

news news seventeen news news

TO: Lisa Capato

FROM: Roberta Greene 212-265-5830

RE: Seventeen Magazine's 50th Anniversary Gala 212-265-6014 FAX

September 22, 1994

Kathie Berlin suggested I send you the following information on Seventeen Magazine's 50th Anniversary Gala Celebration.

I know that Mrs. Clinton grew up on magazines and that Seventeen was one of her favorites. It has been addressing women's issues responsibly for fifty years. Next Wednesday evening, September 28th, we are having our 50th Anniversary Gala Celebration and it would be wonderful if we could read a letter, fax or telegram from Mrs. Clinton.

I know this is short notice, but I would really appreciate hearing from you regarding this request. The First Lady's words would mean so much.

Thank you for your consideration.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 17, 1994

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to have this opportunity to send my greetings and congratulations to Seventeen Magazine for fifty successful years of educating, entertaining and supporting generations of young women.

Your emphasis on independence and awareness helps girls throughout the country mature into confident, responsible women. I commend your commitment to provide an opportunity for girls to express and share their concerns and am grateful for your dedication to address, with both openness and sensitivity, the many issues that challenge young women.

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful fiftieth anniversary and for continued success for the next fifty years.

Sincerely yours,

Hillary Rodham Clinton
Hillary Rodham Clinton

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Dear Friend:

Thank you for requesting a message from the First Lady. It is my pleasure to send you the enclosed.

Please be aware that the White House has long-standing guidelines governing the use of First Lady's messages. The enclosed message may be used only at the time for which it was requested and only for the specific purpose for which it was sought.

A message from the First Lady is never to be altered, used for recruiting, reproduced for fund-raising solicitations or annual reports, represented as an endorsement, used for advertising, or used for any other purpose without the written consent of the White House.

Thank you for your cooperation in adhering to these guidelines.

Sincerely,

Alice J. Pushkar
Director of Correspondence for the First Lady