Press Secretary, First Lady's Press Office
Room 100, Old Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Caputo:

I want to thank you for providing Alicia Talanian a challenging and rewarding experience this summer. I know that she has greatly enjoyed and profited from the internship your office provided.

Our program maintains a continuing file for each intern. As part of that file, I would appreciate having a letter from you evaluating our intern's work this summer. I've enclosed a form you can use, or if you prefer to write a regular letter, that would be fine. (If an associate was a more direct supervisor of the intern, could I ask that you give him/her the form?)

This evaluation will be read by me; it will also be available to the intern. Your candid comments will help Wellesley improve our program, while also providing an assessment of this intern's performance.

Wellesley will begin selecting next summer's interns early in the new academic year. If there is a candidate with the appropriate interests and qualifications, I hope that we may contact you again about a possible placement in your office.

Again, thank you for completing this evaluation, and thank you even more for your assistance to our student this summer.

Sincerely,

Dear Lisa, Karen, Neel, and Angela:

Thank you for making my week in the First Lady's Press Office enjoyable. It was exciting to watch and participate in the daily office activities of the office, and I learned a lot. The First Lady's Staff is friendly and exciting to work with. The White House is an outstanding place to work, and I would like to return as an intern in the future.

Thank you for your kindness and enjoy the summer.

Best Wishes,
