Summary of Conclusions

Sanctions Issues

1. The U.S. should table an omnibus sanctions resolution in the UN Security Council encompassing sanctions tightening in the face of the Bosnian Serbs' rejection of the Contact Group proposal, sanctions easing in the event of Bosnian Serb acceptance of the Contact Group proposal, and sanctions easing in the context of acceptance by Milosevic of international monitors to verify a permanent cut-off of support for the Bosnian Serbs. This may be the most effective way of gaining Russian support for sanctions-tightening provisions. The draft will be shown first to the Russians and then to other Contact Group partners prior to tabling in New York. Action: OVP to prepare draft UNSC resolution by as soon as possible.

2. On sanctions tightening, we should press the British on the one serious issue unresolved in August 9 bilateral negotiations, blocking access to FRY funds even for humanitarian purposes. Action: OVP and State to coordinate demarches to the British.

3. On sanctions easing in the context of a Bosnia settlement, the five-stage approach in the OVP memorandum of August 9 was reaffirmed. The U.S. will hold firm in linking the third stage of sanctions suspension (strategic trade sanctions) to a modus vivendi in the Krajina; if the Russians continue to object, we will be prepared to limit the UN Security Council resolution to the first two stages of sanctions suspension, but we will maintain our position on the Krajina linkage. On cooperation with the War Crimes Tribunal, we will not insist on an explicit linkage to any of the first four stages of sanctions easing, but make reintegration of Serbia into the world community (including IFI assistance) contingent upon progress with the Tribunal. Similarly, on compliance with all other relevant UNSC resolutions, we will include hortatory language but not draw any explicit linkages to the sanctions-easing program.

4. On sanctions easing in response to a Milosevic cut-off of the Bosnian Serbs, international monitoring of the Serbian-Bosnian border is essential to verify Serbian performance, and sanctions relief can only be provided on that basis. The four-stage approach to sanctions easing in the OVP memorandum will be modified to raise the thresholds so that Milosevic would get no sanctions relief until the monitors were actually deployed. This revised plan will be integrated into the omnibus sanctions resolution cited above. Action: OVP and State to prepare revised sanctions-easing plan.

Exclusion Zone Enforcement

5. Principals will continue to press their UK and other NATO counterparts on the need for further NATO air strikes in response to continuing Serb violations of the Sarajevo and Gorazde exclusion zones. Ambassador Albright will in parallel press the UN on the need for broader targeting of Serb assets than occurred on August 5 in response to future Serb violations.

6. The U.S. should press for completion by the end of August of the planning for UNPROFOR redeployment/withdrawal that was agreed at the July 30 Contact Group Ministerial as the prerequisite to strict enforcement and extension of exclusion zones. That planning should include the option of redeployment to Sarajevo as well as withdrawal. Action: JCS to follow-up.

Macedonia

7. Planning should be completed on a concept for expanding UNPROFOR/Macedonia, but a decision is not needed at this time. Action: IWG complete options paper for future PC meeting.
