Dear Mr. Segal:

Enclosed is a complimentary copy of our new study, Partners for Change: How U.S.-Israel Cooperation Can Benefit America. I hope you will take the time to review it to see the wide range of joint activities that are currently being undertaken in your area of interest as well as many others. Also, I think that you will find additional ideas for innovative Israeli programs in a variety of areas that could be imported for the benefit of Americans.

Thank you for your time and interest.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Segal,

On behalf of everyone at the City Year/Northeastern University Summer of Service, we wish you a resounding "Thank You!" for all of the support and energy you and your office contributed to the 1993 Summer of Service. With the recent signing of the National Service Trust Act, we eagerly look forward to many more "seasons of service," knowing that this summer was the beginning of something tremendously big.

Please accept this plaque as a simple reminder of the 75 young people who helped make this historic time possible by their tireless efforts here in Boston. Best of luck to all of you in the coming months!

Sincerely,

Michael MacCrystall

Dear Mr. Segal:

Thanks so much for addressing our joint ASDC/DNC Executive Committee luncheon in New Mexico. Many of our members were very excited to hear you speak. Your presence was definitely a highlight of our week-end meeting.

I am sending you the box from the New Mexico State Party. Please let me know if we can ever be of assistance and again please accept our gratitude in taking out time of your very busy schedule to be with us at our DNC meeting.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Eli:

Congratulations on your appointment as Head of President-elect Clinton's National Service! I just heard the exciting news from Michael Brown. I would also like to take this opportunity to say that it was a pleasure to meet you on Wednesday morning -- I thoroughly enjoyed our meeting!

I am enclosing a copy of Bruce Springsteen's Nebraska CD. Please check out the last song on the album and listen to the line: "At the end of every hard earned day, people find some reason to believe." We, at Timberland, believe in City Year.

In whatever capacity you serve the American people in this government, whether in an official or unofficial role, please remember belief is hard to come by. Belief needs to be nurtured and belief needs to be supported. Count on us to do our bit and we will look forward to working with you and the administration to do your bit.

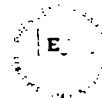

Most sincerely,

Jeffrey B. Swartz

Dear Mr. Segal:

Our congratulations on your appointment as Assistant to the President for National Service. Given the President's commitment to national service, we are sending you a City Volunteer Corps (CVC) T-shirt.

CVC is New York City's national service corps, and the largest urban corps in the United States. CVC was the pioneer in involving youth in human service work, and the model for younger corps that have followed, such as Boston's City Year.

We hope that you will wear this CVC T-shirt as we enter a new era of excellence in government and as a sign of the extraordinary energy that youth are giving to their country through national service.

Sincerely,

Toni Schmiegelow

Dear Mr. Segal:

I am pleased to enclose these calendars at the suggestion of Norma Asnes, a member of our Board of Governors.

A joint product of Aetna Life & Casualty and the Joint Center for Political and Economic Studies health policy program, these calendars highlight African-Americans in medicine and illuminate some of the pressing health concerns facing our nation's African-American community today.

By the way, Norma specifically requested that you and Karen Ewing each keep one calendar, before distributing the others. If you would like additional calendars or information on our health policy program, please do not hesitate to give us or Norma a call.

Sincerely,

Eddie N. Williams

Dear Eli:

As you assume your new responsibilities, I wanted to send you our best wishes and tell you how excited we are about your appointment.

In commemoration of the Presidential inauguration, we are pleased to present you with the enclosed plaque, which encases an actual piece of carpet from the podium from which President Clinton and Vice President Gore accepted their nominations. AJ Contracting is proud to have provided construction management services at Madison Square Garden for the 1992 Democratic National Convention.

In the challenging days ahead, we want you to know that our thoughts and prayers are with you, President Clinton, Vice President Gore and your colleagues.

Dear Eli:

It was good to meet you last Thursday at the Board Meeting of the Points of Light Foundation, where I serve as counsel. At the time, I said that I would send you a copy of my book, Mentors: Making A Difference In Our Public Schools.

Two copies of the books are enclosed. One is for your own library. The other, pursuant to The Wall Street Journal review of January 4, which is also enclosed, is for the President. As you will see, I strongly urge private citizen participation in the public schools and the Journal reviewer thought that this was an approach which might appeal to the President. One of the citizens profiled is Hillary Rodham Clinton. My profiles run the gambit from one to one mentoring to reform movements which have changed entire cities and states.

Thanks for your interest. I know that our public schools can be positively changed if we can only awaken America's grass roots.

All the best.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas W. Evans

Dear Mr. Segal:

It was such a great pleasure meeting you recently. Naturally, when I learned you are from Brooklyn I knew I had to share the book When Brooklyn Was The World with you.

Eli, thank you for taking such good care of my daughter. Please don't hesitate to call me if I can ever be of any assistance to you.

Again, it was nice to meet you. Enjoy the book.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE
COLLEGE GUIDE
EDUCATION FOR A BETTER WORLD

March 17, 1993

Eli Segal, Director
Office of National Service
OEEB Rm 145
Washington DC 20500

Dear Mr. Segal,

Enclosed is my wonderful new book,
MAKING A DIFFERENCE COLLEGE GUIDE,
EDUCATION FOR A BETTER WORLD

The focus of the book is rather self-evident. It is geared towards Tikkun Olam - repairing the world with a spirit of service. One of the main threads which runs through the book is the idea of using one's college education as a beginning of a life of service (although not necessarily low-paying service.) The question of community service is addressed often in the school descriptions. Indeed, a required program of community service was one of the features I was looking for when choosing schools for inclusion.

While this doesn't dovetail 100% with what you are doing there, the book is certainly complementary to the idealism which President Clinton is re-invigorating among students.

I am having a heck of a time publicizing this book. To read it is to love it, but not enough people know about it. A brief quote - perhaps two or three lines from you (or President Clinton?) would be of great help.

My daughter just graduated from Smith College - I found her education so out of touch with the needs of both students and world that it is embarrassing. Hopefully, the higher the profile of this book, the more institutional change can be encouraged as well.

If you get the Chronicle of Higher Education, a letter about my book is in the current issue.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Miriam Weinstein

Dear Eli:

1992 was a great year for the Democratic Party and for those of us at the National Education Association. Working together, we were able to elect Bill Clinton as our President and end the 12 long years of Republican rule. We were proud to be a part of this important victory and we look forward to working with you on the many challenges that lie ahead as we strive to make America better and head this country in the right direction.

Please accept the enclosed paperweight as our thank you and a reminder of what we can achieve if we work together.

Sincerely,
