THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary
(Merida, Yucatan, Mexico)

For Immediate Release February 15, 1999

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
IN PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

Hacienda Temozon
Merida, Yucatan, Mexico

Q Mr. President, do you feel vindicated by the Senate vote? And how do you think you will be able to overcome any damage that was caused in your relations with Republican leaders in Congress?

THE PRESIDENT: Well, I have, really, nothing to add to what I said on Friday about that. I think this is a time for reconciliation and renewal. I think what we have to do is to serve the American people. And if we keep that in mind I think everything will be fine.

We can't resolve the challenges of Social Security and Medicare, education, these other things; we can't keep the international economy going unless we have a level of cooperation. I'm encouraged that we have a number of Republican members of Congress on this trip, and I intend to do exactly what I said I'd do last Friday. And I think if everybody just keeps our eye on the ball -- which is that we are here to serve the public, and not the other way around -- I think we'll be fine.

Q Mr. President, do you have any problems with the system the United States has for certifying drug cooperation?

THE PRESIDENT: Well, first of all, it is the law of the land, and the Secretary of State sometime in the next few weeks will have to make a recommendation. I think the question is how can we do better to deal with the drug problem. President Zedillo said it's his number one national security problem. Neither country has won the drug war. And the fundamental question is are we better off fighting it together or separately, and perhaps sometimes at odds with one another.

Under General McCaffrey, who's here, we put in place a very aggressive antidrug strategy. Finally, we've got a lot of the indicators going in the right direction in the United States.

BOTTOM EVEN

And cooperation with Mexico has clearly improved under President Zedillo's leadership. The issue is what is most likely to free our children of this scourge in the new century, and that's what will guide my decisions.

Thank you all.

Q Have you encouraged Mrs. Clinton to run for the Senate, sir?
What have you said to her?

THE PRESIDENT: People in New York started calling her. I don't think it had ever occurred to her before a lot of people started calling and asking her to do it. I think she would be terrific in the Senate. But that's a decision that she'll have to make. And for reasons I'm sure you'll understand, she hasn't had anything like adequate time to talk to the people who think she should do this, much less people who think perhaps she shouldn't. I mean, she just hasn't had time to deal with this.

But it's her decision to make. I will support whatever decision she makes enthusiastically. She has a lot of other opportunities for public service that will be out there, and she and I both would like to continue to be useful in public affairs when we leave office. But it's a decision she'll have to make. She'd be great if she did it, but she hasn't had anything like the requisite amount of time to talk to people and to assess it, and I'm sure that everyone will understand and appreciate that.

Thank you.

END

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary
(Merida, Yucatan, Mexico)

For Immediate Release February 15, 1999

FACT SHEET

U.S.-Mexico Economic Cooperation:
New Financing Agreement to Support U.S. Exports to Mexico

The Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank) and the Ministry of Finance and Public Credit of Mexico today signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) under which Ex-Im Bank will provide up to $4 billion in export financing over the next two years to support Mexico,s purchase of U.S. goods and services. The financing, which will include Ex-Im bank loans, loan guarantees, and export credit insurance, aims to accomplish the following:

Meet Mexican public and private sector demand for credit to purchase raw materials, capital equipment, aircraft, and other U.S. products and services;

Provide financing for the development of infrastructure projects in Mexico; and Create and sustain U.S. jobs in communities across the country by promoting U.S. exports.

The MOU reflects the importance the United States places on our economic partnership with Mexico and our mutual interest in expanding commercial trade relations. Increased trade supports economic growth and job creation in both countries.

Mexico has historically represented Ex-Im Bank,s largest foreign market and is currently Ex-Im Bank,s single largest customer with $1.6 billion in authorized financing for fiscal year 1998. Ex-Im Bank is an independent U.S. government agency that assists in financing the export of U.S. goods and services. Ex-Im Bank and Mexico have been trade partners since 1934.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

Embargoed until 2:00 PM EST February 16, 1999

PRESIDENT CLINTON PROPOSES NEARLY $1 BILLION PACKAGE IN DISASTER ASSISTANCE; AID WILL HELP CENTRAL AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN REBUILD AFTER HURRICANES MITCH AND GEORGES

President Clinton today proposed $956 million in funding for disaster assistance in the wake of Hurricane Mitch and Hurricane Georges, which hit the Central American nations of Honduras, Nicaragua, El Salvador, and Guatemala, along with Haiti, the Dominican Republic, and other Caribbean nations, in the fall of 1998. The additional funding, announced today by First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton at the White House, brings total United States assistance to these countries to more than $1.2 billion.

