“Don’t Ask,
Don’t Tell,
Don’t Pursue.”

Dear Mr. Stephanopoulos:

I alone with others are outraged that any empowered military arm of the United States sees itself as above the directive of the President of the United States, its a lawfully elected members of Congress and most importantly the Constitution of the United States. The unlawful actions of the Air Force in regards to the vicious prosecution of a Captain presently serving at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii is not only a complete waste of my tax dollars is an affront to the authority that rules this land. That authority belongs to the those elected to serve; not those that wear uniforms entrusted to serve this country.

Clearly, the actions of the Air Force prove that this branch of the Armed Forces sees itself above the law. This very well marks the beginning of military rule of this country. This "attitude" is not acceptable. I and many others will not stand idle and let this matter go unnoticed. We will challenge it!

As a citizen of this country I demand that you abide by the directives set forth the Commander-in-Chief and Congress and put an end to this injustice. This action demeans the Air Force and this country.

Presently the uniform of every soldier is tarnished, because of the unlawful actions of a few. It is simply your duty to act with courage and fairness and to stop this escalation of a violation of the law. Advise the President to have the courage of his convictions and make all America stand up be proud.

What will be not be allowed after this? Will those that serve the arm forces be selected on a basis of religion, race or political beliefs. If this seems unlikely, I think you underestimate the seriousness and the importance of the words..."FREEDOM and JUSTICE for ALL.

Clearly, the actions of the Air Force prove that this branch of the Armed Forces sees itself above the law. This very well marks the beginning of military rule of this country. This "attitude" is not acceptable. I and many others will not stand idle and let this matter go unnoticed. We will challenge it!

As a citizen of this country I demand that you abide by the directives set forth the Commander-in-Chief and Congress and put an end to this injustice. This action demeans the Air Force and this country.

Presently the uniform of every soldier is tarnished, because of the unlawful actions of a few. It is simply your duty to act with courage and fairness and to stop this escalation of a violation of the law. Advise the President to have the courage of his convictions and make all America stand up be proud.

What will be not be allowed after this? Will those that serve the arm forces be selected on a basis of religion, race or political beliefs. If this seems unlikely, I think you underestimate the seriousness and the importance of the words..."FREEDOM and JUSTICE for ALL.

Dear Mr. Stephanopoulos:

I alone with others are outraged that any empowered military arm of the United States sees itself as above the directive of the President of the United States, its a lawfully elected members of Congress and most importantly the Constitution of the United States. The unlawful actions of the Air Force in regards to the vicious prosecution of a Captain presently serving at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii is not only a complete waste of my tax dollars is an affront to the authority that rules this land. That authority belongs to the those elected to serve; not those that wear uniforms entrusted to serve this country.

Dear Mr. Stephanopoulos:

I alone with others are outraged that any empowered military arm of the United States sees itself as above the directive of the President of the United States, its a lawfully elected members of Congress and most importantly the Constitution of the United States. The unlawful actions of the Air Force in regards to the vicious prosecution of a Captain presently serving at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii is not only a complete waste of my tax dollars is an affront to the authority that rules this land. That authority belongs to the those elected to serve; not those that wear uniforms entrusted to serve this country.

Clearly, the actions of the Air Force prove that this branch of the Armed Forces sees itself above the law. This very well marks the beginning of military rule of this country. This "attitude" is not acceptable. I and many others will not stand idle and let this matter go unnoticed. We will challenge it!

As a citizen of this country I demand that you abide by the directives set forth the Commander-in-Chief and Congress and put an end to this injustice. This action demeans the Air Force and this country.

Presently the uniform of every soldier is tarnished, because of the unlawful actions of a few. It is simply your duty to act with courage and fairness and to stop this escalation of a violation of the law. Advise the President to have the courage of his convictions and make all America stand up be proud.

What will be not be allowed after this? Will those that serve the arm forces be selected on a basis of religion, race or political beliefs. If this seems unlikely, I think you underestimate the seriousness and the importance of the words..."FREEDOM and JUSTICE for ALL.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Brown
