Dear Ms. Finney:

KING-TV, the number one rated NBC affiliate in the Seattle-Tacoma television market, would like to interview the First Lady. We understand that Mrs. Clinton might be coming to the Seattle area June 24 to speak to the Mothers Against Violence group. Regardless of that trip, we request a one-on-one interview with Mrs. Clinton. Jean Enersen would conduct the interview. She is the most experienced anchor in this market, and she is an excellent interviewer.

We would be happy to come to Washington, any other city, or conduct the interview via satellite.

I will call you next week to learn how we can make this happen.

Sincerely,

Eric Lerner
News Director

Office of the First Lady
The White House

Dear Ms. Finney:

As per the First Lady's suggestion, I would like to follow-up with you on my request for the Honorable Hillary Clinton to appear as our guest on one of NBC-4's premier public affairs programs in New York, "VISIONES."

"VISIONES" is a series of weekly half-hour programs, presenting items on political, educational, historical, cultural interest and relevance to the Latino community. Having attended the First Lady's recent meeting in Washington, I believe that "VISIONES" will offer her the ideal vehicle by which to further elaborate on her tour of Latin America and bring her message of unity to a broader audience.

Please note that as of November 1995, all of NBC-4 broadcasts, including "VISIONES," are now being transmitted via satellite to all America (making NBC-4 the most watched television station in the nation) and to all of Latin America. The man behind this "NBC America" satellite is William Bolster, President and General Manager of NBC-4, as well as, newly named President of CNBC. Mr. Bolster has assured us maximum promotion and support for this broadcast.

If you agree, it would be my honor to schedule an interview here in New York for the First Lady at her convenience.

I look forward to hearing from you soon and thank you again for having invited me to share such a memorable and historic moment with you. I can be reached directly at (212) 664-5247.

Respectfully,

Dear Mr. Latimore,

Thank you for taking my call today. This letter is requesting a phone interview with First Lady, Mrs. Hiliary Rodham Clinton

The Carmen Show would be excited to interview the First Lady. We would like to discuss how she juggles family, career and being a mother. Carmen's show airs on KKDA-AM in Dallas each Monday from 7-8pm (CST). She interviews celebrities and discusses relationships (i.e. family, love, marriage, work, etc.)

Please respond to this request by calling 817-424-2680. Also, forward publicity material to:

Ms. Karen Finney
Deputy Press Secretary
The Honorable Hillary Clinton
THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington, D.C.

Dear Ms. Finney:

In anticipation of the November elections, we would be honored to have First Lady Hillary Clinton as our guest on WPTV's SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY. This is a live, thirty minute public affairs program that is broadcast at 10:00AM each Sunday immediately following NBC's MEET THE PRESS. SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY is the area's premier political forum and reaches an average of thirty six thousand viewers in five of Florida's largest counties. Our panelists include political editors and editorial writers from South Florida's four major newspapers.

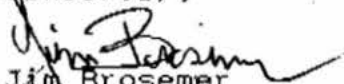

Since it's debut in 1994, SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY has had many prominent guests including Senators Phil Gramm, Al D'Amato, Bob Graham and Mrs. Elizabeth Dole. (Please see attached press release.)

We understand Mrs. Clinton will be in our area on Tuesday, May 2nd, for a Boca Raton book signing, and while we prefer to have our guests live in our West Palm Beach Studios, we can also arrange for taped interviews either live or via satellite to accomodate Mrs. Clinton's schedule.

If you are open to this invitation, and if Mrs. Clinton's schedule permits, either in May or in the future, I can be contacted directly at (407) 653-5735.

I look forward to hearing from you. My best to you and your staff.

Sincerely,

Jim Brosemer
Host/Senior Producer
SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY

WPTV-NEWSCHANNEL FIVE'S SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY GROWS TO NUMBER ONE.

Since it's debut in August of 1994, WPTV's SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY has become the number one rated Sunday morning program in it's time slot.

SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY is broadcast from 10:00-10:30am immediately following NBC's MEET THE PRESS, and attracts much of the same audience. This issue-oriented program focuses on key topics facing government, political and business interests in five south Florida counties. According to Neilson Media Research, SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY reaches an average of thirty six thousand adults over the age of eighteen.

SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY guests have included regional, state and national personalities such as: Governor Lawton Chiles; Senators Bob Graham, Al D'Amato and Phil Gramm; Congressmen Shaw, Hastings, Schroeder, Foley and Johnston. Other guests have included General Al Haig, Jeb Bush, Tommy Lasorda, Lamar Alexander, Irving R. Levine, and every member of the South Florida Legislative Delegation. The program's panelists include political editors and editorial writers from the area's four major daily newspapers.

"We are pleased to be the only station in the market producing this type of live program," says Bernadette O'Grady, Director of Programming and Creative Services for Newschannel 5. "With MEET THE PRESS and SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY back to back, viewers in this area receive national, state and regional forums on current issues in one comprehensive hour and a half."

"We look at this program as an opportunity to make news, not report it," says News Director Pat Burns. "We have prominent guests who comment live each Sunday morning on major current issues that concern the citizens of Florida."

SOUTH FLORIDA SUNDAY is produced by the WPTV News Department, the market leader for the past 42 years, and originates live each Sunday from the studios of Newschannel 5 in West Palm Beach. Host and Senior Producer Jim Brosemer is a veteran of nearly 30 years of reporting and anchoring experience in south Florida. Brosemer recently won three Emmy awards for investigative reporting...and holds the coveted Silver Circle Award from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. William J. Brooks, Vice President and General Manager of WPTV is the program's Executive Producer.

Re: Drew University Commencement Address

Dear Hillary:

Kent Manahan is a friend and easily the most respected television journalist in New Jersey. As you will note from the enclosed letter, she seeks to do an interview with you during your visit to Drew. I think the two of you would be "perfect together" (to paraphrase Tom Kean's earlier formulaic touting of New Jersey).

Best regards,

Douglas S. Eakeley

Dear Doug:

Your offer to help on my behalf to contact the Office of the First Lady is greatly appreciated.

As Senior Anchor and reporter for New Jersey Network, our statewide television network, I would like to interview Mrs. Clinton on May 17, 1996 if she arrives on that date, or the next day, which is Drew University's commencement day. I have been told Mrs. Clinton might arrive on May 17, 1996. The issues to be discussed would include the First Lady's trip to China last year to the International Women's Conference, her new book, her trip to New Jersey and her family. This would be a conversation about her life and activities and not politics. We could do the interview on the Drew University campus at her convenience.

Thank you for your help on this behalf. I can be reached at (609) 777-5218 or by fax at (609) 633-2927.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Caputo:

As the Senior Anchor of New Jersey Network News, New Jersey's statewide Public Television Network, I am requesting an interview with First Lady Hillary Clinton, during her visit to the State this weekend.

At the suggestion of Doug Eakeley and Governor Tom Kean, President of Drew University, I am forwarding this request directly to you.

I would like to speak to Mrs. Clinton in a one-on-one interview to be presented as a special report on New Jersey Network, about her visit to Drew University, as well as last year's trip to the International Women's Conference, and her family. The interview would be done with Drew University's cooperation at a location on the campus, at the First Lady's convenience.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon. I can be reached at 609-777-5218 or by fax at 609-633-2927.

Sincerely,