In his letter of transmittal to Congress, the President said, "In light of the close consultation we have had, and the bipartisan recognition that the needs for reconstruction are pressing, I urge the Congress to act quickly to restore hope to this region and help our neighbors return to the path of democracy and economic growth."

Central America's full recovery from the storms are clearly in the U.S. national interest. Over the past decade, the region has made tremendous strides toward settling conflicts, strengthening democracy, promoting human rights, opening economies, and alleviating poverty. The economic destruction and dislocation caused by the hurricanes threatens to undermine these achievements. Disaster assistance to our Central American partners will ensure that their transformation continues.

Hurricane Mitch was the worst natural disaster ever to strike the Western Hemisphere. It caused the deaths of more than 9,000 people, left millions homeless, and resulted in more than $8.5 billion in damages to homes, hospitals, schools, roads, farms and businesses throughout the region. Even today, hundreds of thousands of Central Americans cannot return to their homes while the economy, largely dependent on agriculture, has been severely damaged.

To date, the United States government has provided more than $300 million in humanitarian relief aid to provide food, medicine, emergency shelter, and agricultural assistance through civilian relief workers and US military personnel, while also helping to clear roads and install bridges. Responding immediately to the disasters, the Agency for International Development (USAID), the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Defense were responsible for delivering urgently needed relief supplies to millions of people.

More than 5,000 U.S. military personnel have been working side by side with our Central American neighbors to help rebuild these nations and restore hope to the region.

The President's proposal will provide funding for reconstruction and restoration of local economies, prevention efforts to avoid future losses through environmental management and disaster mitigation, and debt relief. It will repay USAID and the Department of Defense for funds already spent in immediate response to the hurricanes. This proposal also will provide $80 million to the Department of Justice's Immigration and Naturalization Service to support policies to delay deportation to these countries and for other costs related to these disasters.

This proposal also allocates $10 million to Colombia to help address needs arising from its recent earthquake, focusing assistance on health, housing and schools.

Central American Nations

More than a dozen Cabinet agencies will be involved in the relief efforts for Central America. For example, the Department of Health and Human Services will continue to take active measures to advance public health, and the Department of Agriculture will assist with farming recovery and land use planning. Funds in this package for the Central American nations hit by Hurricane Mitch will provide assistance as follows:

Reconstruction Assistance ($ 613 million):

ú Restore clean water and sanitation systems and preserve public health, including:

- < Repairing over 700 damaged health clinics to serve at least 4 million people;
- < Providing clean water and sanitation services for more than 7 million people;
- < Stemming the spread of contagious diseases through health surveillance and prevention for more than 17 million people.

ú Help rebuild housing, schools, and roads, including:

- < Providing temporary shelter for 20,000 people;
- < Building 6,400 new housing units;
- < Establishing 6,000 temporary "open-air" schools and repair more than 1700 schools.

ú Restore agriculture, rebuild economies and create jobs, including:

- < Restoring agricultural production through technical assistance and delivery of seeds, fertilizer, and tools to small farmers;
- < Providing over 70,000 micro-enterprise loans;
- < Providing credit subsidy to the U.S. Export-Import Bank for short and medium term trade credits for imports of essential goods from the US
- < Rebuilding roads and bridges;
- < Funding business outreach for overseas private investment through Overseas Private Investment Corporation.

Help local governments to manage the crisis with advice and assistance in reconstruction and in the management of funding to ensure that assistance is used efficiently and serves its intended goal.

-more-

Debt Relief: In order to enable Central American nations to concentrate on rebuilding their economies, this proposal would provide for debt relief with:

A deferral by the U.S. of all bilateral debt service requirements for the next two years ($54 million);

An increase in forgiveness of $19 million of Nicaragua's bilateral debt (for a total of 90%, or $75 million) and of $26 million of Honduras, (for a total of two-thirds, or $103 million) through agreement with other nations in The Paris Club; and

A contribution by the U.S. of $25 million to a multi-nation fund to cover debt service obligations of Nicaragua and Honduras to international financial institutions during the deferral period. This fund, the Central America Emergency Trust Fund, will be sponsored by the World Bank.

