys half age can only hope for. Off the field, his work with the Winfield Foundation – which has provided a vast array of community outreach for children in the Twin Cities – continues full-speed ahead.

Our mid-west activities have been coordinated by Foundation vice president Stephen Winfield, Bev Wittgenstein, St. Paul's supervisor of community education, Margaret Ellen Walden, program administrator, Pat Gaustad, retired Parks & Recreation leader (and mentor of seemingly everyone in St. Paul) and a host of community leaders who have volunteered their time and resources.

"We [David and I] have always been actively involved in community work, from way back when we were kids," said Steve Winfield. "Although [the Foundation] works consistently throughout the country, the area that usually grabs the attention is where David is playing. And now, that's home."

Since 1973, the Foundation has provided baseball pavilions, health clinics, computer training, weight training equipment and, in conjunction with CYET (Center for Youth Employment, a city/school district job placement program) provided summer jobs to willing youngsters in the Twin Cities. Last year, the Foundation debuted its TURN IT AROUND anti-drug program here.

For 19 years, the staple outreach has been the annual Winfield Award for Academic and Athletic Excellence. Ten outstanding high school graduates are honored at a dinner reception and each is given a special cash award to be used toward their continued education.

In 1989, the award was expanded to honor the often unsung hero and backbone of the family: mom. The poignant Arline Winfield Award is presented to a community mother who, by virtue of her loving and nurturing encompasses all the ideas that "mother" evokes.

This year's award banquet is scheduled for June 13th at the St. Paul Expo Center. Tickets are available at Inside Sports (612) 489-5256. For more information, call Bev Wittgenstein at (612) 457-4304.

PIONEER PRESS OFFERS TURN IT AROUND

In light of the success of last year's seminar, the ST. PAUL PIONEER PRESS will once again present TURN IT AROUND in the Twin Cities. Two workshops are scheduled for June.

"Dave's commitment to community is legendary," said senior vice president and marketing director Paul Farrell, "like his baseball career. We are pleased to continue our relationship with both Dave and the Foundation."

The PIONEER PRESS, Minnesota's first newspaper, was founded in 1849 and is one of 29 newspapers published by Knight-Ridder, Inc.

The David M. Winfield Foundation Newsletter

OUR 15TH ANNIVERSARY

The Foundation has traveled with Dave throughout his legendary baseball career.

"Dorothy, I bought 40 tickets to Saturday's game. Round up the kids and we'll treat 'em to a day at the ballpark." With these words, Dave Winfield created an organization dedicated to the health and education of our nation's youth; the first such endeavor by an active athlete.

"From his rookie year in San Diego [1973]," remembers Dorothy Bowen, who met Dave when she took her grandson to a Padres game, "Dave befriended the neighborhood kids. He'd play basketball with them and they'd spend hours talking. Many of these kids couldn't afford tickets to a ballgame. So Dave treated them to a game, hotdogs, souvenirs, the works.

"Well, one game led to another. Then he came up with ideas for healthfairs, holiday celebration dinners, scholarships, sports clinics and a drug program. Unfortunately, he would usually get these ideas and call me at 2:00 a.m. -- the man was absolutely driven!"

With a couple of programs in place, the Foundation was off to a modest start. Its first "official" headquarters was Dorothy's livingroom and its skeleton staff of two was making quite an impression.

"We would get calls from the media and local organizations," says Dorothy. "I'd ask them to hold for the mailroom or the publicity department. We'd get back on the phone and disguise our voices. They'd say they had no idea how large and sophisticated an operation we were."

Dorothy recalls how Dave sometimes got caught up in his own enthusiasm: "He just didn't realize the power of his words. The Foundation was planning to bring 500 kids to the All-Star game at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego. Dave did a television interview the day before and inadvertently invited 'all the kids of San Diego' to attend.

"Over 10,000 showed up -- and Dave brought them all to batting practice! The sponsors brought in more food and it turned out to be the grandest party the Foundation had ever thrown. And to this day, All-Star batting practices are open to the kids because of us."

In 1977, the Winfield Foundation became an official tax-exempt 501(c) (3) charitable organization with programs throughout the U.S. We are celebrating 15 years by going international. As always, Dave makes a full commitment to the community in which he plays. Now a Toronto Blue Jay, the Foundation will launch TURN IT AROUND in Canada. But no matter where the Foundation goes, it makes a lasting contribution.

"I still keep in touch with some of those kids from San Diego," says Dorothy.

"Dave has had such a positive impact on their lives. When the time comes that he's no longer hitting the ball over the fence, he'll still be a hero for what he's done for people."

KRAFT GENERAL FOODS BRINGS FOUNDATION TO CANADA

Kraft General Foods Canada, Inc. and its Maxwell House Coffee brand are pleased to announce that they will bring the first presentation of TURN IT AROUND to Canada. The Workshop will be held at their corporate headquarters.

"We had heard about the success of the program in the States," said Nada Ristich, KGFC's manager of corporate affairs, "and we wanted to make it available for our kids. We are dedicated to helping improve the quality of life. TURN IT AROUND is another investment in our community."

Kraft General Foods is Canada's largest food manufacturer. Maxwell House is Canada's leading coffee brand.

Dear Dave:

Thank you for your telephone call earlier this week. I want to congratulate you on the introduction of your "Turn It Around" Kit. I know of no other individual whose commitment to improving the quality of life for young people is matched more consistently by the products they produce and the effort they invest than you.

Your Foundation's objective to "turn kids on to health and education" is one I share enthusiastically. My staff looks forward to working with you and exploring ways we can work together. I hope the next time you are in town, we can take a few minutes to talk with one another about your work.

You have my sincerest wishes for your continued success.

Cordially,
