CUOMO SAYS 60,000 MORE FAMILIES TO GET HUD RENTAL ASSISTANCE

WASHINGTON – Housing and Urban Development Secretary Andrew Cuomo today awarded rental assistance vouchers that will help 60,000 very low-income families live in housing they otherwise could not afford. Cuomo awarded the vouchers to about 500 housing authorities in the U.S., Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands and the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands.

The $347 million in "Fair Share" Section 8 rental assistance vouchers were awarded competitively based upon community needs. Almost 700 housing authorities submitted applications requesting more than 111,000 vouchers.

"The demand for affordable housing continues to skyrocket," Cuomo said. "Rents are rising faster than inflation, waiting lists for assisted housing are getting longer and, every month, more than 5 million American families who do not receive federal housing assistance have to choose between paying the rent or paying other bills. Congress needs to do more so that all needy families find decent, affordable housing."

Under the program, qualified recipients generally pay no more than 30 percent of their income as rent while HUD picks up the remainder of the tab. Families may live in any community where an affordable unit can be found that meets housing quality standards, and where the owner is willing to participate in the Section 8 program.

At HUD's urging, Congress, for the first time since 1994, did not restrict the vouchers awarded today to use by various sub-groups of the Section 8 eligible population, giving authorities greater flexibility to respond to local needs.

After almost 20 years of steady increases in the program, Congress, from fiscal years 1994 through 1998, refused to appropriate funds for any new assistance vouchers. The hiatus ended last year when Congress approved funding for 50,000 "Welfare-to-Work" vouchers, followed this year by the vouchers awarded today. However, the new vouchers were only half the total requested by the President for the last two years.

For fiscal year 2001, the President has requested another 120,000 new vouchers. To date, neither the House nor Senate has said they will appropriate funds for any new vouchers.

In its March 2000 "Report to Congress on Worst Case Housing Needs," HUD reported that the number of unassisted, very low-income households -- those with incomes less than 50 percent of the area median -- who are paying more than half their income for rent or who are living in severely-inadequate housing has risen 12 percent since the nation's economic recovery began in 1991. A record 5.4 million households containing 12.3 million individuals have "worst case" needs.

HUD also found that rental units available to families with incomes less than 30 percent of the area median dropped 5 percent between 1991 and 1997, a loss of more than 370,000 affordable units.

Some 1.4 million American families receive housing assistance under the Section 8 program, of whom 64 percent are families with children, 15 percent are elderly families or individuals and 13 percent are persons with disabilities.

Margy, Hi...list will be sent to you today. Please do not release to anyone.
Our release will be Tuesday.

cU.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Office of Public and Indian Housing
Section 8 Fair Share Allocation of Incremental Voucher
Funding for FY 2000

PURPOSE

This program's purpose is to invite public housing authorities (PHAs) to apply for Section 8 vouchers on a "fair share" basis. The fair share distribution ensures that each State will receive a certain number of vouchers based on its housing needs. Approximately $346,560,000 is available under the program this year to fund 60,000 vouchers nationwide. The vouchers are for issuance to families on a PHA's waiting list to enable these families to rent decent, safe, and affordable housing of their choice on the private rental market.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

PHAs established pursuant to State law, Regional (Multi-county) PHAs, and State PHAs are eligible to apply for funding. Applicants are limited to those PHAs currently administering Section 8 vouchers or certificates.

ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANTS

Eligible participants for this program include very low-income families, and on an exception basis, some low-income families, who are on a PHA's Section 8 waiting list and determined to be eligible in order to receive a voucher.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Applications deemed to be eligible for consideration under the Fair Share allocation will be rated on the following selection criteria and will be ranked by total score within each State:

plain Housing Needs: Points will be assigned based on the percentage of state housing needs in the jurisdiction served by the PHA.

PHA Efforts to Provide Area-Wide Housing Opportunities for Families: Points will be assigned based on voluntary PHA efforts to provide housing opportunities beyond those required by Federal law such as agreements with non-profit entities to provide tenant counseling or organization of PHA consortiums to facilitate tenant transfers between PHA jurisdictions.

Local Initiatives: Points will be assigned to those PHAs that provide locally initiated efforts to compliment the existing local Section 8 voucher program.

Disabled Families: Points will be assigned to PHAs that indicate at least 15% or more of the vouchers requested will be used to house disabled families.

Medicaid Home and Community Based Services Waivers Under Section 1915(c) of the Social Security Act: Points will be assigned to PHAs that use not less than 3% of their vouchers to house Section 8 eligible, disabled families covered by Social Security Act, which allows Medicaid-eligible individuals at risk of being placed in hospitals, nursing facilities, or intermediate care facilities the alternative of being cared for in their homes and communities.