Caribbean Nations

Included in this reconstruction funding is the assistance of $50 million to the Dominican Republic, Haiti, and the Eastern Caribbean, which collectively suffered more than $1.5 billion in damage from Hurricane Georges. This assistance will be concentrated in the areas of housing, health, and economic revitalization.

Environmental Management and Disaster Mitigation ($64 million):

Assist farmers to use methods that are less likely to result in soil erosion, which would reduce the damage from future hurricanes, and will encourage farmers to shift to more productive crops.

Help local governments establish land use planning systems to mitigate effects of future hurricanes and protect key ecosystems.

Crisis Corps

Financing will also be provided for the expanded effort by the U.S. National Guard and Reserve to rebuild schools and clinics in the four Central American countries and the Dominican Republic and to deploy 220 Peace Corps volunteers drawn primarily from the new "Crisis Corps" of those who formerly served in the Peace Corps and who now are pitching in to provide short-term assistance.

HURRICANE MITCH: THE UNITED STATES RESPONDS TO CENTRAL AMERICA
February 16, 1999

Following their visits to Central America in the aftermath of Hurricane Mitch, the First Lady and Mrs. Gore today announced the President's supplemental package of nearly $1 billion in emergency disaster assistance. The supplemental package, which was developed in close bipartisan consultation with the Congress, will be directed primarily to help the Central American nations cope and rebuild after Hurricane Mitch, the worst natural disaster in their history.

The United States responded immediately after the Hurricane hit late last October, and has continued to maintain these efforts in the months that have followed. To date, the United States has already provided $300 million in aid. U.S. military and civilian agencies have played a critical role, working with the governments of Honduras, Nicaragua, El Salvador and Costa Rica and a number of international and local non-governmental organizations to help provide food, water and relief supplies; to distribute seeds and tools; to repair water systems and road and bridge networks; and to provide medical assistance.

Key components of U.S. assistance to date are:

RELIEF

In the immediate aftermath of the hurricane, President Clinton directed personnel and resources from the military and civilian agencies of the U.S. government to support relief and rehabilitation efforts in Central America.

U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)

USAID has provided almost $92 million in food and other relief assistance.

On February 11, USAID provided $4.1 million to the International Organization for Migration to construct and administer ten transitional shelters for displaced people in Honduras. This assistance will provide alternative shelter to an estimated 25,000 people living temporarily in schools, allowing the schools to open by March 1.

This new assistance is in addition to $30 million from USAID's Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance to provide health care, repair water and sanitation systems, restore agricultural production and support road rehabilitation activities. The funds were also used to transport and deliver a variety of relief commodities including shelter materials, water containers and blankets.

USAID has provided $52 million in food aid, meeting 50 percent of the overall food needs. Under the PL 480 Title II food aid program, USAID's Office of Food for Peace (FFP) will provide 60,000 metric tons of food to 800,000 Hondurans through next summer, 19,700 metric tons of food to 300,000 Nicaraguans for six months and 7,600 metric tons of food for 60,000 Guatemalans for six months. The total food allocation also includes a $1 million contribution to the World Food Program's appeal for El Salvador.

A grant of $5 million has helped revitalize small businesses impacted by the hurricane. Joined with a $12 million contribution from the Inter-American Development Bank, these funds will rebuild workplaces, reestablish inventories and generate employment.

U.S. Department of Defense

The Department of Defense has spent nearly $150 million to support relief and rehabilitation efforts in Central America.

At the height of the relief effort, 5,300 military personnel were in Central America, representing the four armed services and their reserve components. Today, Joint Task Force Commanders in Honduras and El Salvador remain active in the region, coordinating the U.S. military response. U.S. Active Duty, Reserve and National Guard forces will be present in Central America through September to build schools and clinics, drill wells and repair additional roads and bridges, as part of an engineer and medical field training exercise called New Horizons.

