WHITE HOUSE CHRISTMAS 1994 CELEBRATES THE CLASSIC CHRISTMAS CAROL

"THE TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS"

WASHINGTON, DC -- The classic Christmas carol, "The Twelve Days of Christmas," is the theme for this year's Christmas at the White House. Students from Blue Ribbon Schools, students from university art/design schools and Tole Painters, from all around the country, were invited to create the ornaments used throughout the White House.

The White House Christmas Tree, an 18 1/2 foot Colorado Blue Spruce located in the Blue Room, is covered with ornaments depicting partridges in pear trees, turtle doves, french hens, calling birds, golden rings, geese a-laying, swans a-swimming, maids a-milking, ladies dancing, lords a-leaping, pipers piping, and drummers drumming. The thousands of ornaments displayed reflect the imaginations and talents of the individual artists, while remaining true to the spirit of the original carol.

The tree skirt for the Blue Room Tree consists of individual quilted panels representing each of the fifty states, territories and the District of Columbia. The quilted hunter green velvet panels are each uniquely designed, using a variety of quilting techniques.

The Ginger Bread House, located in the State Dining Room, is a replica of President Clinton's childhood home in Hope, Arkansas. 416 Park Avenue in Hope, Arkansas is decorated for the holiday season with wreaths in the windows and Santa Claus preparing to go down the chimney.

Working from photographs, the White House master pastry chefs, Roland Mesnier and Franett McCulloch, captured every detail of the President's childhood home -- the slopping roof of the front porch, green shutters, tudor molding and the President's black german shepherd, "King," sitting on the porch. The house is constructed of approximately 70 pounds of ginger bread and is held together with chocolate. Santa Claus, the wreaths, reindeer and german shepherd are made of marzipan.
