MEMO TO: Ben Rubenstein
Office of Public Liaison/White House

FROM: Helen Sramck

RE: ISTEA Bill Signing Ceremony

Thanks for relaying the White House invitation for Mr. Darbelnet to be present at the bill signing ceremony for ISTEA.

We have relayed all of the information to our Florida headquarters and expect to hear back from Mr. Darbelnet's office on Monday.

I will be out of the office attending a meeting all next week so your point of contact will be Suzann Regetz (202) 942-2074.

Again, thank you for your assistance.

Subject: Oberstar/Bill Signing Person
Author: Steve Palmer at OSTCENTRAL
Date: 6/5/98 12:45 PM

As I mentioned at the Daily Update, Mr. Oberstar has made a special request of the Secretary to have a person invited the the TEA-21 bill signing. The man's son was killed years ago in Elk River, MN and he has since worked to get a pedestrian overpass built, which will now be done because of one of the projects in this bill. Mr. Oberstar said that he believes that this bill signing will help bring closure on his son's death for this man and is therefore making this special request.

RE: Bill Signing Ceremony for ISTEA

Since it now appears that the highway bill will make it through the Congress and to the President in the not-too-distant future, I wanted to request that AAA's President and CEO be included on the invitation list in the event there is a public bill signing ceremony.

For two years AAA has been actively pushing for the ISTEA bill as part of its Crisis Ahead Project focusing on the deteriorating state of the nation's transportation infrastructure. Our President was asked to speak before the nation's Governors earlier in the year in support of increasing the investment in our surface transportation system.

Because of the commitment and efforts AAA made on this bill, we would be honored to be present at a bill signing ceremony.

The invitation should go to:

Robert L. Darbelnet
President and CEO
AAA

called to ✓

331-3000

It could be faxed in care of my office at: 202-783-4788, and I will see that it reaches Mr. Darbelnet's desk.

Thank you for your consideration. I can be reached at 202-942-2056.