Military personnel rescued more than one thousand people trapped by flood waters and provided medical care and immunizations to over 35,000 people. They cleared major roads and bypasses, as well as erecting prefabricated bridges. Military personnel also repaired medical clinics and schools, and provided communities with safe drinking water by building wells.

Military aircraft, including 53 helicopters were deployed throughout the region to assist distribution and delivered more than 3.2 million pounds of food and more than 500,000 gallons of water.

DoD transported to the region almost 8 million pounds of food, clothing, medicine and other relief items donated by American citizens.

U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA)

USDA is providing food aid and concessional loans, valued at $63 million.

USDA is delivering 120,000 metric tons of wheat for Honduras and Nicaragua, 60,000 metric tons of wheat for Guatemala and El Salvador and 50,000 metric tons of corn for the four countries. It will also provide $20 million in grants to Honduras and Nicaragua for the purchase of beans, vegetable oil, rice, and other basic commodities; and $10 million in Title I concessional loans for food purchases for El Salvador and Guatemala.

RECONSTRUCTION

USAID has already identified an initial $120 million within its own budget to support reconstruction efforts in Central America by reprogramming existing food and other funding and reallocating recently appropriated fiscal year 1999 assistance. These funds will help rehabilitate transportation infrastructure, restore public utilities, support health care, reestablish crop and livestock production and revitalize the economic sector. Of this, USAID will channel

$66.6 million to programs in Honduras, $32.4 million for reconstruction in Nicaragua, $16.0 million for El Salvador and $5 million for Guatemala.
USAID
has also engaged with the private sector to leverage contributions and investments in Central America reconstruction. In total, more than one dozen
Cabinet agencies will be involved in the relief efforts: for example, the Department of Health and Human Services will continue to take active measures to advance public health, and the Department of Agriculture will assist with farming recovery and land use planning.

DEBT RELIEF

The International Monetary Fund has estimated that the external financing needs of Honduras and Nicaragua -- the two nations hardest hit by Hurricane Mitch -- will be approximately $1.4 billion over the next several years.
Assisting these countries in filling this gap is essential to their recovery.
Steps to do so include:

The United States and other creditor nations will relieve Honduras and Nicaragua from debt service obligations until 2001. The United States will urge other creditors to provide similar relief.

The Administration expects that the international financial institutions will also contribute substantial amounts to help meet external financing needs, as will the World Bank-managed Central American Emergency Trust Fund. The Administration will work with Congress to provide a significant contribution to this trust fund.

Combined, these efforts could provide more than $1.5 billion in debt relief.
In addition, U.S. agencies will work with major donors and lending institutions to provide debt forgiveness of up to 67% of eligible debt for Honduras and up to 90% for Nicaragua.

TRADE

On February 10, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation and Citibank signed a $200 million loan facility for Central America and the Caribbean.
Under this initiative, Citibank will extend medium and long-term loans to small and medium size businesses in the region. In addition to the Administration!,s

Caribbean Basin Initiative enhancement proposal , the United States plans to submit to the Senate bilateral investment treaties with Nicaragua and Honduras.

IMMIGRATION

The U.S. has granted Temporary Protected Status through mid-2000 to nationals from Honduras and Nicaragua who were present in the United States as of December 30, 1998. This will permit these individuals to legally reside and work here for the next 18 months. The U.S. has extended a stay of deportation for nationals from El Salvador and Guatemala through March 8, 1999. The U.S. is also actively considering measures to address the circumstances of certain individuals from the region with longstanding ties to the United States.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release February 16,
1999

February 16, 1999

Presidential Determination
No. 99-14

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

SUBJECT: Presidential Certification to Waive Prohibition on Assistance to the Republic of Montenegro

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the laws of the United States, including section 1511 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1994 (Public Law 103-160), I hereby certify to the Congress that I have determined that the waiver of the application of the prohibition in section 1511(b) of Public Law 103-160 is necessary to achieve a negotiated settlement of the conflict in Bosnia-Herzegovina that is acceptable to the parties, to the extent that such provision applies to the furnishing of assistance to the Republic of Montenegro.

Therefore, I hereby waive the application of this provision with respect to such assistance.

