I Discussion - NII FY96 Applications Highlights Draft Report

highlight key agency activities that support NII

Available to public with Budget figures, in Feb of next yr

Info to NII by Oct 11

Not a budget crosscut

so far, 320 programs from 20 agencies

II Global Information Infrastructure Activities

a number of opportunities this fall to get out our message

- Agenda for Cooperation - due out in November - successor to NII Agenda for Action

- Draft out in next 2 weeks for comment

III NII Progress Report (1985 IITF Priorities)

95 - need to highlight real world examples

Jack
Gibson

* need to show how we can provide security

* How do you provide mechanisms for allowing for market-driven payment options

* ^{Show} cost effectiveness of Multiplicity of users (esp in Rural Areas)

IF its worth it, people will pay for it.

Katzen * need to ensure there is real world applications - - practical applications

Vuong * - on Tuesday will have announced 100 grants for real-world application

OSTP - Demonstrations need to be multi-player
-- not just single focus
-- Need to work with private sector to make sure donors provide practical, real world applications

Barham: - Must be careful as govt not to impose order before chaos takes place that will guarantee creativity & innovation.

Katzen - we haven't really yet engaged the private sector the way we should - is objective

GSA - QS - $ to work with lower Arizona to ~~use~~ ^{link} fed agencies to public thru ~~link~~ 11/1

- Private Sector Group trying to promote/create
"National 111 thread" could make it higher profile

Katzen - Will we put together series of Goals/objectives for 1985

- Secretary pull together draft list of Goals for 1985 for comments

- outcome - Draft workplan also - would ~~be~~ helpful to list barriers to multi-agency efforts, multi-application projects

(QS) - In delivering applications, we should push for interoperability, cooperation.

Three models emerge from the literature on the topic

1. Top-down approach - where the organization initiates the change

2. Bottom-up approach - where the change is initiated by the employees

3. Middle management approach - where the change is initiated by the middle management

4. Coalition approach - where the change is initiated by a coalition of employees and middle management

5. Network approach - where the change is initiated by a network of employees and middle management

6. Hybrid approach - where the change is initiated by a combination of the above approaches
