NORMAN LEAR

March 24, 1993

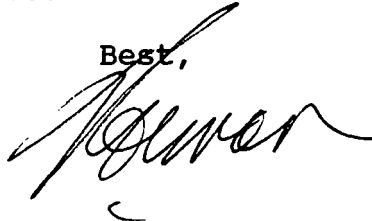

Dear Eli:

It was good to see you last week. Jim and I could not have been more appreciative of the time and attention you gave us.

The day's worth of meetings in Washington were encouraging, and we are confident there will be a summit on institutional corporate values combined with our annual BET awards next October. Whether it takes place in Washington or not will be determined along with a thousand other details. Wherever it takes place, it is our hope that the summit can inspire a new national conversation on values in business.

I would like to keep you posted as things develop, and thanks again for your time and interest.

Best,

NL:gd