You are authorized and directed to transmit a copy of this determination to the Congress and arrange for its publication in the Federal Register.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary
(Merida, Yucatan, Mexico)

For Immediate Release February 15, 1999

FACT SHEET

U.S.-Mexico Cooperation in Law Enforcement

The United States and Mexico are committed to strengthening our counter-drug efforts and enhancing security along the 2,000 mile border we share by continuing to increase law enforcement cooperation. Today, President Clinton and President Zedillo of Mexico announced a new agreement to enhance consultation on cross-border law enforcement activities; an offer by the United States to provide training and technical assistance for Mexico's new Federal Preventive Police force; and a commitment to negotiate a bilateral agreement that will facilitate information-sharing related to control of chemicals used in the manufacture of illicit drugs.

Agreement on Consultation Procedures

Today in Merida, Attorney General Reno and Mexican Attorney General Madrazo signed an agreement that specifies procedures for consulting on major or otherwise sensitive cross-border law enforcement activities. This agreement follows from a July 2, 1998, joint letter that the two Attorneys General addressed to President Clinton and President Zedillo. That letter expressed a commitment to enhance U.S.-Mexican consultation and cooperation concerning cross-border law enforcement activities.

The new agreement establishes points of contact, timing, and form for notification of and consultation on covered law enforcement activities, and provides for the exchange of annual reports by the Attorneys General on compliance. The agreement applies to all federal law enforcement agencies of both countries.

Mexico's Federal Preventive Police

President Clinton today announced U.S. support for Mexico's newly-established Federal Preventive Police force, a consolidated national uniformed police force that brings together previously disparate forces. Attorney General Reno and Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Louis Freeh recently met with Mexican Minister of the Interior Francisco Labastida to discuss this new initiative. Most law enforcement functions in Mexico are exercised at the state and local levels, as in the United States. Unfortunately, many state and local police officers in Mexico lack formal education and training and are paid a very low salary. In creating the Federal Preventive Police, President Zedillo seeks to strengthen law enforcement throughout Mexico by developing an integrated force of carefully-selected, sufficiently-trained, and suitably-paid police officers. The FBI is prepared to provide training and technical assistance to help develop this new law enforcement capability in cooperation with the Government of Mexico.

Bilateral Chemical Control Agreement

President Clinton and President Zedillo agreed to negotiate a bilateral chemical control agreement to facilitate information-sharing regarding suspected illicit diversions of precursor and essential chemicals. Strengthening cooperation in this area of law enforcement is critical to implementation of the U.S.-Mexico Bi-National Drug Strategy. The intended agreement will specify the mechanisms for this important information exchange.

TEXT:

Sorry to not have let you know about CBS in advance. The show was pretty good as you can see from the transcript I gave you this morning (Julie saw it -- I was on a plane).

CBS has a crew in Antarctica for three weeks and will run a total of seven pieces on the Evening News, This Morning and their other news shows. Last night's was the only show on climate change.

[Tonight, there will be a piece on the Evening News with Dan Rather on Extraterrestrials in Antarctica, tomorrow on This Morning will be Women in Antarctica, etc. I will monitor the rest to see if there is any reference to global warming. There is one show on tourism where it could get mentioned].

On the Ag press conference front: There were very few reporters at the press conference. AP and Bloomberg were there, but per USDA's press office, don't seem to be writing. I have talked to the Billings Gazette and the reporter may or may not write. I have connected her with Keith Collins, Chief Economist at USDA, for comment. In general, the ag reporters wrote this story last year about the same study and don't think there is anything new.

USDA put out paper last year in response to the Spark's study and are faxing us that release. John can work off of that to write talking points.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release
February 16, 1999

PRESIDENT CLINTON NAMES GREGORY L. CRAIG AS A MEMBER OF THE PRESIDENT,S EXPORT COUNCIL

The President today announced his intent to appoint Gregory L. Craig to the President,s Export Council.

Mr. Gregory Craig, of Los Angeles, California, is the President and Founder of Cook Inlet Energy Supply, a fully integrated North American energy marketing company with sales in excess of one billion dollars. An Alaskan native, Mr. Craig has held several positions within Cook Inlet Region, Incorporated and its subsidiaries. Mr. Craig was appointed by the Secretary of Energy to the National Petroleum Council in 1997. HURRICANE MITCH: THE UNITED STATES RESPONDS TO CENTRAL AMERICA
February 16, 1999

Following their visits to Central America in the aftermath of Hurricane Mitch, the First Lady and Mrs. Gore today announced the President,s supplemental package of nearly $1 billion in emergency disaster assistance. The supplemental package, which was developed in close bipartisan consultation with the Congress, will be directed primarily to help the Central American nations cope and rebuild after Hurricane Mitch, the worst natural disaster in their history.

The United States responded immediately after the Hurricane hit late last October, and has continued to maintain these efforts in the months that have followed. To date, the United States has already provided $300 million in aid. U.S. military and civilian agencies have played a critical role, working with the governments of Honduras, Nicaragua, El Salvador and Costa Rica and a number of international and local non-governmental organizations to help provide food, water and relief supplies; to distribute seeds and tools; to repair water systems and road and bridge networks; and to provide medical assistance.

Key components of U.S. assistance to date are:

RELIEF

In the immediate aftermath of the hurricane, President Clinton directed personnel and resources from the military and civilian agencies of the U.S. government to support relief and rehabilitation efforts in Central America.

U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)

USAID has provided almost $92 million in food and other relief assistance.

On February 11, USAID provided $4.1 million to the International Organization for Migration to construct and administer ten transitional shelters for displaced people in Honduras. This assistance will provide alternative shelter to an estimated 25,000 people living temporarily in schools, allowing the schools to open by March 1.

This new assistance is in addition to $30 million from USAID's Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance to provide health care, repair water and sanitation systems, restore agricultural production and support road rehabilitation activities. The funds were also used to transport and deliver a variety of relief commodities including shelter materials, water containers and blankets.

USAID has provided $52 million in food aid, meeting 50 percent of the overall food needs. Under the PL 480 Title II food aid program, USAID's Office of Food for Peace (FFP) will provide 60,000 metric tons of food to 800,000 Hondurans through next summer, 19,700 metric tons of food to 300,000 Nicaraguans for six months and 7,600 metric tons of food for 60,000 Guatemalans for six months. The total food allocation also includes a $1 million contribution to the World Food Program's appeal for El Salvador.

A grant of $5 million has helped revitalize small businesses impacted by the hurricane. Joined with a $12 million contribution from the Inter-American Development Bank, these funds will rebuild workplaces, reestablish inventories and generate employment.

U.S. Department of Defense

The Department of Defense has spent nearly $150 million to support relief and rehabilitation efforts in Central America.

At the height of the relief effort, 5,300 military personnel were in Central America, representing the four armed services and their reserve components. Today, Joint Task Force Commanders in Honduras and El Salvador remain active in the region, coordinating the U.S. military response. U.S. Active Duty, Reserve and National Guard forces will be present in Central America through September to build schools and clinics, drill wells and repair additional roads and bridges, as part of an engineer and medical field training exercise called New Horizons.

Military personnel rescued more than one thousand people trapped by flood waters and provided medical care and immunizations to over 35,000 people. They cleared major roads and bypasses, as well as erecting prefabricated bridges. Military personnel also repaired medical clinics and schools, and provided communities with safe drinking water by building wells.

Military aircraft, including 53 helicopters were deployed throughout the region to assist distribution and delivered more than 3.2 million pounds of food and more than 500,000 gallons of water.

DoD transported to the region almost 8 million pounds of food, clothing, medicine and other relief items donated by American citizens.

U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA)

USDA is providing food aid and concessional loans, valued at $63 million.

USDA is delivering 120,000 metric tons of wheat for Honduras and Nicaragua, 60,000 metric tons of wheat for Guatemala and El Salvador and 50,000 metric tons of corn for the four countries. It will also provide $20 million in grants to Honduras and Nicaragua for the purchase of beans, vegetable oil, rice, and other basic commodities; and $10 million in Title I concessional loans for food purchases for El Salvador and Guatemala.

RECONSTRUCTION

USAID has already identified an initial $120 million within its own budget to support reconstruction efforts in Central America by reprogramming existing food and other funding and reallocating recently appropriated fiscal year 1999 assistance. These funds will help rehabilitate transportation infrastructure, restore public utilities, support health care, reestablish crop and livestock production and revitalize the economic sector. Of this, USAID will channel $66.6 million to programs in Honduras, $32.4 million for reconstruction in Nicaragua, $16.0 million for El Salvador and $5 million for Guatemala. USAID has also engaged with the private sector to leverage contributions and investments in Central America reconstruction. In total, more than one dozen Cabinet agencies will be involved in the relief efforts: for example, the Department of Health and Human Services will continue to take active measures to advance public health, and the Department of Agriculture will assist with farming recovery and land use planning.

DEBT RELIEF

The International Monetary Fund has estimated that the external financing needs of Honduras and Nicaragua -- the two nations hardest hit by Hurricane Mitch -- will be approximately $1.4 billion over the next several years. Assisting these countries in filling this gap is essential to their recovery. Steps to do so include:

The United States, and other creditor nations will relieve Honduras and Nicaragua from debt service obligations until 2001. The United States will urge other creditors to provide similar relief.

The Administration expects that the international financial institutions will also contribute substantial amounts to help meet external financing needs, as will the World Bank-managed Central American Emergency Trust Fund. The Administration will work with Congress to provide a significant contribution to this trust fund.

Combined, these efforts could provide more than $1.5 billion in debt relief. In addition, U.S. agencies will work with major donors and lending institutions to provide debt forgiveness of up to 67% of eligible debt for Honduras and up to 90% for Nicaragua.

TRADE

On February 10, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation and Citibank signed a $200 million loan facility for Central America and the Caribbean. Under this initiative, Citibank will extend medium and long-term loans to small and medium size businesses in the region. In addition to the Administration's Caribbean Basin Initiative enhancement proposal, the United States plans to submit to the Senate bilateral investment treaties with Nicaragua and Honduras.

IMMIGRATION

The U.S. has granted Temporary Protected Status through mid-2000 to nationals from Honduras and Nicaragua who were present in the United States as of December 30, 1998. This will permit these individuals to legally reside and work here for the next 18 months. The U.S. has extended a stay of deportation for nationals from El Salvador and Guatemala through March 8, 1999. The U.S. is also actively considering measures to address the circumstances of certain individuals from the region with longstanding ties to the United States.

Yes, we should offer to meet with each of them, although not necessarily under the banner of climate change. This caucus is not new and not to be over estimated. Last year Bingaman was the co chair and when I asked him about it, he did not even know it existed. We should try to get member-level mtgs with Todd, George etc; if unsuccessful, Julie and I (and Todd if you can) should do staff--level for all.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary
(Merida, Yucatan, Mexico)

For Immediate Release February 15, 1999

FACT SHEET

U.S.-Mexico Civil Aviation Agreement

President Clinton and President Zedillo today signed an agreement to liberalize air transportation within the U.S.-Mexico market. This agreement will result in improvements in the U.S.-Mexico aviation regime and is expected to yield tens of millions of dollars per year to the airlines of each country.

The 1960 Air Transport Agreement with Mexico, as previously amended, currently permits each country to designate only two airlines for operations between any pair of cities in the United States and Mexico. This has prevented both countries, airlines from offering services on all the routes they wish to serve. The previous Agreement also imposes onerous authorization requirements for charter flights.

The new agreement will permit four additional airlines from each country to code-share on flights between any pair of cities in the United States and Mexico. (Code-sharing allows one airline to sell seats under its own name on another airline's flights.) The agreement will also allow unlimited code-sharing for flights beyond gateways in each country. In addition, U.S. and Mexican negotiators agreed to reduce the administrative burden for their carriers conducting series of charter flights.

The resulting expansion of air services will benefit not only airlines, but airports, communities, travelers, and businesses on both sides of the border. Whereas U.S. and Mexican airlines currently have fewer than 100 code-sharing arrangements, applications for code-sharing arrangements on some 10,000 city pairs are already pending, suggesting that U.S. airlines may soon code-share with Mexican airlines on more city pairs than they will with airlines from the rest of the world combined. For passengers, code-sharing under this new agreement will offer more choices of destinations and airlines, better coordination of connecting flights, more seamless check-in, and new opportunities to earn frequent flyer miles. For communities, it will mean more international air service and opportunities to attract additional tourism, trade, and investment.
